A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS We are happily at Peace with all Sovereigns, Powers, and States:

And whereas, notwithstanding Our utmost exertions to preserve Peace between the two Sovereign Powers, a State of War unhappily exists between His Imperial Majesty the Sultan of Turkey and His Majesty the King of the Hellenes, and between their respective Subjects and others inhabiting within their Countries, Territories, or Dominions:

And whereas We are on Terms of Friendship and amicable intercourse with each of these Sovereigns, and with their several Subjects and others inhabiting within their Countries, Territories, or Dominions:

And whereas great numbers of Our loyal Subjects reside and carry on Commerce, and possess Property and Establishments, and enjoy various rights and privileges, within the Dominions of each of the aforesaid Sovereigns, protected by the faith of Treaties between Us and each of the aforesaid Sovereigns:

And whereas We, being desirous of preserving to our Subjects the Blessings of Peace, which they now happily enjoy, are firmly purposed and determined to maintain a strict and impartial Neutrality in the said State of War unhappily existing between the aforesaid Sovereigns:

We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation:

And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving Subjects to govern themselves accordingly; and to observe a strict Neutrality in and during the aforesaid War, and to abstain from violating or contravening either the Laws and Statutes of the Realm in this behalf, or the Law of Nations in relation thereto, as they will answer to the contrary at their peril;

And whereas in and by a certain Statute made and passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the 33rd and 34th year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the conduct of Her Majesty's Subjects during the existence of hostilities between Foreign States with which Her Majesty is at Peace," it is, amongst other things, declared and enacted as follows. "He shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"If any person, without the Licence of Her Majesty, being a British Subject, quits or goes on board any Ship with a view of quitting Her Majesty's Dominions, with intent to accept any

“He shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

“If any person induces any other person to quit Her Majesty's Dominions or to embark on any Ship within Her Majesty's Dominions under a Misrepresentation or false Representation of the Service in which such person is to be engaged, with the intent or in order that such person may accept or agree to accept any Commission or Engagement in the Military or Naval Service of any Foreign State at War with a friendly State,—

“He shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

“(1.) The offender shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour; and

“(2.) “(3.) All illegally enlisted persons shall, immediately on the discovery of the offence, be taken on shore, and shall not be allowed to return to the Ship.

“Illegal Shipbuilding and Illegal Expeditions.

“If any person within Her Majesty's Dominions, without the Licence of Her Majesty, does any of the following Acts; that is to say:—

“(1.) Builds or agrees to build, or causes to be built, any ship with intent or knowledge, or having reasonable cause to believe that the same shall or will be employed in the Military or Naval Service of any Foreign State at War with any Friendly State: or

“(2.) Issues or delivers any Commission for any Ship with intent or knowledge, or having reasonable cause to believe that the same shall or will be employed in the Military or Naval Service of any Foreign State at War with any Friendly State: or

“Such person shall be deemed to have committed an offence against this Act, and the following consequences shall ensue:—

“(1.) The offender shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment; or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

“(2.) The Ship in respect of which any such offence is committed, and her equipment, shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

“Provided that a person building, causing to be built, or equipping a Ship in any of the cases aforesaid, in pursuance of a contract made before the commencement of such War as aforesaid, shall not be liable to any of the penalties imposed by this Section in respect of such building or equipping if he satisfies the Conditions following; (that is to say),—

“(1) If forthwith upon a Proclamation of Neutrality being issued by Her Majesty he gives notice to the Secretary of State that he is so building, causing to be built, or equipping such Ship, and furnishes such particulars of the contract and of any matters relating to, or done, or to be done under the contract as may be required by the Secretary of State:

“(2) If he gives such security, and takes and permits to be taken such other measures, if any, as the Secretary of State may prescribe for ensuring that such ship shall not be dispatched, delivered, or removed without the Licence of Her Majesty until the termination of such War as aforesaid.

“Where any ship is built by order of or on behalf of any Foreign State when at War with a Friendly State, or is delivered to or to the order of such Foreign State, or any person who to the knowledge of the person building is an agent of such Foreign State, or is paid for by such Foreign State or such Agent, and is employed in the Military or Naval Service of such Foreign State, such ship shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been built with a view to being so employed, and the burden shall lie on the builder of such ship of proving that he did not know that the ship was intended to be so employed in the Military or Naval Service of such Foreign State.

"If any person within the Dominions of Her Majesty, and without the Licence of Her Majesty,—

"By adding to the number of the guns, or by changing those on board for other guns, or by the addition of any Equipment for War, increases or augments, or procures to be increased or augmented, or is knowingly concerned in increasing or augmenting the warlike force of any ship which at the time of her being within the Dominions of Her Majesty was a ship in the Military or Naval Service of any Foreign State, at War with any Friendly State,—

"Such person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"If any person within the limits of Her Majesty's Dominions, and without the licence of Her Majesty:—

"Prepares or fits out any Naval or Military Expedition to proceed against the Dominions of any Friendly State, the following consequences shall ensue:—

"(1.) Every person engaged in such preparation or fitting out or assisting therein, or employed in any capacity in such expedition, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"(2.) All Ships and their equipments, and all Arms and Munitions of War, used in or forming part of such expedition, shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

"Any person who aids, abets, counsels, or procures the Commission of any offence against this Act shall be liable to be tried and punished as a principal offender."

And whereas by the said Act it is further provided that Ships built, commissioned, equipped, or despatched in contravention of the said Act, may be condemned and forfeited by Judgment of the Court of Admiralty; and that if the Secretary of State or Chief Executive Authority is satisfied that there is a reasonable and probable cause for believing that a Ship within Our Dominions has been or is being built, commissioned, or equipped, contrary to the said Act, and is about to be taken beyond the limits of such Dominions, or that a Ship is about to be despatched contrary to the Act, such Secretary of State, or Chief Executive Authority, shall have power to issue a Warrant authorizing the seizure and search of such Ship and her detention until she has been either condemned or released by process of law. And whereas certain powers of seizure and detention are conferred by the said Act on certain Local Authorities;

Now, in order that none of Our Subjects may unwarily render themselves liable to the penalties imposed by the said Statute, We do hereby strictly command that no person or persons whatsoever do commit any act, matter, or thing whatsoever contrary to the provisions of the said

Statute, upon pain of the several penalties by the said Statute imposed, and of Our high displeasure.

And We do hereby further warn and admonish all Our loving subjects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to Our protection, to observe towards each of the aforesaid Sovereigns, their subjects and territories, and towards all belligerents whatsoever with whom we are at Peace, the duties of neutrality; and to respect, in all and each of them, the exercise of those Belligerent Rights which We and Our Royal Predecessors have always claimed to exercise.

And We hereby further warn all Our loving Subjects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to Our protection, that if any of them shall presume, in contempt of this Our Royal Proclamation, and of Our high displeasure, to do any acts in derogation of their duty as subjects of a Neutral Sovereign in a War between other Sovereigns, or in violation or contravention of the Law of Nations in that behalf, as more especially by breaking, or endeavouring to break, any Blockade lawfully and actually established by or on behalf of either of the said Sovereigns, or by carrying Officers, Soldiers, Despatches, Arms, Ammunition, Military Stores or Materials, or any Article or Articles considered and deemed to be Contraband of War according to the Law or modern Usages of Nations, for the use or service of either of the said Sovereigns, that all persons so offending, together with their ships and goods, will rightfully incur and be justly liable to hostile capture, and to the penalties denounced by the Law of Nations in that behalf.

And We do hereby give notice that all Our Subjects and Persons entitled to Our protection who may misconduct themselves in the premises will do so at their peril, and of their own wrong; and that they will in nowise obtain any protection from Us against such capture or such penalties as aforesaid, but will, on the contrary, incur Our high displeasure by such misconduct.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the sixtieth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

THE Marquess of Salisbury to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty* :—

Foreign Office,

May 3, 1897.

MY LORDS,

HER Majesty being fully determined to observe the duties of neutrality during the existing state of war between His Imperial Majesty the Sultan of Turkey and His Majesty the King of the Hellenes, and being moreover resolved to prevent, as far as possible, the use of Her Majesty's harbours, ports, and coasts, and the waters within Her Majesty's territorial jurisdiction, in aid of the warlike purposes of either belligerent, has commanded me to communicate to your Lordships, for your guidance, the following rules, which are to be treated and enforced as Her Majesty's orders and directions:—

Her Majesty is pleased further to command that these rules shall be put in force in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands, on and after the 8th instant, and in Her Majesty's territories, and possessions beyond the seas, six days after the day when the Governor, or other chief authority of each of such territories or possessions, respectively, shall have notified and published the same; stating in such Notification that the said rules are to be obeyed by all persons within the same territories and possessions.

1. During the continuance of the present state of war, all ships of war of either belligerent are prohibited from making use of any port or roadstead in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies or foreign possessions or dependencies, or of any waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown, as a station, or place of resort, for any warlike purpose, or for the purpose of obtaining any facilities for warlike equipment; and no ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted to sail out of or leave any port, roadstead, or waters subject to British jurisdiction, from which any vessel of the other belligerent (whether the same shall be a ship of war or a merchant ship) shall have previously departed, until after the expiration of at least twenty-four hours from the departure of such last-mentioned vessel beyond the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty.

2. If any ship of war of either belligerent shall, after the time when this Order shall be first notified and put in force in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands, and in the several colonies and foreign possessions or dependencies of Her Majesty, respectively, enter any port, roadstead, or waters belonging to Her Majesty, either in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies or foreign possessions or dependencies, such vessel shall be required to depart and to put to sea within twenty-four hours after her entrance into such port, roadstead, or waters, except in case of stress of weather, or of her requiring provisions or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew, or repairs; in either of which cases the authorities of the port, or of the nearest port (as the case may be), shall require her to put to sea as soon as possible after the expiration of such period of twenty-four hours, without permitting her to take in supplies beyond what may be necessary for her immediate use; and no such vessel which may have been allowed to remain within British waters for the purpose of repair shall continue in any such port, roadstead, or waters, for a longer period than twenty-four hours after her necessary repairs shall have been completed. Provided, nevertheless, that in all cases in which there shall be any vessel (whether ships of war or merchant ships) of the said belligerent parties in the same port, roadstead, or waters within the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, there shall be an interval of not less than twenty-four hours between the departure therefrom of any such vessel (whether a ship of war or merchant ship) of the one belligerent, and the subsequent departure therefrom of any ship of war of the other belligerent; and the time hereby limited for the departure of such ships of war respectively shall always, in case of necessity, be extended so far as may be requisite for giving effect to this proviso, but no further or otherwise.

3. No ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted, while in any port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, to take in any supplies, except provisions and such other things as may be requisite for the subsistence of her crew, and except so much coal only as may be sufficient to carry such vessel to the nearest port of her own country, or to some nearer destination, and no coal shall again be supplied to any such ship of war in the same or any other port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, without special permission, until after the expiration of three months from the time when such coal may have been last supplied to her within British waters as aforesaid.

4. Armed ships of either party are interdicted from carrying prizes made by them into the ports, harbours, roadsteads, or waters of the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, or any of Her Majesty's colonies or possessions abroad.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of May, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by section eight of "The Church Building Act 1839" it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "That when by any Order of Her Majesty in Council, as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges, and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid; but if such Incumbent or Incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the Incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving Incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last-mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever."

At the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of May, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared, and humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an union of two contiguous benefices situate within the metropolis, and within the city and diocese of London, namely, the benefice of Saint Lawrence Jewry (being a vicarage) with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street (being a rectory), and the benefice of Saint Michael Bassishaw (being a rectory), and for effecting certain other measures incidental to or arising out of such union.

"Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, which proposals were prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, and were approved by the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and were assented to by the patrons of the said two benefices, that is to say, by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, as the sole patrons of the said benefice of Saint Michael Bassishaw, and as the alternate patrons of the said benefice of Saint Lawrence Jewry, with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street, and by the Master and Scholars of Balliol College, in the University of Oxford, as the other alternate patrons of the lastly-mentioned benefice, and the same proposals were also assented to, subject to certain modifications, by the vestries of the parishes concerned, that is to say, by the joint vestry of the parishes of Saint Lawrence Jewry and Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street, and by the vestry of the parish of Saint Michael Bassishaw.

"And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be expedient that the said proposed union of the two benefices should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto and to the other matters hereinafter contained, should be made as are hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and the patrons of the said two benefices, and the vestries of the said respective parishes, are willing that the scheme for effecting the said union should embody certain modifications of the said proposals, and this present scheme does embody the same modifications accordingly, but otherwise is based upon the said proposals.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederick, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal), with the consent of the said Master and Scholars of Balliol College, in the University of Oxford (in testimony whereof they have to this scheme affixed their common or corporate seal), with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in London (in testimony whereof they have to this scheme affixed their capitular or common seal), and with the consents of the joint vestry of the said parishes of Saint Lawrence Jewry and Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk street, and of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Michael Bassishaw (in testimony of which consents this scheme is signed in the case of each of the said vestries by the Chairman of a meeting of the same vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent);

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council all that is in this scheme contained under the several parts or headings hereinafter mentioned, as follows:—

"PART I.

"As to the proposed union itself and certain immediate incidents thereof, we recommend and propose:—

"1. That the said benefice of Saint Lawrence

Jewry, with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street, and the said benefice of Saint Michael Bassishaw, be united into one benefice under the style and title of 'The United Benefice of Saint Lawrence Jewry, with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street, and Saint Michael Bassishaw,' which said united benefice is hereinafter called the united benefice.

"2. "That if, upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, both of the said present benefices shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect, and if one of the said benefices only shall be then vacant, the said union shall forthwith take effect, if the incumbent of the other of the said present benefices shall consent to become the first incumbent of the said united benefice; but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said two benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice, and if, upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, both of the said present benefices shall be full, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of either of them, if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said present benefices shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said two benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice, and in any case the Bishop of the said diocese of London shall admit to the united benefice such first incumbent (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the said present benefices) without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united benefice. Until the time of the union taking effect the said two benefices shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities in respect thereof, and of the incumbents of each of them, shall remain unaffected.

"3. That if, after this scheme shall have been ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, duly published in the London Gazette, and before the union shall have taken effect, the incumbent for the time being of either of the said two benefices, shall, with the consent of the Bishop of London, retire from his incumbency in order that the said union may take immediate effect, then, if the incumbent so retiring from his incumbency shall be the present incumbent of the benefice of Saint Lawrence Jewry, with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street, he shall be entitled, during the period hereinafter specified, to receive in equal half-yearly sums a retiring pension or yearly sum of six hundred and seventy-three pounds in the manner following, namely, from and out of the annual income of the united benefice the sum of two hundred pounds (computed on the annual value of the title, or rate in lieu of tithe, now payable to him), and from the Trustees of the City of London Parochial Foundation, or from us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, out of moneys to be hereafter paid over to us by the same Trustees under the provisions of the City of London Parochial Charities Act, 1883, the sum of four hundred and seventy-three pounds (computed on a similar sum now payable to him by the said Trustees), the first of such half-yearly sums to become due at the end of six calendar months next after the day on which the said union shall take effect; and if the incumbent so retiring from his incumbency shall be the present incumbent of the benefice of Saint Michael Bassishaw he shall be entitled, during the period hereinafter specified, to receive out of the annual income of the united benefice a retiring pension or yearly sum equal to the net annual value of the tithe, or rate in lieu of tithe, and all other endowments belonging to the said benefice of Saint Michael Bassishaw, computed on the average receipts of the two years immediately preceding the year in which the said incumbent shall so retire, which said pension or yearly sum shall commence as from the day on which the said union shall take effect, and shall be payable by equal half-yearly payments in every year, the first half-yearly payment thereof to become due at the end of six calendar months next after the day on which the said union shall take effect, and in either case the said retiring pension or yearly sum shall be payable to the retiring incumbent during the remainder of his life, if he continues to be a member of the Church of England, but not otherwise, or until he shall accept other church preferment of a net annual value equal to or greater in amount than the said retiring pension or yearly sum to be so made payable to such retiring incumbent, and upon his accepting such preferment, the said retiring pension or yearly sum shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable, but if he shall accept other church preferment of a less net annual value than as aforesaid, then, whilst he shall hold such other preferment, the said retiring pension or yearly sum shall in each year be reduced by a sum equal in amount to the net annual sum payable to him for the same year in respect of such other preferment, and that the net annual value of such other church preferment, as may be accepted by the retiring incumbent, shall be ascertained without reference to and exclusively of the house of residence, if any, which may belong or be attached to such other church preferment.

“ Provided always that if such retiring incumbent shall hereafter be convicted of any offence against the Ecclesiastical Law, the punishment for which would be deprivation or suspension, his right to receive such retiring pension or yearly sum as aforesaid shall cease or shall be suspended as from the date of such conviction. And provided also, that if the same retiring pension or yearly sum shall cease or determine by reason of the retiring incumbent ceasing to be a member of the Church of England as aforesaid, or by reason of his being convicted of any offence against the Ecclesiastical Law as aforesaid, or by his acceptance of other church preferment, or by his death (as the case may be), on any other than one of the half-yearly days of payment, then he, or his executors, or administrators, shall be entitled to a proportionate part of the said retiring pension or yearly sum for the period which, at the time of such cesser, shall have elapsed of the current half-year, which proportionate part shall be payable at the end of the current half-year.

“ 4. That the said retiring pension or yearly sum so payable to a retiring incumbent as aforesaid shall at all times be subject to the same reduction in amount as the income, or portions of income, upon which the said pension is by this scheme computed or directed to be computed, would be subject to if the retiring incumbent continued to be the incumbent of his present benefice, and that, subject to this possible reduction, and to the provisions hereinafter contained, the said retiring pension or yearly sum shall (except as to the hereinbefore mentioned portion, amounting to four hundred and seventy-three pounds per annum, of the contemplated pension to a retired incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Lawrence Jewry, with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street) be charged upon the annual income of the united benefice, and shall be payable out of the same be the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice, and as between the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice and the retiring incumbent and his assigns the said retiring pension or yearly sum, excepting such portion as aforesaid, shall be a first charge at law and in equity upon the income of the said united benefice, and the incumbent of the united benefice shall be deemed to have accepted the same subject to a trust to pay to the said retiring incumbent or his assigns the said retiring pension or yearly sum, excepting such portion as aforesaid, out of the income of the said united benefice, and for that purpose to use all due diligence to receive and collect the income of the said united benefice, and that if such retiring pension or yearly sum, or any part thereof (except any part which may be irrecoverable by the incumbent of the united benefice) shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid for more than twenty-eight days after any of the said half-yearly days of payment, and the fact of the same being so in arrear shall be verified by the declaration of the incumbent who shall have so retired or his assigns, or in such other or further manner as shall be required by the Bishop of London, it shall be lawful for the said Bishop to make an order upon the incumbent for the time being of the said united benefice, requiring him to pay the amount in arrear within a time to be specified in such order, and if the same be not paid within such period then it shall be lawful for the said Bishop to sequester the profits of the said united benefice until all such arrears and the costs of the sequestration shall have been paid and satisfied, but the power to be so conferred upon the said Bishop shall not in anywise abridge or interfere with any rights of the incumbent who shall have so retired or his assigns to recover the said retiring pension or yearly sum and all arrears thereof by proceedings at law or in equity, or with the legal or equitable rights of the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice to recover from the preceding incumbent of the united benefice, his executors, or administrators, any arrears of the said annual sum which ought to have been paid by such preceding incumbent.

“ 5. That if the said union shall have taken immediate effect by reason of the incumbent for the time being of either of the present benefices having retired from his incumbency and such incumbent shall be living when the united benefice shall for the first time after such union become vacant, and shall not have accepted other church preferment of a value equal to or greater than the amount of his retiring pension, the incumbent who shall have so retired shall (if he be willing, and if in the opinion of the Bishop of London he be not disqualified by age or otherwise) be entitled to fill such vacancy, and if admitted by the Bishop to the united benefice, shall be so admitted without any form or fee of or for presentation, institution, or induction, and without being required to make any payment in respect of first fruits to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, and he shall upon such admission become the second incumbent of the said united benefice, and the retiring pension or yearly sum hereinbefore made payable to him shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable.

“ PART II.

“ As to the parish church of the united benefice and certain officers of the same and certain matters connected therewith, or with the church of Saint Michael Bassishaw, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England further recommend and propose:

"1. That upon the union taking effect the church of Saint Lawrence Jewry shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice.

"2. That upon the union taking effect the font and communion table and sacramental plate used in the church of Saint Michael Bassishaw, if the joint vestry of the united benefice desire it, shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice, but if not needed for such church, the font, communion table, or sacramental plate (or such portion thereof as may not be so needed) shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the fourteenth section of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, that is to say, shall be transferred to any other church or chapel or churches or chapels within the Diocese of London, as the Bishop of London may select.

"3. That upon the union taking effect the carved work and similar fixed fittings now in the said church of Saint Michael Bassishaw, or so much of such carved work or fittings as the joint vestry of the united benefice may desire, and may be sanctioned by the Bishop of London, shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice, but if they be not so transferred, or only in part so transferred, then the whole of them, or the residue not so transferred, shall be transferred to the church of the proposed new benefice hereinafter mentioned, unless it should seem more expedient to the Bishop of London that the same shall be sold, and the proceeds to arise from such sale shall, in such case, be added to the proceeds to arise from the sale hereinafter recommended of the materials and site of the said church of Saint Michael Bassishaw.

"4. That upon the union taking effect, the register books of baptisms, marriages, and burials of the parish of Saint Michael Bassishaw shall be transferred from the church of Saint Michael Bassishaw to the church of the said united benefice.

"5. That upon the union taking effect, the table of fees heretofore in customary use in the church of Saint Lawrence Jewry, shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for all the parishes included in the said united benefice.

"6. That if, upon the union taking effect, the persons who at the present time hold the respective offices of organist and vergier of Saint Lawrence Jewry shall at that time hold their respective offices, such persons shall be respectively organist and vergier of the united benefice, but no organist or vergier of the united benefice shall have any larger estate or interest in his office than he shall have possessed in his original office before the union.

"7. That if, upon the union taking effect, Mr. Henry Elsworth, who is now the vergier of Saint Michael Bassishaw at a salary of fifty pounds per annum, shall hold the same office, his services shall be dispensed with, and that, by way of compensation for the loss of his office, he shall receive for the remainder of his life a yearly sum or pension of fifty pounds, and such yearly sum or pension shall be paid to the said Henry Elsworth by the incumbent of the said united benefice, as is contemplated by clause 2 of Part III of this scheme.

PART III.

"As to the endowments or income of the united benefice, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, recommend and propose:

"1. That, subject to existing vested interests in the income now belonging to either of the present benefices, and to the pensions or compensations to be provided under the terms of this scheme, the incumbent of the said united benefice and his successors shall be entitled to and shall receive:

"(a.) The sum of two hundred pounds per annum, at present payable under the amended Fire Act, 44 Geo. III, to the incumbent of the benefice of Saint Lawrence Jewry, with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street.

"(b.) The sum of two hundred and twenty pounds eighteen shillings and fourpence per annum, at present payable under the amended Fire Act, 44 Geo. III, to the incumbent of the benefice of Saint Michael Bassishaw.

"(c.) The rent, being now a sum of forty pounds per annum, receivable by the present incumbent of the benefice of Saint Michael Bassishaw in respect of the former parsonage or rectory house of that benefice.

"(d.) The sum of fifty-eight pounds per annum, being the amount of a yearly payment now made to the present incumbent of the benefice of Saint Michael Bassishaw, by the said trustees of the City of London Parochial Foundation, such payment of fifty-eight pounds per annum to be made to the incumbent of the united benefice, either by the same trustees or by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, out of moneys which may be hereafter paid over to us by the same trustees under the provisions of the City of London Parochial Charities Act, 1883.

"(e.) The sum of one hundred and eighty pounds per annum, being the amount which the said trustees of the City of London Parochial Foundation now pay to the incumbent and churchwardens of the parish of Saint Michael Bassishaw for ordinary repairs at the church of that parish and for the maintenance of divine service in the same church, such payment of one hundred and eighty pounds per annum to be made to the incumbent of the united benefice, either by the said trustees or by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, out of moneys which may be hereafter paid over to us by the same trustees under the provisions of the aforesaid City of London Parochial Charities Act, 1883.

"2. That so long as the yearly sum or pension of fifty pounds, which is contemplated by clause 7 of Part II of this scheme is payable to the said Henry Elsworth, such yearly sum or pension shall be paid by the incumbent of the said united benefice, and that during the same period the incumbent of the united benefice shall be entitled to receive for his own use and benefit from the trustees of the City of London Parochial Foundation or from us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, out of moneys to be hereafter paid over to us by the same trustees under the provisions of the City of London Parochial Charities Act, 1883, the sum of forty-five pounds per annum, which is now payable by the aforesaid trustees, to the incumbent and churchwardens of the parish of Saint Michael Bassishaw, towards the cost of substantial repairs at the church of that parish.

"3. That if the union should take effect by the retirement upon a full pension of one of the present incumbents of the two benefices to be united, the foregoing recommendations shall come into full operation only upon his ceasing to be entitled to his pension, and if, on the retiring incumbent accepting other church preferment, a portion, but not the whole, of his pension shall become available, or if in any other way part of the income of the united benefice shall become available for the eventual purposes of the whole, then the part so becoming available shall be applied to the object to which the whole is eventually to be applied.

"4. That if the Reverend Main Sweo Alexander Walrond, clerk in holy orders, the present incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Lawrence Jewry, with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street, shall become the first incumbent of the united benefice, he shall not be entitled to receive, by way of income in respect of such incumbency, an amount in excess of nine hundred pounds per annum.

"5. That the incumbent of the united benefice shall be entitled to receive for his own use and benefit any accumulations which may, at the time of the union taking effect, be in the hands of the incumbent and churchwardens of the parish of Saint Michael Bassishaw, in respect of the two yearly payments of one hundred and eighty pounds and forty-five pounds respectively, at present made to such incumbent and churchwardens by the said trustees of the City of London Parochial Foundation as above mentioned.

"PART IV.

"As to a certain new ecclesiastical district, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, recommend and propose:

"1. That an ecclesiastical district within the limits of the Metropolis (as that word is or may be from time to time defined by statute for the purposes of the hereinbefore mentioned Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two) such district then having been, or then being about to be, formed or legally constituted under some or one of the Acts of Parliament authorizing the formation or constitution of such district shall be selected by the Bishop of London as the district for which a church shall be built out of the proceeds of the sale or sales hereinafter recommended.

"2. That the sum of two hundred pounds per annum, which is at present paid by the said trustees of the City of London Parochial Foundation to the incumbent of the benefice of Saint Lawrence Jewry, with Saint Mary Magdalene, Milk-street, in respect of the Campden Lecture, shall form the endowment of the intended new church and district, if the said trustees are willing to assign such sum of two hundred pounds per annum for that purpose, or are willing to pay over that sum to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be applied towards that object, but in the event of the said trustees of the City of London Parochial Foundation deciding to apply the said sum of two hundred pounds per annum to any incumbent of the said united benefice, the income or endowments assigned to such incumbent under the provisions of clause 1 of Part III of this scheme shall thereupon be and become charged with a payment of two hundred pounds per annum in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said intended new church and district, and such payment shall be made in two equal half-yearly portions.

"3. That, as a further endowment for the same new church and district, the sum of forty-five pounds, which is referred to in clause 2 of Part III of this scheme shall, after it has ceased to be payable to the incumbent of the said united benefice, become and be payable to the incumbent for the time being of the said new church and district.

"PART V.

"As to the church of Saint Michael Bassishaw and the site and appurtenances thereof, and as to the proceeds of any sale or sales of the materials, site, furniture, or fittings of the same church, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, recommend and propose:

"1. That, as soon as conveniently may be after the union shall have taken effect, the church of Saint Michael Bassishaw shall be taken down, and that, subject to the provisions contained in clause 3 of Part II of this scheme, the furniture and fittings, and the materials and site of the said church, together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use or enjoyment thereof shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, such sale or sales being made in all respects subject to the provisions contained in the seventh section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and special regard being had to the tomb of Doctor Thomas Wharton.

"2. That the net proceeds to arise from the sale or sales to be made by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England as aforesaid, of the site and materials and furniture and fittings of the said church, shall form one aggregate fund, and shall be applied as follows, and in the following order, that is to say:—
