Privy Council Office, July 7, 1897.

THE following Statute, made on the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, by the Governing Body of New College, Oxford, and sealed on the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTE to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877, 40 and 41 Vict. cap. 48, and approved by the Queen in Council on the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in relation to New College, in the matter of payment of expenses to Fellows elected without emolument, such amending Statute being duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven and passed by a majority of two-thirds of those present and voting.

For Statute III, clause 23, to substitute the following:—

"23. The Warden and Fellows may, from time to time, at any stated general meeting, by two-thirds of the votes of those present and voting on the question, elect to a Fellowship, without emolument, but with other rights of an ordinary Fellow.

"(a.) Any person who holds the office of Professor or Reader in the University, or who is of eminence in Literature, Science or Art: Provided that the whole number of such persons holding such Fellowships shall not exceed four at any one time.

"(b.) Any person who is or has been a Fellow of the College, and whom it is judged expedient for the interests of the College to retain or re-elect as a Fellow: Provided that the whole number of such persons holding such Fellowships shall not exceed four at any one time.

"The duration and conditions of tenure of such Fellowships may be determined by the Warden and Fellows from time to time.

"The Warden and Fellows may repay to persons elected under this clause such necessary expenses in respect of attendance at meetings as they shall from time to time determine. A Fellow shall not, in consequence of receiving such payments, or of receiving the dinner allowance mentioned in clause 32, be deemed to be in receipt of emolument for the purposes of this Statute."

The Seal of the College affixed in the presence of the undermentioned witnesses the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.
