LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 24, 1897.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty's recent visit to Sheffield on the 21st instant:—

The Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Lathom, the Lord Chamberlain, were in attendance on Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Sheffield, humbly offer to Your Majesty our glad and loyal welcome to this City.

We humbly thank Your Majesty for having been pleased to open our new Town Hall which, begun in the year 1891 during the mayoralty of the late Alderman Clegg, has now been completed during that of our present Mayor, the Duke of Norfolk.

We gratefully rejoice that this dedication of the home of our Municipal Government will for ever link Your Majesty's name with the history of this city, and through far off years will strengthen the bonds with which a grateful and ever growing loyalty shall bind the subjects to the Throne.

But we have a second and unique cause for our gladness to-day. It is our proud privilege to herald the outburst of thanksgiving with which the world-wide British Empire hails the unparalleled length of Your Majesty's Reign. More than a thousand years have rolled away since England became a Kingdom, but, during all those centuries, no Sovereign has worn the Crown so long as Your Majesty, or has seen such moral and material blessings conferred upon our country. How wondrous has been the history of these sixty happy years. Abroad, vast regions have been added to Your dominions, whole races and peoples have been gathered to Your sway, Your subjects have explored every Continent, and Your flag floats over every sea.

At home the happiness and welfare of Your people have been broadened and deepened. Liberty, civil and religious, has been assured; free education has been given to the poor; science, art, and commerce have flourished beyond all precedent. In this growth and progress our Borough (now by Your Majesty's favour a City) has won a high place. She has built for Your Navy that grim armour of steel which guards Your Empire upon the sea. She has manufactured in countless numbers the weapons of war, and the implements of peace.

The toilers, who have fashioned them, crowd around Your Majesty to-day, but not in curiosity or vain pride. Their shout is the inspiration of affection, for Your August Person as well as of loyalty to Your Throne. For while we glory in the undimmed lustre of Your Reign, we remember how heavy has been the cross of sorrow laid upon You, and how that sorrow has been graciously reflected in a deep and tender sympathy with the griefs of Your people. We devoutly thank Almighty God for His priceless gift to this Kingdom of such a Queen, wife and mother, and for His abounding mercy in sparing Her to us so long.

We pray that Your reign may be prolonged for yet many years, still hallowed by a Monarch's chiefest glory, Her people's love. May the Divine Blessing be Yours, "Thou settest a crown of fine gold on her head, She asked life of Thee: Thou gavest it her, even length of days, for ever and ever."

Given under the Corporation Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Sheffield, this 21st day of May, 1897.

Norfolk, Mayor.

Herbert Bramley, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"I HAVE great pleasure in receiving your loyal and dutiful Address, and in being able to open this spacious and beautiful Town Hall which is a worthy monument of the vast growth and importance of your City.

"I am glad to associate Myself with an event of such moment to Sheffield as the dedication of this fine building to municipal uses, and I trust that the progress of the prosperity of the City and the welfare of its inhabitants may be great and uninterrupted.

"I share fully in your appreciation of the manifold blessings of peace and prosperity which have during the last sixty years been vouchsafed to My Throne and Family and to all classes of My subjects; and I am deeply touched by the numerous manifestations which reach Me of the wish to associate these blessings with My Reign.

"With profound reverence and thankfulness I join in your praise and gratitude to the Almighty who has sustained and blessed this Kingdom and Empire during the long period for which the responsibilities of Sovereignty have lain upon Me."

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
The Loyal and Most Dutiful Address of the Sheffield Town Trustees.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Town Collector and his Assistants, the Free Tenants of Sheffield, commonly called "The Sheffield Town Trustees," the most ancient Public Body in the City of Sheffield, crave leave most loyally to offer to Your Majesty a cordial welcome on Your Visit to our City.

Sheffield has been favoured by the presence of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and by other Members of the Royal Family, and we now hail with delight the great honour which Your Majesty has conferred upon Sheffield, in this the Sixtieth Year of Your illustrious Reign, a Reign the longest in the history of this Country, and one wherein science, literature, and art, commerce, and the means of intercommunication at home and abroad, have made gigantic strides, and in which also the extension of Your Majesty's vast and ever-increasing Empire has been fraught with so much happiness and prosperity to the millions of Your Majesty's subjects.

We humbly beg to offer an assurance of our loyalty to Your Majesty and to the Throne, and we fervently pray that the blessing of the Almighty may rest upon Your Majesty and that You may long be spared to continue a Reign which has conducted in such an eminent degree to the moral and social advancement of Your people.

Given at and by order of a meeting of the Sheffield Town Trustees held at the Court House, Sheffield, on the 11th day of May, 1897.

Fredk. T. Mappin, Town Collector.

C. E. Vickers, Law Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you for your loyal Address and welcome to this great City where I see so much is due to the public spirit and combined action of all classes of the citizens of whose early self-government, gradually developed with such advantageous results, you are the witnesses and representatives."

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Master, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants, and Commonalty of the Company of Cutlers in Hallamshire, in the county of York, incorporated, by Act of Parliament in the 21st year of King James the First, and ever faithful to the Constitution, and loyal in its attachment and devotion to Your Majesty, rejoice in the opportunity which is afforded to us to-day of uniting with our Fellow Citizens in according to Your Majesty a hearty welcome to the City of Sheffield.

We esteem very highly the honour which Your Majesty has conferred upon us on fulfilling in this the year of the Diamond Jubilee of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne, the gracious intention expressed a year ago of visiting our City to open our new Town Hall.

We feel that in this visit we have a token that Your Majesty approves of our Civic and Municipal Institutions, and continues to take an active interest in all that concerns the Wealth, Peace, and Godliness of Your Majesty's subjects in this Kingdom and throughout the Empire.

We are very conscious of the many and great benefits secured to this country and its dependencies throughout Your Majesty's long and glorious reign, and we trust that Your Majesty will feel that this Company and those engaged in the various manufactures coming under its jurisdiction have not been unmindful of the many opportunities afforded by Your Majesty's wise rule, but that by the united enterprise and efforts of employers and employed they have endeavoured, and not without success, to take part in contributing to the defence of Your Majesty's Empire.

That Your Majesty's reign may still be extended through years to come, and that by the blessing of Almighty God You may long rule in peace and prosperity over a united and contented people is our sincere and earnest prayer.

By Order of the Master,

Wardens, Searchers, and Assistants of the Company of Cutlers in Hallamshire in their Common Hall in Sheffield assembled this 13th day of April,
1897.

Alex. Wilson, Master Cutler.

Charles Macro Wilson, Law Clerk to the Cutlers' Company.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

“I THANK you for your loyal and dutiful Address.

“I rejoice with you in the remarkable advance of the wealth and commerce of the Empire, which, under the blessing of God, is attributable alike to the external tranquillity, and peaceable development of industry which has been vouchsafed, and to the energy and industry of My subjects of which the great trade which you represent affords so renowned an example.

“And I hope that prosperity may be continued and augmented to all classes of your community.”

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE President, the Board of Management, and the Medical Staff of the Sheffield General Infirmary humbly beg to approach Your Most Gracious Majesty with loyal expressions of heartfelt welcome to our city, and with sincerest congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of a Reign distinguished throughout the civilized world for its noble encouragement of the gentle arts of peace, and its generous promotion of beneficent charity.

Encouraged by Your Majesty's active interest in charitable undertakings, We humbly crave permission to direct attention to the fact that Your Gracious Majesty's visit to this city coincides with the centennial year of the foundation of the Institution with which we are associated. Opened in 1797, the Sheffield General Infirmary has, through the bountiful generosity of the public, been enabled to extend a succouring hand to the sick and the injured poor of this industrial city and surrounding district, irrespective of race or creed, for nearly one hundred years, and during that long period has striven in every way possible to enlarge its sphere of usefulness, and to meet the ever increasing requirements of the times. Several additions have been made to the original buildings, including a commodious and well arranged out-patients' department, and only a year ago an appeal was made for £20,000 to provide a new wing for ophthalmic wards and a separate house for the accommodation of the sisters and nurses. Through the success of the appeal these new buildings are now in course of construction, and it was our earnest hope when Your Majesty's intention to visit Sheffield was announced, that our long established charity might be honoured with the illustrious presence of our beloved Sovereign to lay a memorial stone of the Nurses' House.

Your Gracious Majesty's arrangements, however, not permitting of a personal visit to the Infirmary, we humbly beg that Your Majesty will, in consideration of its centenary and in commemoration of this Royal Visit to our city bestow a mark of Your Queenly favour, and signify that it is Your Majesty's pleasure that the Sheffield General Infirmary be henceforth known as the Sheffield Royal Infirmary. And we devoutly pray that Your Most Gracious Majesty may long be spared to reign over a peaceable and prosperous Empire, secure in the loyal affection of a contented people.

We have the honour to be Your Majesty's loyal, dutiful, and obedient Servants, Norfolk, President.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

“I THANK you for your loyal and dutiful Address;

“I congratulate you on the attainment of the Centenary of the Sheffield General Infirmary, and I readily accede to your desire that that beneficent Institution should henceforth be known as the Sheffield Royal Infirmary.”

Whitehall, May 24, 1897.

THE following Address from the Members of the London County Council was presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, on the occasion when, as representing Her Majesty the Queen, His Royal Highness opened the Blackwall Tunnel on Saturday, the 22nd May, 1897:—

The Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, was in attendance on His Royal Highness.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, K G.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE, the Chairman and Members of the Council of the Administrative County of London, desire to approach Your Royal Highness and to express to You our great appreciation of Your having undertaken, on behalf of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, the dedication of the Blackwall Tunnel to the public.

We gratefully recall that London is under a lasting obligation to Your Royal Highness for having declared most of the bridges which cross the River Thames within the Council's jurisdiction free from toll, thereby conferring a boon on the people residing in the western districts.

The want of free communication to connect the two sides of the River Thames has long been felt by the inhabitants residing in the east and south-east districts of the Metropolis, and the tunnel which has just been completed is the first of the schemes which the Council propose to carry out in order to meet the pressing requirements of the public.

It is to us a source of much satisfaction to know that this great engineering work has been successfully completed. The formation of the Tunnel by means of compressed air has proved to the engineering and scientific world that the difficulties which are met with in sub-aqueous tunnelling can be overcome.

We feel sure that Your Royal Highness will be glad to learn that owing to the great care which has been taken for the protection of the workmen, the operations have been carried out with unusual freedom from serious accidents.

We are much gratified that the work has been finished in the Sixtieth year of Her Majesty's reign, and we anticipate that Her wish that it “will be of lasting benefit to the traffic of London” will be fully realized.

In conclusion, we have to express our fervent hope that our much loved Sovereign may be spared to preside over the destinies of Her vast Empire for many years, and that You will express to Her our loyalty to Her Throne and Person.

We tender to Your Royal Highness our most hearty thanks for the great honour you have done us in opening this work to the public and to Your Royal Consort the Princess of Wales for having graced the occasion with Her presence, and we pray that Your Royal Highnesses may continue to evince that interest which You have always taken in those matters which tend to promote the welfare of the capital of the Empire.

Signed by order of the London County Council,
C. J. Stewart, Clerk of the Council.

To which His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, on behalf of Her Majesty, gave the following most gracious Answer:—

"IT affords me much pleasure to attend here to-day on behalf of the Queen, My Dear Mother, to mark the successful conclusion of this important and difficult undertaking—a work of which you, as the projectors, and the engineer and workmen associated with you, have reason to be proud.

"It is a particular pleasure to the Princess of Wales and Myself to learn that, by reason of the great care taken for the protection of the workmen during the performance of their labours, the tunnelling operations have been carried out with unusual freedom from the serious accidents which, unhappily, so often attend enterprises of this and a like character; and I cannot refrain from observing that not the least of the glories of the reign of Her Majesty is the increased solicitude of the State for the protection of those whose lot it is to follow occupations involving hazard to life, limb, and health.

"Another noteworthy feature of the present reign which may fittingly be mentioned to-day, is to be found in the many and great improvements which have been made in connection with our famous river. Old bridges have been freed from tolls; new bridges and ferries have been provided; noble embankments have been built, and to-day we witness the conclusion of another triumph of engineering skill and civic spirit.

"I thank you for your kind expressions towards the Princess and Myself, and I will not fail to convey to the Queen your message of loyalty to Her Majesty's Throne and Person.

"In the name of Her Majesty I now dedicate the Blackwall Tunnel to the use of the public."

Whitehall, May 25, 1897.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty attaining the Sixtieth Year of Her Reign, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of London, in Quarter Sessions assembled, crave leave to offer the expression of our loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and to join in the respectful congratulations of Your Majesty's subjects in every part of the world on the approaching completion of Sixty years of Your Majesty's beneficent Reign.

Memorable as Your Majesty's reign has been in the progress of the national prosperity of the Empire in every way, in the advancement of science, and in the application of the resources of civilization, to promote the happiness and welfare of Your Majesty's subjects at large, it has been hardly less memorable in the increase of the admiration, respect, and love for Your Majesty's Person, which are common to all classes of Your Majesty's subjects in every part of Your Empire, and have become part of the national life.

We pray Heaven to grant to Your Majesty, during the continuance of Your ever memorable Reign, every blessing and every happiness.

By the Court,

Richd. Nicholson, Clerk of the Peace.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Aldermen and Councillors of the County Council of the East Riding of Yorkshire in General Meeting assembled, do hereby tender to Your Most Gracious Majesty our loyal and dutiful congratulations on the auspicious celebration of the Sixtieth Year of Your beneficent and prosperous Reign, which Almighty God has mercifully prolonged for a period unprecedented in the history of the Sovereigns of this Country, to the great benefit and happiness of Your subjects in all parts of Your Empire, and we pray that Your Majesty may be spared for many years to advance the interests, happiness, and welfare of a loyal, prosperous, and contented people.

Charles Legard, Baronet, Chairman.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Council of the County of Northampton, desire humbly to convey to Your Majesty our loyal congratulations on the near completion of the Sixtieth year of Your Reign.

Your Majesty has now occupied the Throne longer than any of Your Royal predecessors, and during this period, by strictly adhering to the wise and constitutional exercise of Your high powers, has succeeded in promoting to an unprecedented degree the welfare and the happiness of Your subjects in every part of Your vast dominions.

Your Majesty has endeared Yourself to Your people by the simplicity and high tone of Your life and by the kind and sympathetic manner in which You have constantly identified Yourself with them whether in times of joy or of sorrow.

We trust that You will long live in Your exalted position, and that the remaining years of Your Reign will be passed in peace and happiness, and that You will be supported in carrying out Your heavy responsibilities by the knowledge that You have the full confidence and the warm affection of Your people.

S. G. Stopford Sackville,

Chairman of the Council.

Henry Philip Markham,

Clerk of the Council.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

THE ancient City of Ripon, through its Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens, begs most loyally to present to Your Beloved and Gracious Majesty its heartfelt congratulations on the happy and auspicious Completion of the Sixtieth Summer of Your beneficent Reign.

This ancient City has seen in its ten centuries of civic life the whole rise of the British Empire through turmoil, change, struggle, strife, and victory; but in no era and in no epoch has it witnessed such glorious achievement of national life as in the generations of which Your Majesty has so guided the destinies that each successive year has only knit closer in progress and in brotherhood the English-speaking Race, within and over seas, and strengthened and confirmed the love and loyalty of the People to their Sovereign.

And while we, Citizens of Ripon, pay tribute of esteem to those who have, in this unparalleled Period of Rule, illumined the domains of Art, Literature, Statesmanship, and Science, or in other ways distinguished themselves in Your Majesty's Service, we more especially recognized the enduring benefits which, under Your Majesty's direct example, have been conferred on the children, the destitute, the suffering, and oppressed, feeling assured that this relief of helplessness and sorrow adds no less to the memorable record of Your Majesty's reign than triumph of war or the extension of Empire.

As the sun never sets on Your Majesty's dominions, so may this sun of beneficence, so royally favoured, never set in its errand of mercy and charity; and may the blessing of a free, happy, and contented people be ever the brightest jewel in Your Imperial Crown.

In faith, truth, and affectionate loyalty, this ancient city joins in the proud assentient chorus of continents:

"God save the Queen."

Given under the Corporate Common Seal of the city of Ripon, on the eighth day of April, A.D. 1897.

Tom Williamson, Mayor.
J. W. Kirkley, Town Clerk.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the Law Officers of the Crown, and the Deputies of the several Parishes and Cantons of Your Majesty's Island of Guernsey in the States assembled, beg leave on our own behalf and that of the community at large, humbly to approach Your Majesty with the assurance of our heartfelt gratitude that it has pleased Almighty God to place the destinies of the great British Empire under the control of a Sovereign, who ever since Her accession to the Throne, has secured the unvarying respect, admiration, and affection of Her loyal subjects.

This debt of gratitude is greatly enhanced by the consideration that in the providence of God, Your Majesty has been permitted to reign over a more extended Empire, and during a longer period, than any of Your Majesty's predecessors, and we cannot but feel that a reign which has shed so much lustre upon the world, will exercise a mighty influence for good over many a future generation.

We earnestly pray that years of peace and happiness will continue to be vouchsafed to Your Majesty, and we venture, on this auspicious occasion, to reiterate the expression of the absolute and undeviating loyalty of the people of Guernsey towards Your Majesty and Your Royal House.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapeltries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapeltry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapeltry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend William Lord Bishop of Oxford hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid represented in a writing dated the sixteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

"I William by Divine Permission Bishop of Oxford do in pursuance of Section 26. of the Pluralities Act 1838 hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. There is in the county of Buckingham in my diocese of Oxford the vicarage of Wendover the parish whereof contains a population according to the last census of two thousand and thirty-six.

"2. There is in the same county and diocese the perpetual curacy of Lee having a population according to the last census of one hundred and nineteen.

"3. The net annual value of the vicarage of Wendover is one hundred and seventy-seven pounds twelve shillings and eleven pence and of the perpetual curacy of Lee eighty-seven pounds thirteen shillings and two pence and there is a residence house belonging to each of the benefices.

"4. There is a certain district of the parish of Wendover known as 'The Swanbottom District' the boundaries of which are well known and defined which is contiguous to the parish or perpetual curacy of Lee the nearest point of which district lies at a distance of two and three quarter miles from the parish church of Wendover, the centre of population three and a half miles distant and the extreme end of the district four and three eighths of a mile from such parish church. The point in the said district farthest from Lee Church is little more than a mile and a half from Lee Church and the centre of population less than a mile and the inhabitants of the said district are as a consequence in the habit of attending the parish church of Lee.

"5. It therefore appears to me that under the provisions of the Pluralities Act 1838 that the said district known as 'The Swanbottom District' may with advantage to the interests of religion be separated from the said parish and benefice of Wendover and be united and annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish and benefice of Lee.

"6. That in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the said Act I have prepared the following scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to patronage and rights of pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain as patron of, and of the Reverend Albert Smith as the incumbent of the benefice of Wendover, also of John Plaistowe of High Wycombe Bucks Esquire as patron and of the Reverend James Pownall Britton as incumbent of the said benefice of Lee I do hereby submit to your Grace to the intent that if your Grace shall on full consideration and inquiry be satisfied with such scheme you may certify the same and such consents by your report to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents referred to in the said representation, are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"That there shall be separated from the parish and benefice of Wendover and united and annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish and benefice of Lee all that part of the said parish of Wendover which is known as 'The Swanbottom District' and which is shown on the Ordnance sheet or map hereto annexed and is thereon verged red.

"That the said separated district shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Lee and the incumbent of the said parish of Lee shall have exclusive cure of souls.

"That the inhabitants of the said separated district shall be entitled in common with the parishioners of Lee to accommodation in the church of that parish and shall not be entitled to accommodation in any other church or chapel except nevertheless such person or persons (if any) who may possess a legal right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in any other church or chapel and who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same.

"That all fees offerings and payments for churchings marriages burials and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed within the church of the said parish of Lee and all such other ecclesiastical dues offerings and emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice as shall arise or become payable within or in respect of the said separated portion of the said parish of Wendover shall belong to the incumbent of the said benefice of Lee.

"That there shall be assigned and attached to the benefice of Lee the clear annual charge or sum of forty pounds charged upon and payable to the incumbent of the benefice of Lee out of the gross income of the benefice of Wendover. AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Mary, Streatham, commonly known as Saint Mary, Balham, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary Streatham otherwise Saint Mary Balham is vested in the rector or incumbent for the time being of the parish of Streatham, in the said county of Surrey, and in the said diocese of Rochester.

"And whereas the Reverend John Richard Nicholl Clerk in Holy Orders, and Honorary Canon of Rochester the present rector or incumbent of the said parish of Streatham is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary Streatham, otherwise Saint Mary Balham now vested in him as aforesaid as such rector or incumbent should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Rochester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, now Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Mary Streatham otherwise Saint Mary Balham, which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint Mary Streatham, otherwise Saint Mary Balham.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Richard Nicholl, rector or incumbent of the said parish of Streatham, acting as such rector or incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Stuart Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary Streatham otherwise Saint Mary, Balham, now vested in him the said John Richard Nicholl, as such rector or incumbent of the said parish of Streatham as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him the said John Richard Nicholl and from his successors rectors or incumbents of the said parish of Streatham to the said Edward Stuart Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Stuart Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Oswald in Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in Wentworth Canning Blackett Beaumont Esquire of Bywell Hall Stocksfield-on-Tyne a member of the Commons House of Parliament.

"And whereas the said Wentworth Canning Blackett Beaumont is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Newcastle.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar now Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the Bishoprick of Newcastle the said proposed transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts hereinbefore recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edgar Bishop of Newcastle has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas a sum of two hundred pounds sterling has been paid over to us in favour of the said benefice of Saint Oswald in Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield upon the understanding that the patronage of the same benefice shall be transferred as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas under these circumstances it appears to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Oswald in Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the united new parishes of Saint Oswald in Lee and Saint Mary Bingfield being the parishes or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Wentworth Canning Blackett Beaumont (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Oswald in Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield now vested in the said Wentworth Canning Blackett Beaumont and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said Wentworth Canning Blackett

Beaumont and from his heirs and assigns to the said Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle as such Bishop and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the six and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the parishes of Oving, North Mundham and Hunston in the county of Sussex and now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four made between the Right Honourable Sir Robert Joseph Phillimore Knight Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of No. 5 Arlington-street Piccadilly in the county of Middlesex and the Reverend George Lewis Wilmot Horton of Garboldisham in the county of Norfolk Clerk of the first part, the Right Honourable Robert Nathaniel Cecil George Baron Zouche of Parkam Park in the county of Sussex of the second part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, certain lands and hereditaments situate in the said parishes of Oving North Mundham and Hunston in the said county of Sussex which are more particularly set forth and described in the first part of the Schedule hereto, became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us for an estate of fee simple in possession.

"And whereas under and by virtue of another indenture bearing date the fifth day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two made between Richard Hasler of Aldingbourne House in the county of Sussex Esquire and Julia his wife of the first part, us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the second part, and the Right Honourable Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester the then First Church Estates Commissioner of the third part, and by virtue of a surrender made the twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four and the admittance thereunder of the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester and by virtue of the Acts of Parliament relating to us, certain lands and hereditaments situate in the said parish of North Mundham (which lands and hereditaments are particularly set forth in the second part of the schedule hereto) being copyhold of the Manor of Brimfast and Fishers are now vested in the Right Honourable Arthur Philip Earl Stanhope, as First Church Estates Commissioner, for the lives named in the said Indenture of the fifth day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in trust for us.

"And whereas it is intended that the copyhold lands and hereditaments so held as aforesaid in trust for us or part thereof shall be enfranchised so that the same may become vested in us for an estate of fee simple in possession.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are now in our possession but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act either before or after such enfranchisement of the copyhold portions thereof as is hereinbefore referred to all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithe rent charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Methley in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon between that benefice and five other benefices namely the benefice (being a rectory) of Easthorpe otherwise East Thorpe in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Alban's, the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Andrew with Saint Mary and Saint Nicholas Hertford in the county of Hertford and in the said diocese of Saint Alban's, the benefice (being a rectory) of Beeston Regis, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, the benefice (being a rectory) of Trimmingham, in the said county of Norfolk and in the said diocese of Norwich, and the benefice (being a rectory) of Poole Keynes, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Methley and of the church thereof and also the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of each of the said five other hereinbefore mentioned benefices and of the churches thereof respectively is vested in Your Majesty in right of Your Duchy of Lancaster.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that each of the said benefices other than the said benefice of Methley is at present insufficiently endowed and that the said benefice of Methley has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionment sanctioned by an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the fifth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and published in the London Gazette on the twelfth day of the same month and also after the further apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been made, the said benefice of Methley will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Baron James of Hereford now Chancellor of Your Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster aforesaid and acting as such on behalf of Your Majesty as patron of each of the said benefices as aforesaid has represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parishes or other cures to which the said benefices (other than the said benefice of Methley) respectively attach that is to say within the parish of Easthorpe otherwise East Thorpe and within the parish of Saint Andrew with Saint Mary and Saint Nicholas Hertford and within the parish of Beeston Regis and within the parish of Trimmingham and within the parish of Poole Keynes by means of that apportionment of the endowments and income of the said benefice of Methley which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Methley is now full the Honourable and Reverend Philip Yorke Savile Clerk in Holy Orders being the incumbent rector thereof.

"And whereas a sum of ten thousand pounds local loans three pounds per centum per annum stock is (together with a further amount of the same stock) now standing in our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to the credit of the said benefice of Methley.

"And whereas the said sum of stock produces an income of three hundred pounds per annum.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Baron James of Hereford acting on behalf of Your Majesty as such Chancellor of Your Duchy of Lancaster as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the Bishops of the several dioceses within which the said benefice of Methley and the said other five benefices are respectively situate as aforesaid that is to say with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd Bishop of Ripon and of the Right Reverend John Wogan Bishop of Saint Alban's and of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Norwich and of the Right Reverend Charles John Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol (in testimony whereof the said four Bishops have respectively signed this scheme and sealed the same with their respective episcopal seals).

"We the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Methley shall from whatsoever cause be next voided the said sum of ten thousand pounds local loans three pounds per centum per annum stock shall cease to be held by us to the credit of the said benefice of Methley and shall be held by us upon the trusts following that is to say:—Upon trust as to the sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence part thereof for the incumbent of the said benefice of Easthorpe otherwise East Thorpe and his successors and as to the sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence other part thereof for the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Andrew with Saint Mary and Saint Nicholas Hertford and his successors and as to the sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence other part thereof for the incumbent of the said benefice of Beeston Regis and his successors and as to the sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence other part thereof for the incumbent of the said benefice of Trimmingham and his successors and as to the sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence other and remaining part thereof for the incumbent of the said benefice of Poole Keynes and his successors and that the dividends from time to time accruing on such stock or portions of stock shall be paid by us to the respective incumbents of the said five lastly mentioned benefices and to their successors.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any or either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said several dioceses of Ripon Saint Alban's Norwich and Gloucester and Bristol.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas Linthorpe situate within the new parish (sometime district) of Saint John the Evangelist Middlesbrough in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Middlesbrough and of the said parish of Marton should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Barnabas Linthorpe situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple Archbishop of York, as such Archbishop, and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Middlesbrough and of the rectory of the said parish of Marton (in testimony whereof he, the said Archbishop, has signed and

"And whereas the said district of Holmside has under the provisions of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the thirtieth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three and published in the London Gazette on the second day of September in the same year, certain portions of the cures of Tanfield aforesaid of Collierley in the said county and diocese, and of Lanchester aforesaid, were constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and the same was called the district of Beamish.

"And whereas the said district of Beamish has also under the last mentioned Acts become a new parish of the character contemplated by those Acts.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Holmside and of the said new parish of Beamish shall be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Brooke Foss Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries both of the said new parish of Holmside and of the said new parish of Beamish shall be altered so that all that portion of the said new parish of Holmside which is described in the Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Beamish.

said line of railway for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses Shieldrow-lane upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Holmside from the new parish of Beamish aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be further postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials—

In the Parish Churchyard of Lenham, in the county of Kent be further postponed until the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Archibald Bence Bence-Jones Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed as Commissioner for the purposes of the Municipal Corporations Acts 1882-1893 has transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his scheme in the following terms :—

"BOROUGH OF REIGATE.

"WHEREAS by section thirty of 'The Municipal Corporations Act 1882' amended by 'The Municipal Corporations Act 1893' it is provided that if the Council of a borough agree to petition and the Council thereupon petition the Queen for the division of the borough into wards or for the alteration of the number and boundaries of its wards it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to fix the number of wards into which the borough shall be divided. And where the Order in Council has been so made the Secretary of State shall appoint a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of the wards and apportioning the Councillors among them. And if Her Majesty in Council does not approve the scheme as originally prepared by the Commissioner it shall nevertheless be published in the London Gazette and shall be in force for the purposes of any municipal election until Her Majesty in Council on further information and report from the Commissioner definitely approves a scheme in that behalf.

"And whereas a scheme dated the twenty-fourth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six was duly prepared for the borough of Reigate by Archibald Bence Bence-Jones Barrister-at-Law a Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the wards of the borough of Reigate and for apportioning Councillors thereto and was duly transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State and was published in the London Gazette dated the eighteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

"And whereas Her Majesty by the advice of Her Privy Council at the Court at Osborne House Isle of Wight on the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six present the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty did not approve the said scheme for the borough of Reigate and in order to give full force and validity to the said scheme as directed by the hereinbefore recited Municipal Corporations Acts 1882-1893 the said scheme was published in the London Gazette as aforesaid.

"And whereas such further inquiry and report have been held and made as aforesaid and certain alterations in the said scheme have been found desirable so far as concerns the boundaries of the wards of the said borough but not as to the apportionment of the Councillors among the said wards.

"Now therefore I the said Archibald Bence Bence-Jones the Commissioner appointed by the Secretary of State to originally prepare the said scheme for the borough of Reigate as aforesaid do hereby declare that this is my scheme so amended as aforesaid for determining the boundaries of the wards of the said borough of Reigate and I hereby fix and determine that the boundaries of the said wards shall be as follows namely:—

"North-West Ward.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners No. 104 of 1897:—

The Danish Government has given further notice that the new Uniform System of Buoyage was carried out on 2nd May, 1897.

This uniform system is as follows:—

1. a. Main channels.—In the main channels the shapes and colours of the buoys, as well as their topmarks, indicate the side of the fairway on which they are placed.

b. The starboard side of the channel is marked by conical buoys, painted red; when topmarks are used they are either one, two or three up-turned brooms upon a red staff.

c. The port side of the channel is marked by can buoys, painted white; when topmarks are used they are either one, two or three down-turned brooms upon a white staff.

d. Middle grounds, or dangers that may be passed on either side, are marked by conical buoys, painted red and white in stripes; when a topmark is used it is a ball, striped red and white, on a staff, also striped red and white.

Similar buoys may be used as distinguishing marks.

e. Light buoys and whistle buoys, as regards colour and topmarks; and bell buoys, with regard to shape; are in accordance with the system given above.

2. a. Small channels.—In the smaller channels the colour and topmark of the buoy or perch indicates the side of the channel on which it is placed.

b. The starboard side of the channel is marked by buoys or perches, painted red, and surmounted by one or two brooms.

c. The port side of the channel is marked by buoys or perches, painted white, and surmounted by one or two straw wisps.

3. a. Application of System.—The starboard side of a fairway is that which is on the starboard side of a vessel when entering, and the port side that which is on the port side.

b. In the Skagerrak, the Kattegat, the Sound, the Great Belt, and the Little Belt, a vessel is said to be entering the channel when proceeding from the North Sea towards a Danish harbour or to the Baltic.

c. In land-locked fiords and inlets to a port or roadstead, a vessel is said to be entering when coming from seaward.

d. Liim fiord, Smaalands fairway, and the fairway southward of Fyeu are considered as each two land-locked fiords; the meeting points, respectively, being Logstör, Mäsnedo, and Svendborg-Marstal.

4. Winter Buoyage.—In the winter large bell buoys and can buoys are replaced by smaller buoys of similar shape, topmark and colour, and a few buoys are withdrawn.

When ice compels the withdrawal of light buoys or whistle buoys, they are replaced by spar buoys or conical buoys.

5. Wrecks.—A wreck-marking vessel or buoy is painted green and carries as a topmark (if used) a green flag on a green staff.

A wreck-marking vessel also shows three balls upon a yard; two, placed vertically, from the yard-arm on the side on which vessels may pass; and one from the other yard-arm.

No. 274.—RED SEA—WESTERN SHORE.
*NORTH MASSAWA CHANNEL APPROACH.
Search for certain Dangers.*

THE undermentioned information, relating to a recent search for King Arthur Shoal and Akbar Rock, and an examination of Gannet Bank, has been received from Lieutenant and Commander H. J. Gedge, Her Majesty's surveying-vessel "Stork":—

1. King Arthur Shoal.—With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 205 of 1889, on the steam-vessel "King Arthur" striking on a shoal with a depth of about 2½ fathoms on it, reported to be situated in approximately lat. 17° 10' N., long. 39° 10' E.

In the search by the "Stork" for this danger the least water obtained was 10 fathoms, in approximately lat. 17° 8' N., long. 39° 8' E.; it is, however, considered probable that the rock exists and is small. Consequently the words "rock reported hereabout" have been retained on the Admiralty Chart against the above position of the 10 fathoms.

2. Akbar Rock.—With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 448 of 1892, on the steam-vessel "Akbar" (draught 20 feet) touching on a shoal in a position (considered very doubtful) in lat. 16° 47' N., long. 39° 12' E.

This rock was not found by the "Stork," the least depth obtained being 10 fathoms, in approximately lat. 16° 44' 30" N., long. 39° 12' 45" E. In this case also it is considered probable that the rock exists and is small. Consequently the words "rock reported hereabout" have been written on the Admiralty Chart against the above position of the 10 fathoms.

3. Gannet Bank.—A coral head, with a least depth of 3½ fathoms over it, was found on Gannet Bank; and the position of this head was determined to be about 1¼ miles, N.W., from its previously charted position, or approximately in lat. 16° 59' 55" N., long. 39° 12' 25" E.

This bank is about 6 cables in length north and south, and 3 cables in breadth, within the 5-fathom line; deepening quickly to the westward and southward, and having soundings less than 10 fathoms for some distance from it in other directions.

Fowey Harbour—Dredging Operations, and Buoy Placed.

THE Fowey Harbour Commissioners have given notice, dated 13th April, 1897, that dredging operations would shortly be commenced on the edge of the shore bank, which dries at low water, northward of Upper Carn Point, and the undermentioned regulations should be observed:—

1. Vessels should pass the dredger on that side on which two balls are shown by day and two white lights by night; taking care not to foul the dredger's cables, which will be slacked down for vessels to pass if necessary.

2. Steam-vessels must go dead slow when approaching the dredger, and if necessary stop their engines.

3. No vessel should proceed above the buoy off Prime's Cellars (position given below) without the permission of the Harbour-master, unless the vessel is in charge of a Trinity Pilot.

Also, a buoy is moored off Prime's Cellars on the eastern side of the channel opposite Fowey, in a position with Fowey Custom House bearing W. by S., distant $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables and Lower Caru Point N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W.

Approximate position, buoy, lat. $50^{\circ} 20' 15''$ N., long. $4^{\circ} 37' 45''$ W.
