

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist Hipswell situate within the limits of the parish of Catterick in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Catterick and of the parish of Patrick Brompton in the said county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Catterick and of the said parish of Patrick Brompton should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist Hipswell situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See both of the vicarage of the said parish of Catterick and of the vicarage of the said parish of Patrick Brompton (in testimony whereof he the said consenting party has signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Catterick and of the parish of Patrick Brompton aforesaid which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John the Evangelist Hipswell situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Hipswell.’

“We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Hipswell comprising:—

“1. All that part of the parish of Catterick in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, which is bounded upon the north-west partly by the parochial chapelry of Hudswell and partly by the detached portion of the parish of Easby both which cures are situate in the said county and diocese, upon the west by the parish of Downholme in the said county and diocese, upon the greater part of the south partly by the parish of Hawxwell, partly by the parish of Patrick Brompton partly by a certain detached portion of the parish of Hornby all which parishes are in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by certain lands which are common to the said parishes of Patrick Brompton and Hornby, and upon all other sides, that is to say upon the remaining part of the south and upon the east and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing at the point upon the south side of Moor-lane Tunstall where the boundary which divides the said lands common to the said parishes of Patrick Brompton and Hornby from the parish of Catterick aforesaid is met by the township boundary which divides the township of Appleton from the township of Tunstall both in the parish of Catterick aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the said township boundary for a distance of one mile and sixteen chains or thereabouts to the point where it is intersected by the footpath or bridle road which leads from Winterfield House and Hornby Park towards Tunstall and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said footpath or bridle road for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath or bridle road leading from the Old Hall at East Appleton to Tunstall, and extending thence north-westward and in a straight line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the junction of the road leading from Tunstall to Catterick with Brough-lane and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to the point between Brough Lodge and Rosemary House where such lane is intersected by the township boundary which divides the township of Brough in the said parish of Catterick from the township of Tunstall aforesaid and extending thence generally south-westward along the last-mentioned township boundary for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the township boundary which divides the said township of Brough from the township of Colburn in the said parish of Catterick and
