INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Alban the Martyr, situate within the Parish of Teddington, in the County of Middlesex, and in the Diocese of London, for the Old Church of Saint Mary, situate within and hitherto being the Parish Church of the same Parish.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Teddington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Alban the Martyr.

And whereas the Right Reverend Mandell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and the Right Honourable Orlando George Charles, Earl of Bradford, as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Teddington, and the Reverend Francis Leith Boyd, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Teddington, that the said new church of Saint Alban the Martyr situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to Saint Mary) of the same parish.
