FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1897.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, March 25, 1897.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen's Birthday will be celebrated in London alone on Wednesday, the 26th of May next, and at all other Stations, Naval and Military, on Monday, the 24th of May next.

Foreign Office, January 1, 1897.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint—

William John Archer, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Consul for the Consular District of Bangkok, and all other districts within the Dominions of His Majesty the King of Siam not included within the Consular Districts of Chiengmai and Kedah; and Walter Ralph Durie Beckett, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Consul for the Consular District of Chiengmai, including Lakon, Lampoonchi, Muang-Nan, Muang-Thon, Phrè, Raheng, Sawankalote, Sokotai, Tern, Utaradit, and Pichai.

Whitehall, April 10, 1897.

THE Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration, that upon the decease of George Philip, Earl of Moray, in the Peerage of Scotland, and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart, in that of Great Britain, without issue, which happened on or about the sixteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the titles and dignities of Earl of Moray and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart, devolved upon Edmund Archibald, now Earl of Moray and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sister of the said Edmund Archibald, now Earl of Moray and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart, cannot enjoy that title, rank, place, and precedence which would have been due to them had their father, Edmund Luttrell Stuart, Clerk, sometime Rector of Winterbourne Houghton, in the county of Dorset, survived his cousin, the said George Philip, the last Earl of Moray and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart, and thereby succeeded to the titles and dignities of Earl of Moray and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart; Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Francis James Stuart Gray (formerly Francis James Stuart), of Gray and Kinfauns, in the county of Perth, Esquire, Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, formerly Major 1st Battalion the King's (Liverpool Regiment), Morton Gray Stuart, Esquire, Master of Arts of the University of Cambridge, and Cornelia, the wife of William Henry Augustus Truell, Clerk, Rector of Wall, in the county of Stafford, the brothers and sister of the said Edmund Archibald, now Earl of Moray and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their father, the said Edmund Luttrell Stuart, had survived his cousin, George Philip, last Earl of Moray and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart, and thereby succeeded to the titles and dignities of Earl of Moray and Baron Stuart, of Castle Stuart:

And to command that the said order and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 10, 1897.

THE Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that, upon the decease of Thomas Charles, fifth Earl of Clonmell, in the Peerage of Ireland, without issue, which happened on or about the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, the dignity of Earl of Clonmell devolved upon Beauchamp Henry John, now Earl of Clonmell, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sisters of the said Beauchamp Henry John, now Earl of Clonmell, cannot enjoy that title, rank, place, and precedence which would have been due to them had their father, Charles Grantham Scott, Esquire, commonly called the Honourable Charles Grantham Scott, Colonel in the Army, survived his nephew, the said Thomas Charles, fifth Earl of Clonmell, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Clonmell. Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Louis Guy Scott, Esquire, Dudley Alexander Charles Scott, Esquire, Evelyn Mary Scott, Spinster, Jessie Louisa Scott, Spinster, and Annie Henrietta, wife of Frederick William Fane, Esquire, the brothers and sisters of the said Beauchamp Henry John, now Earl of Clonmell, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their father, the said Charles Grantham Scott, had survived his nephew, the said Thomas Charles,
