Whitehall, July 5, 1897.

Windsor Castle, June 30, 1897.

THIS day the following Addresses to the Queen were presented to Her Majesty :—

From the Dean and Chapter of Windsor.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Dean and Canons of Your Majesty's Free Chapel of St. George within Your Castle of Windsor, beg leave to approach Your Majesty with an expression of our loyal and heartfelt congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's beneficent Reign.

While the whole of the British Empire is celebrating this event with devoted loyalty to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and with deep appreciation of the abundant blessings enjoyed during the past Sixty Years of Your Majesty's Reign, we venture, as those who have the privilege of residence within the Royal Castle of Windsor, to express our especial thankfulness to Almighty God for the preservation of Your Majesty's life during so many years, and for the Divine assistance which has enabled Your Majesty, both in joy and in sorrow, both in public and in private, to bear emphatic witness to the strengthening and sustaining power of the Christian Faith.

And, inasmuch as it is our duty and privilege to minister in sacred things within the Royal Chapel of St. George, we beg to assure Your Majesty that we shall not cease to offer our daily prayers that our Heavenly Father may long preserve and bless a Sovereign who for sixty years has reigned in the hearts of Her people, and may grant to Her in the life to come the crown of glory that fadeth not away.

P. F. Eliot, Dean of Windsor.

J. Neale Dalton,

Alfred Barry (Bishop),

Normanby,

Richard Gee,

} Canons of Windsor.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :—

"I THANK you for your loyal and dutiful Address. I share profoundly the thankfulness which you express for the blessings which the Almighty has showered on My Throne and My People, and I bespeak your prayers for their continuance."

From the Military Knights of Windsor.
To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned Military Knights of Windsor, desire to be permitted to present to Your Most Gracious Majesty our humble Address of sincere congratulations on the auspicious occasion of the completion of the Sixtieth Anniversary of Your Majesty's beneficent Reign over this mighty Empire.

When we reflect on the innumerable blessings this Nation has enjoyed under Your Most Gracious Majesty's sway of Three Score Years we cannot but feel deeply grateful to an overruling Providence.

The widow and fatherless and others in distress have ever been the objects of Your Majesty's sympathizing heart, and we fervently pray that, secure in the affections and loyalty of Your subjects, Your Majesty may be spared to preside over England's destinies for many years to come.

W. Maloney, Captain.

Governor Military Knights of Windsor.

June 26, 1897.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :—

"I THANK you for your loyal Address, and I am much gratified by your expressions of attachment to My Throne and your congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of My Reign."

From the Corporation of New Windsor.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Royal and Ancient Borough of New Windsor, crave leave to approach Your Majesty in order to present our most dutiful, sincere, and hearty congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

We appreciate most highly the great privileges which we enjoy from the close connection between the Ancestral Home of Your Majesty's Royal House and our Ancient Borough.

We humbly desire to express our grateful thanks for the many blessings which the wise and beneficent rule of Your Majesty has conferred upon the British Empire.

We recall to our memories the confident hopes and aspirations expressed by our predecessors in this Ancient Corporation, when Your Majesty succeeded to the Throne of Your Ancestors, and
