FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1897.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 17, 1897.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 31st instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon; one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 14, 1897.

THE Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that, upon the decease of James Pierce, ninth Baron Farnham, in the Peerage of Ireland, without issue, which happened on or about the 26th day of October, 1896, the dignity of Baron Farnham devolved upon Somerset Henry, now Baron Farnham, as eldest son and heir of Richard Thomas Maxwell, Esquire (commonly called the Honourable Richard Thomas Maxwell), the next brother of the said James Pierce, ninth Baron Farnham, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sisters of the said Somerset Henry, now Baron Farnham, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had their said late father survived his brother, the said James Pierce, ninth Baron Farnham, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Farnham. Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Henry Edward Maxwell, Esquire, a Major in the Black Watch (Royal Highlanders), Isabella Sarah, wife of James Hugh Moore Garrett, Esquire, and Anna Frances, wife of Thomas Cosby Burrowes, Esquire, the brother and sisters of the said Somerset Henry, now Baron Farnham, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their father, the said Richard Thomas Maxwell, had survived his brother, the said James Pierce, ninth Baron Farnham, and thereby succeeded to the dignity of Baron Farnham:

And to command that the said Royal Order and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Scottish Office, Whitehall, May 25, 1897.

THE Queen has been pleased, by Warrant under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, to appoint Mr. William Bauchop Glen to the office of Principal Extractor in the Court of Session in Scotland, vacant by the death of Mr. William Duncan.

(M. 9137.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 13, 1897.*

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to award a Silver Commemorative Medal to certain inhabitants of Brest, Ushant, Molène, and the neighbourhood, who displayed generosity, huma-

No. 278.—NORTH ATLANTIC OCEAN.

Temporary Alteration in Mail Steamer Route, between England and North-east Coast of North America.

INFORMATION has been received from the General Manager of the Cunard Steamship Company, dated 18th May, 1897, that, owing to the large amount of ice in the Atlantic Ocean, all the leading Atlantic passenger steam-vessel lines have temporarily and until further notice agreed to cross on more southerly tracks, viz. :—

Bound West:—to cross long. 49° W. in lat. 41° N.

Bound East:—to cross long. 49° W. in lat. 40° 10' N.

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Chart:—North Atlantic Route Chart, No. 2058. Also, Ocean Passages for the World, 1896, page 13.

No. 279.—JAPAN—KIUSIU.

AMAKUSA ISLANDS.

(1.) Nagasima Strait—Lights on Nagasaki Bana and To Sima.

THE Japanese Government has given notice that, on 20th April, 1897, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Nagasaki Bana, western coast of Naga Sima :—

Nagasaki Bana Light is a fourth order, flashing white light every ten seconds, elevated 81 feet above the sea, and visible from N. 30° W., through north and east, to S. 14° E. (an arc of 196°), a distance of 15 miles in clear weather.

The lighthouse, 41 feet high, constructed of iron, and hexagonal in section, is painted white.

Approximate position, lat. 32° 7' 30" N., long. 130° 6' 10" E.

Also, that, on the same date, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on the north-east point of To Sima, Nagasima Strait :—

To Sima Light is a sixth order, fixed white light, elevated 152 feet above the sea, and visible from S. 14° E., through south and west, to

N. 36° E. (an arc of 230°), a distance of 8 miles in clear weather.

The lighthouse, 15 feet high, constructed of masonry, and cylindrical in shape, is painted white.

Approximate position, lat. 32° 12' 0" N., long. 130° 4' 30" E.

(2.) Hachiman Seto—Light on Kamimate Jima.

Also; that, on the same date, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Kamimate Jima :—

Kamimate Jima light is a fixed white light, elevated 60 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 6 miles.

The lighthouse, 16 feet high, constructed of masonry, and cylindrical in shape, is painted white.

Approximate position, lat. 32° 15' 45" N., long. 130° 8' 50" E.

As this light is not constantly watched, it should not be implicitly relied upon.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Ormesby Saint Margaret, with the vicarages of Scratby and Ormesby Saint Michael annexed, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Ormesby Saint Margaret with the vicarages of Scratby and Ormesby Saint Michael annexed, shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parishes of Ormesby Saint Margaret, Scratby and Ormesby Saint Michael aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that the said yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds hereby granted shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage and parishes of Ormesby Saint Margaret, Scratby and Ormesby Saint Michael.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint George, Sowerby, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Wakefield, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint George, Sowerby, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one yearly sum of three pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette; and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one hundred and fifty pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Aidan, West Hartlepool, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of four pounds and ten shillings, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Aidan, West Hartlepool, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice one other yearly sum of four pounds and ten shillings, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of two hundred and seventy pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint James, West Hartlepool, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint James, West Hartlepool, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred and seventy pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint James, West Hartlepool.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of one thousand and one hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint John, Windermere, in the county of Westmoreland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint John, Windermere, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint John, Windermere.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

In Parliament.—Session 1897.

Salford Corporation.

[Petition for Additional Provision.]

(Powers to the Corporation of Salford to construct, maintain, and work Grain Silos and to act as Warehousemen; Power to sell or lease the Silos to the Manchester Ship Canal Company, and to make Agreements with that Company relative to any of the matters aforesaid; Additional Borrowing Powers, Rates and Charges; Alteration of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the County Borough of Salford (hereinafter called "the Corporation") intend to apply to Parliament for leave to introduce into the above-named Bill, now pending in the House of Commons additional provisions (hereinafter referred to as "the Additional Provision") in order to effect the following, or some of the following, among other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To empower the Corporation on any lands for the time being belonging to them to construct and maintain grain silos or warehouses (hereinafter referred to as "silos") with all necessary machinery, apparatus, appliances and conveniences and to use and work the same for loading unloading and warehousing grain from vessels trading to and from the Salford and Manchester Docks and to empower the Corporation to grant to the Manchester Ship Canal Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") leases of the said silos for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed on between the Corporation and the Company.

2. To confer on the Corporation the preferential right of berthing vessels at and of using any wharf of the Company intervening between the Canal and the silos and to alter section 140 of "The Manchester Ship Canal Act 1885" and to require the Company to grant to the Corporation all facilities and easements over and under the wharves and lands of the Company necessary to afford access to and from the silos upon such terms as may be agreed on or settled by arbitration.

3. To confer on the Corporation the first option of constructing in the Borough on any land belonging to the Company an additional silo for the storage of grain imported by means of the Canal.

4. To empower the Corporation to exercise (so far as may be requisite for the working of the silos and the loading and unloading of grain) all or any of the powers of section 146 of "The Manchester Ship Canal Act 1885" and to grant delivery warrants and certificates and generally to act as warehousemen and exercise the powers incident thereto and to make provision with respect to the lien on and the satisfying of all claims and demands in respect of cargo destined for or accommodated by the silos.

5. To make provision for and in relation to the conveyance by the Company of grain to and from the silos from and to railways connected with any railway of the Company, and the terms of such conveyance.

6. To empower the Corporation to sell or lease the silos or any of them to the Company, and the Company to accept such leases upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed on between them.

7. To empower the Corporation and the Company to enter into and fulfil agreements for all or any of the purposes of the Additional Provision.

8. To define a private drain to include a drain used for draining more than one house belonging to the same owner.

9. To alter and enlarge the present borrowing powers of the Corporation, and to enable them to apply their corporate funds and any moneys which they are already authorized to borrow, to all or any of the purposes of the Additional Provision, and to raise further moneys for the purposes aforesaid by borrowing or by the creation and issue of stock, and by the levying of rates and charges.

10. The Additional Provision will vary and extend or repeal, alter, and consolidate such as may be necessary of the provisions of among other local and personal Acts the following, that is to say:—"The Salford Improvement Act, 1862," and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Corporation, and "The Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1885," and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Manchester Ship Canal Company, and will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects and confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the Additional Provision can be obtained at the offices of the undersigned, on and after the 26th of this instant May.

Dated this 21st day of May, 1897.

Highgate Woods Preservation.

(Acquisition of Land by Agreement; Preservation, Regulation and Management as Open Space; Bye-Laws; Contributions by London County Council, Middlesex County Council and other Local Authorities, Bodies and Persons; Borrowing of Money charged on Rates.)

NOTICE is hereby given that a Bill has been introduced in the House of Commons for the following purposes:—

To enable the Hornsey Urban District Council (in this notice called "the District Council") to purchase and acquire by agreement certain lands at Highgate in the parish of Hornsey and county of Middlesex comprising an area of fifty-two acres or thereabouts being the lands known as Churchyard Bottom Wood.

To enable the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to enter into and carry into effect agreements for the sale of the said lands to the District Council and to confirm and give effect to any agreement or agreements which may be made between the District Council or any other body or person and the owners of and persons interested in the said lands.

To confer upon the District Council powers for the preservation, regulation, and management of the said lands as an open space for public use and recreation, and to confer powers for making and enforcing bye-laws and regulations relative thereto, and imposing penalties for offences against the intended Act or any such bye-laws.

To make provision as to the payment of the purchase money for the said lands, and to enable the London County Council, the Middlesex County Council, and any other Local Authority, body, or persons to contribute thereto in such proportions, and in such manner as may be defined in the intended Act.

To make all necessary provisions for raising any money required for any contributions under the provisions of the intended Act by the London County Council, the Middlesex County Council, or any Local Authority for the purposes of the intended Act, and to confer the necessary powers of collecting and recovering the amount of any such contributions and so far as necessary to authorize and provide for the borrowing of the sums required, and for charging the amount of the contributions of the several authorities upon the rates leviable within their districts respectively.

To incorporate in the Bill with such alteration, modification, or variation as may be found necessary, all or any of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Act.

To provide for the payment of the costs of the intended Act, and the expenses of and incident to the purchase of the said lands by the body purchasing the said lands under the provisions of the intended Act.

Printed copies of the Bill have been deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 17th day of May 1897.

Borough of Chepping Wycombe, Bucks.

Chepping Wycombe Electric Lighting Order, 1894.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough, acting by the Council as the Urban Sanitary Authority for the district of the borough being the Undertakers under the said Order (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation), propose to submit to the Board of Trade for their approval a draft deed of transfer of the powers, duties, and liabilities of the Corporation under the said Order to the Wycombe Borough Electric Light and Power Company Limited, and a copy of the said draft deed will be deposited at my office 90, Easton-street, High Wycombe, for public inspection during office hours for one month before such draft deed will be submitted to the Board of Trade.

The following particulars are supplied with reference to such proposed transfer:—

The area in respect of which the transfer is proposed to be made is the said district.

The period for which the proposed transfer is proposed to be made is unlimited, except so far as same is limited by the terms for re-purchase by the Corporation.

The Company are to pay to the Corporation the sum of £300, but no rent or other pecuniary consideration is reserved in respect of the transfer.

It is proposed to transfer all the powers, duties, and liabilities of the Corporation under the said Order to the Company.

Printed copies of the said draft deed of transfer may be obtained at my office at sixpence for each copy.

By order,

A. J. CLARKE, Town Clerk.

Town Clerk's Office, High Wycombe,

May 26, 1897.

In the Matter of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888.

Folkestone Corporation Electric Lighting Order, 1896.

NOTICE is hereby given in pursuance of the provisions of Section 59 of the Folkestone Electric Lighting Order, 1896, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Folkestone (hereinafter called "the Corporation") intend to submit to the Board of Trade for their approval a Deed of Transfer, whereby it is proposed to transfer to the Folkestone Electricity Supply Company, Limited, and in the manner therein named, the powers, duties, and liabilities of the Corporation under the said Order with respect to electric lighting.

2. The transfer will be of the powers, duties, and liabilities of the Corporation under the said Order, with such exceptions and modifications as are expressed in the Deed.

3. Notice is further given that—

- (a) The area in respect of which the transfer is proposed to be made will extend to and include the Urban District of Folkestone, being so much of the Borough of Folkestone as is not included within the district of the Sandgate District Council.
- (b) The period for which the transfer is proposed to be made is the term of forty-two years from the date of the said Order, at the expiration of which period the Corporation will be entitled to resume possession of the undertaking upon payment of the then value thereof.
- (c) The rent or pecuniary consideration in respect of the transfer will be:—
  - (a) The payment of the expenses involved in the promotion of the Company.
  - (b) The repayment to the Corporation of the expenses of and incidental to the obtaining of the said Order and the cost of transfer thereof to the Company (not exceeding £600).
- (d) A general description of the powers, duties, and liabilities of the Corporation under the said Order proposed to be excepted or modified is as follows:—

The transfer will include all the powers, duties, and liabilities of the Corporation in respect of lands, works, and supply, subject to exceptions or modifications as follows:—

(1) The following sections of the said Order will not apply to the Company.

Section 7 as to purchase and use of lands.

And all those sections of the said Order which are exclusively applicable to the Corporation if they carry the said Order into execution.

(2) Section 9 of the Electric Lighting Act, 1882, will be extended and applied to the Company.

(3) The Corporation will be empowered, before complying with a requisition under Section 12 of the said Order, to require the Company to deposit with or secure to the Corporation the sum in the Deed of Transfer mentioned as a security for the repayment to them of the expenses to be incurred by them in complying with any requisition under the said Section 12, and the Corporation will be empowered while any repayment of money expended by them under such requisition is in arrear to recoup themselves out of the deposit or by realising the security.

(4) The Company will be enabled to acquire and use for the purposes of the Undertaking such lands as they may think necessary, not exceeding in the whole 5 acres.

(5) The prices to be charged by the Company for private lighting will not exceed the following rates per quarter—

Up to 20 units, 13s. 4d.,
and for each unit over 20, 7d.,

subject, however, to a reduction under certain circumstances, as in the Deed of Transfer set forth.

(6) The Corporation will be entitled at stated times to represent to the Board of Trade that the prices or methods of charge stated in the 4th Schedule to the Order, ought to be altered, and the Board of Trade may by Order vary the prices or the methods of charge, and so from time to time.

(7) Section 51 of the Order will apply to the Company, and they will be required from time to time to cause the copy of the map in that section mentioned to be duly corrected.

(8) A copy of all regulations and conditions affecting the Undertaking, made by the Board of Trade under the said Order, or the Electric Lighting Acts, will be served by the Company on the Corporation.

(9) The placing of any electric line above ground, except as provided by Section 6 of the Order, will be subject to the consent of the Corporation.

(10) The Company will not, save as provided by the Deed of Transfer, be entitled to sell the Undertaking, or to transfer any of the powers, duties, or liabilities thereby transferred to them to any other company or person.

(11) If at any time the Company become insolvent or fail to maintain an efficient supply, or otherwise fail to perform the obligations imposed upon them by the Corporation, will be able by notice to require the Company to sell at the end of any year, and the Company will be thereupon bound to sell their Undertaking to the Corporation upon the terms in that behalf set forth in the Deed of Transfer.

4. The terms upon which the transfer is proposed to be made will also include a provision under which the Corporation will be entitled upon notice, as in the Deed mentioned, to purchase the works, plant, mains, and machinery of the Company, at the expiration of 15 years from the date of the said Order, or at the expiration of any subsequent period of 7 years upon giving to the Company 6 months' previous written notice, and upon payment to the Company of a sum equal to the amount properly expended by them on capital account, together with an addition of either 15, 10, or 5 per cent. upon such sum, according to the period which shall have expired before such purchase is effected.

5. The draft Deed of Transfer has been deposited for public inspection at the offices of the Town Clerk, and copies will be obtainable by application at the undermentioned office, upon payment of sixpence for each copy.
