INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of All Saints, situate within the Parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall, in the County of York, and in the Diocese of York, for the Old Church, situate within and hitherto being the Parish Church of the same Parish.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and has been consecrated and dedicated to All Saints.

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York as diocesan, and also as the patron, in right of his See of three out of every four turns of presentation to the vicarage of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall, the Reverend James Barmby, Clerk in Holy Orders, Doctor in Divinity, the Vicar of the parish of Northallerton, in the said county and diocese, and as such vicar, the patron of every fourth turn of presentation to the said vicarage of the parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall aforesaid, and the Reverend Henry Oswald Crow, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Vicar or Incumbent of the lastly-named vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the thirteenth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall that the said new church of All Saints, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church of the same parish.

Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument, under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William Dalrymple Archbishop of York, and of the said James Barmby and of the said Henry Oswald Crow, hereby declare that the said new church of All Saints, situate within the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall in lieu of the said old parish church of the same parish as fully in all respects as if the said new church of All Saints, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of All Saints (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of High Worsall with Low Worsall), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said James Barmby and the said Henry Oswald Crow have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals, this fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.
