

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 26, 1897.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 25, 1897.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen's Birthday will be celebrated in London alone on Wednesday, the 26th of May next, and at all other Stations, Naval and Military, on Monday, the 24th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 16, 1897.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Duke of York will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Tuesday, the 30th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS.

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

NOTICES TO MARINERS.

(Nos. 162 to 166 of the year 1897.)

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the visibility of lights are given from seaward.]

No. 162.—NEWFOUNDLAND.

St. John's Approach—Intended Alteration in Fog Signal.

THE Newfoundland Government has given notice, dated 8th February, 1897, that in consequence of the fog signal at Cape Spear having been seldom heard by vessels southward of the Cape, an additional fog horn has been established in a position bearing S. by W., distant 450 feet, from the old fog horn.

Approximate position, lat. 47° 31' 25" N., long. 52° 36' 50" W.

Also, that on 15th April, 1897, the fog signal at Cape Spear will be altered, so that during thick or foggy weather both horns will be sounded simultaneously, giving blasts of eight seconds' duration, separated by silent intervals of fifty-two seconds.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Alban the Martyr, situate within the Parish of Teddington, in the County of Middlesex, and in the Diocese of London, for the Old Church of Saint Mary, situate within and hitherto being the Parish Church of the same Parish.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Teddington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Alban the Martyr.

And whereas the Right Reverend Mandell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and the Right Honourable Orlando George Charles, Earl of Bradford, as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Teddington, and the Reverend Francis Leith Boyd, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Teddington, that the said new church of Saint Alban the Martyr situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to Saint Mary) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Mandell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the said Orlando George Charles, Earl of Bradford, and of the said Francis Leith Boyd, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Alban the Martyr, situate within the said parish of Teddington, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Mary as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Teddington, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Mary, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Alban the Martyr, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish; and we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Mary as aforesaid) of the said parish of Teddington, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Alban the Martyr (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Teddington) and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Mandell, Bishop of the said Diocese of London, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Orlando George Charles, Earl of Bradford, and the said Francis Leith Boyd, have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals, this eighteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of All Saints, situate within the Parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall, in the County of York, and in the Diocese of York, for the Old Church, situate within and hitherto being the Parish Church of the same Parish.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and has been consecrated and dedicated to All Saints.

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York as diocesan, and also as the patron, in right of his See of three out of every four turns of presentation to the vicarage of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall, the Reverend James Barmby, Clerk in Holy Orders, Doctor in Divinity, the Vicar of the parish of Northallerton, in the said county and diocese, and as such vicar, the patron of every fourth turn of presentation to the said vicarage of the parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall aforesaid, and the Reverend Henry Oswald Crow, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Vicar or Incumbent of the lastly-named vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the thirteenth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall that the said new church of All Saints, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church of the same parish.

Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument, under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William Dalrymple Archbishop of York, and of the said James Barmby and of the said Henry Oswald Crow, hereby declare that the said new church of All Saints, situate within the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall in lieu of the said old parish church of the same parish as fully in all respects as if the said new church of All Saints, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of All Saints (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said James Barmby and the said Henry Oswald Crow have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals, this fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

The Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890.

Special Resolutions (pursuant to the Companies Act, 1862, section 51) of the Ophir Concessions and Exploration Company, Limited.

AT an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Members of the said Company, duly convened and held at the Cannon-street Hotel, in the city of London, on the 25th day of February, 1897, the following Special Resolutions were duly passed, and at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Members of the said Company, also duly convened and held at the same place on the 15th day of March, 1897, the following Special Resolutions were duly confirmed:—

1. "That it is desirable to reconstruct the Company, and that with a view thereto, the Company be wound up voluntarily, and that Mr. Sidney Wells Money, of 31, Lombard-street, in the city of London, be and he is hereby appointed the Liquidator at a remuneration of 100 guineas.

2. "That the registration be approved of a new Company, to be called Ophir Exploration, Limited, and to be incorporated with limited liability under the Companies Acts, having a nominal capital of £150,000 in 300,000 shares of 10s. each, and the Memorandum and Articles of which shall be prepared by the Directors of this Company, and be submitted to the Confirmatory Meeting, and that in the meantime Dr. Ryley, Mr. R. T. Hodgson, Mr. Croome, and Mr. F. H. Grove be appointed a committee for the purpose of consulting with the Directors on the Memorandum and Articles of Association.

3. "That the Liquidator be and he is hereby authorized and directed pursuant to section 161 of the Companies Act, 1862, to sell and transfer the Undertaking, property, and effects of the Company to such new Company when incorporated, and that the consideration for the said sale and transfer shall be the allotment to the Liquidator or to his nominees of 240,000 shares in the capital of the said new Company, credited with 8s. paid thereon respectively, and leaving a liability of 2s. per share and no more, and the like allotment to the Liquidator, or to his nominees, of 60,000 shares in the capital of the said Company, issued as fully paid, and the payment and satisfaction by the new Company of all the debts and liabilities of this Company, and the costs of winding up, and the costs of the guaranteeing of the subscription of the whole or any part of the share capital of the new Company.

4. "That the Liquidator be and he is hereby authorized and directed to procure to be allotted to every holder of shares in this Company requiring the same, as his nominee under the contract herein-after mentioned, two shares in the capital of the new Company with 8s. credited as paid up thereon for every fully paid share held by such shareholder in this Company, provided that to entitle the Members of this Company to an allotment of such shares credited with 8s. paid up in the capital of the new Company as aforesaid, application must be made for the same in writing, in the form and manner prescribed by the Liquidator, within fourteen days next after notice requiring each Member to apply for the same shall have been given, in the manner in which notices are required to be given to Members under the Articles of Association of this Company, and that on such an application there shall be paid a sum of 3*d.* per share, in part satisfaction of the liability of 2*s.* per share on the shares credited with 8*s.* paid, and the balance of such liability shall be paid as to 3*d.* per share on allotment, and the residue when called for; but so that no call shall exceed 6*d.* per share, and that there shall be an interval between successive calls of at least three calendar months.

5. "That the Liquidator be and he is hereby authorized to enter into a Contract, pursuant to section 161 of the said Companies Act, 1862, in the form to be submitted to the Confirmatory Meeting, but with power to concur with the new Company in any modification of the same which he may consider necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the arrangement embodied in the aforesaid resolutions.

6. "That the Liquidator be and he is hereby authorized to enter into or concur with the new Company in entering into any contract with any person or persons or corporation for the purposes of obtaining subscriptions or guarantees of subscriptions of any shares in the new Company, on such terms and conditions as he may think expedient." WM. V. ROBINSON Chairman.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts 1862 to 1893, and of Wicks's Patents Syndicate, Limited.

AT an Extraordinary General Meeting of Wicks's Patents Syndicate, Limited, duly convened and held at Point Pleasant Works, Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey, on the 25th day of February, 1897, the subjoined Special Resolutions were duly passed; and at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, also duly convened and held at the same place on the 16th day of March, 1897, the subjoined Special Resolutions were duly confirmed:—

1. "That Wicks's Patents Syndicate, Limited, be wound up voluntarily, and that Mr. Owen Wyatt Williams, of Nos. 55 and 56, Bishopsgate-street, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, be and is hereby appointed Liquidator for the purpose of such winding-up, at a remuneration of £52 1*s.* and his expenses out of pocket.

2. "That the said Liquidator is hereby authorized to carry into effect an Agreement, made the 2nd day of January, 1897, between the Syndicate of the first part, Frederick Wicks of the second part, and Charles Eagle Bott of the third part, and also so far as it is necessary for the purpose of carrying out such Agreement, an Agreement made the 20th day of January, 1897, between the said Charles Eagle Bott of the one part and the Wicks Rotary Type Casting Co., Limited, of the other part, and the said Liquidator be and is hereby authorized, under section 161 of the Companies Act, 1862, to carry into effect such Agreements on the terms thereof, and to carry the same into effect.

3. "That of the deferred shares to be received under the terms of the said Agreements the said Liquidator shall allot to each Member of the Syndicate such proportion thereof as taken at the nominal value of the shares of the Wicks Rotary Type Casting Company, Limited, will represent the nominal value of the shares, whether inventors or ordinary, he holds in the said Syndicate in satisfaction of the capital held by him therein.

4. "That the remaining deferred shares and the ordinary shares to be received by the said Liquidator as aforesaid shall be dealt with in the following manner, viz.: One half thereof shall be appropriated and set apart in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the said Syndicate, and the Special Resolutions which have been from time to time passed in connection with the affairs of the Company to the holders of the inventors shares, and shall be distributed amongst them in proportion to the amount of their several holdings, and the other moiety thereof shall be distributed amongst the Members of the Syndicate holding ordinary shares therein in proportion to their entire respective holdings.

5. "That the sums to be paid from time to time by the Wicks Rotary Type Casting Company, Limited, in respect of the sale and working of foreign patents shall be received by the said Liquidator who shall be entitled to retain one quarter per cent. thereof for his remuneration, and shall distribute the remainder thereof in the following manner, viz.: One half thereof amongst the holders of the said inventors shares in the proportions aforesaid and the other moiety thereof amongst the holders of the ordinary shares in the said Syndicate in the proportions aforesaid."
