THE following Address was presented to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty stopping at Winchester on the 20th July, 1897 :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the Ancient and Royal City of Winchester, desire to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our unflinching allegiance to Your Throne and Person.

We are deeply sensible of the great honour conferred upon our city by Your Majesty's graciousness in being present here to-day, and of the high privilege thereby afforded us of being enabled to present to Your Majesty this humble tribute of our loyalty and devotion.

We beg to assure Your Majesty that in no portion of Your wide dominions was Your Majesty's Diamond Jubilee celebrated with more uncommon joy and happiness than in this the ancient capital of and the oldest incorporated city in Your Kingdom and the scene of so many historical events.

We feel deeply sensible of the wise and beneficent manner in which Your Majesty has presided over Your vast Empire, and of the prosperity enjoyed by Your Majesty's subjects during Your Reign of unexampled duration, and we gratefully recognize that the welfare and happiness of Your People has ever been Your Majesty's earnest and heartfelt desire.

We humbly pray that God may bless Your Majesty in the years that we trust may be yet before You with all happiness that He can bestow, and that Your Majesty may ever enjoy the united love of Your loyal and devoted subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Winchester, this twelfth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

To which Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :—

"I THANK you for the expression of your loyalty and attachment to My Throne and Person. It is very pleasing to me to receive this assurance of devotion from your ancient city, which has been closely associated with some of My predecessors on the throne, and has been the scene of so many events of interest and importance in the history of the English people."

THE following Addresses were presented to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, on behalf of The Queen, at a Court held at St. James's Palace on the 21st July, 1897, when he handed to each Deputation a most gracious reply in these terms, viz. :—

"On behalf of The Queen, my dear Mother, I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address, and for the affectionate congratulations which you tender on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Her reign.

"It is a source of profound joy to The Queen to receive the expressions of devotion to Her Person and Family, which are offered by Her subjects throughout the Empire; She is gladdened by the thought that the sixty years of Her reign have been years of progress in knowledge and of increase in prosperity; and She prays that, by the blessing of Almighty God, She may always live in the hearts of Her loving and beloved People."

Each Deputation was presented to His Royal Highness by the Lord Chamberlain.

The Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, was in attendance.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN
VICTORIA.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Londonderry Port and Harbour Commissioners, a public body incorporated by Act of Parliament and charged with the control and conservancy of the Port and Harbour of the City of Londonderry, beg leave as loyal and dutiful subjects to congratulate Your Majesty on having completed the Sixtieth Year of Your glorious Reign.

During that long period whether as a Sovereign of the Realm or as a woman Your public and private virtues and Your gentle sway and solicitude for the welfare and prosperity of Your subjects have endeared You to all and secured for Your Royal House the admiration of Your people.

Commerce, Art, Science, Literature, and everything calculated to elevate a nation have alike prospered under Your fostering care and each have arisen to a height hitherto unequalled in the Realm. In some of these Members of Your Royal Family have left their mark, and such Royal aspirants have been an incentive to Your people.

The inhabitants of this ancient and historic City of Londonderry have ever been most loyal and faithful to Your Royal Person and House and pray that You and they may long be spared to reign over us.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA,
QUEEN-EMPRESS.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Commissioners of Your Township of Kingstown, Your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, desire to offer to Your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of Your Diamond Jubilee.

Your reign at this time has been the longest and most glorious in our National History. During no other period of equal length have there flourished so many wise Ministers, brave Soldiers, and so many men eminent in all the walks of Literature, of Science, and of Art. During no other period have so many and so important accessions been made to the Empire, or have such discoveries and inventions caused the forces of nature to conduce so much to the use, the comfort, and the convenience of man. Never before has such an addition been made to the wealth of these countries, has education made such progress amongst the people, has personal and religious freedom been so increased, and has so much poverty and misery been prevented or alleviated.

The consideration of these truths fills the minds of Your subjects with admiration, while the knowledge of the deep interest which Your Majesty has ever taken in all matters that promote their material prosperity, their social advancement, and their national honour, has endeared You in the affections of Your people, and held them in heart-felt bonds to Your Dynasty and Your Throne.

We earnestly wish Your Majesty many years of health and happiness, and trust that you may long continue to reign over us in the fulness of that glory by which Your beneficent rule has always been distinguished.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Chairman and Commissioners of the Township of Rathmines and Rathgar, Ireland, desire humbly to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our feelings of profound loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

As representing the inhabitants of this large and important township, we humbly beg to offer Your Majesty our dutiful and heartfelt congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's eventful Reign.

At the time of incorporation its population was 9,640, and valuation £39,734; the present population exceeds 80,000, and valuation £140,000.

We heartily rejoice in common with all Your Majesty's subjects in the happy celebration of the longest and most glorious Reign in history, and we pray that the continued blessing of the King of Kings may rest upon Your Majesty and the nations over whom Your rule extends.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Pembroke Township Commissioners, the second township in point of extent in Ireland, desire most respectfully to approach the Throne, and offer our most sincere and hearty congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's happy and prosperous Reign.

To no other Sovereign who has occupied the Throne of Great Britain has it been given to rule and guide the destinies of these countries in more eventful or more progressive times, and the Victorian Era will go down to posterity distinguished by the enormous advances made in Science and Art, as well as in the development of inventive genius, which has conquered alike time and space, and rendered such signal services to the cause of civilization throughout the world.

We rejoice in unison with British subjects all over the globe, and desire to place on record our deep sense of thankfulness in having Your Majesty so long spared to preside over the destinies of this great Empire, recognizing as we do that, in the discharge of your duties as a Sovereign, the happiness of Your subjects has been Your first consideration, and that You have ever evinced the liveliest interest in their well-being, and shown the most profound sympathy with them in their sufferings.

We humbly pray that Almighty God, the Ruler of Princes, may give to Your Majesty His choicest blessings, and may long spare You to rule over the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as well as the British Empire in all parts of the globe.

Address of the Bray Township Commissioners to Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA on Completion of the Sixtieth Year of Her Reign.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Bray Township Commissioners, as elected representatives of the people, on behalf of Your devoted and loyal subjects resident in our Township, and on our own behalf, desire, and are duly authorized under our corporate seal, to most respectfully approach Your Majesty, and join with heartfelt sincerity in the loyal and affectionate congratulations tendered to You from all parts of Your world-wide Dominions on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Reign.

Never in the history of the world has a reign been signalized by such progress in the principles of civilization, the enactment of just and equal laws, and the removal of civil and religious disabilities.

During Your glorious Reign our people, in common with your devoted subjects the world over, have had many blessings bestowed on them. A mere fishing village when Your Majesty ascended the Throne, Bray has since grown into a great corporate town, and is still advancing in prosperity, influence, and importance.

The spiritual and temporal welfare of Your people has at all times commanded Your deepest sympathy, and they in return have for decade after decade during Your long Reign been proud to claim, and pay You homage as their Queen and to share the joys and sorrows of Your useful life.

It is our earnest hope and constant prayer that it may please that kind and all-wise Providence which in Its mercy ordained You as our Queen to preserve in peace and happiness the evening of Your life and spare You—our gentle and revered Sovereign—to rule for very many future years over a contented and prosperous people.

Sealed with the Corporate Seal of the Bray Township Commissioners this 22nd day of June, 1897.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Dalkey Township Commissioners, representing the ratepayers and residents within the township, most respectfully approach Your Majesty and join with heartfelt sincerity in the loyal and affectionate congratulations tendered to You from all parts of Your Dominions on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Reign.

During Your glorious Reign our people, in common with Your devoted subjects the world over, have had many blessings bestowed on them.

You have ever taken the deepest interest in the welfare of Your people, and we have in like manner felt the deepest sympathy with Your Majesty during the time when You have had to bear afflictions which visit even Royal Households.

We hail with satisfaction the approaching visit of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York, and pray that it may be the forerunner of many Royal visits to these shores.

We wish Your Majesty may still be spared for many years to rule over and govern the people who live in the great and free British Empire of which You are Queen and Empress.

A loyal and dutiful Address to Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

From the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, consisting of the Ministers and Representative Elders of the Church, humbly present to Your Majesty our warmest congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Reign and the occupation of the Throne longer than any of Your predecessors.

During that period the prosperity of the Empire has been unexampled as is seen in the vast extension of its area through the addition of many and large territories, in the growth of population, in the expansion of commerce, in the increase of the national revenue, in the wide diffusion of greater wealth, in the improved condition of the working classes, in the bringing of education within the reach of all, and in the general advance towards a higher civilization.

We are devoutly thankful to Almighty God that we have in Your Majesty a Sovereign whose example has most signally elevated the tone of moral life; whose desire to redress wrong and mete out justice impartially to all classes has been conspicuous and unvarying; whose womanly sympathies at all times so promptly and tenderly expressed, have brought consolation and strength to tens of thousands of sufferers, and whose great personal influence has been so often and so successfully exerted in the interests of international peace.

We are fully assured that it is a source of deep gratification to Your Majesty that during Your Record Reign the Kingdom of Christ has made unprecedented progress in these and other lands, that the tide of liberality for religious objects is steadily rising, and that so much has been done by the benefactions of the benevolent to mitigate the sufferings of the afflicted and brighten their lives.

We gladly avail ourselves of an occasion, so unique in the Nation's history, to renew the expression of our unflinching loyalty to Your Gracious Majesty's Person and Throne, and we will continue to pray that You may be spared for years, beloved by all Your subjects and honoured among all nations; that the richest blessings of heaven may rest on Your Majesty and on all the members of Your Royal House, and that, when the end of life shall have been reached, "an entrance may be administered unto You abundantly into the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

Signed by order and on behalf of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, this seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
The loyal and dutiful Address of the Unitarians, Liberal Christians, Free Christians, and Presbyterians of Great Britain and Ireland in Conference assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

THIS National Conference most humbly begs to associate itself with all Your Majesty's loyal subjects in congratulating You on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your glorious Reign. The Conference represents many Nonconformist Congregations whose ancestors in troublous days proved their loyalty to Your Royal House, and who most respectfully assure You that they are animated by the same spirit of devotion to Your Majesty as were their fathers to Your Royal predecessors.

This Conference thanks God that He has graciously prolonged Your rule for so many years, in which Your pure and noble life has called forth, besides the reverence due to the Sovereign, that fervent and respectful love which makes Your loyal people over all the earth rejoice that Your Reign has been lengthened beyond all precedent. Nor can a gathering of Christian Churches omit gratefully to acknowledge the deep obligation which they feel to Your Gracious Majesty for the noble example of high and pure morality which Your life and Court have given to the Nations. Tried as You have been by many personal sorrows, Your Royal heart has comforted many with its quick sympathy, and cheered them with its generous help given with gracious beneficence alike to all classes of Your subjects.

Beneath Your faithful adherence to the constitutional principles of Your Monarchy, civil and religious freedom, commerce, education and the liberal arts have blessed with ever widening range the increasing number of the people who are happy in calling You their Queen and Empress.

The Churches represented in the National Conference have during Your Reign been granted a security which they never before enjoyed, and have been permitted to share in advantages from which they had previously been debarred, and while devoutly thanking God for preserving to Your vast Empire the blessing of Your Gracious Sovereignty for so many years, they join all Your faithful people in the prayer that, surrounded and beloved by Your children and Your children's children, Your future years may be spent in the peaceful enjoyment of the honour and the reverent affection of Your grateful people, and the respect and admiration of the civilized world.

Signed on behalf of the Conference, this seventh day of April, 1897.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Empress of India.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE National Council of the Evangelical Free Churches gladly avails itself of the public celebration of the close of the Sixtieth Year of

Your Majesty's Reign to offer Your Majesty this tribute of their loyalty.

The National Council represents, by election, about 1,500,000 professed Members of the Baptist and Congregational Churches, the Methodist Churches of all branches, the Presbyterian Church of England, the free Episcopal Churches, and the Society of Friends. This membership implies about 7,000,000 adherents of these churches in England and Wales for whom the Council is entitled to speak; and this humble address is an expression of their sincere devotion to your Royal House, and of personal affection to Your Majesty.

The National Council recalls with special gratitude to God the growth of the United Kingdom in numbers and prosperity, and its intellectual and moral advancement during the last sixty years. Your Majesty is Queen of a happy, a free, and a united people; their thankfulness for this long Reign is the witness that they recognize Your Majesty's personal influence as a most important factor in the nation's well-being.

All the churches rejoice to remember that the things which make for godliness have ever been a matter of devout concern to Your Majesty. This National Council adds its grateful acknowledgment that sincere piety, in whatever communion it has been found, has always commanded Your Majesty's sympathy and respect.

In asking your Majesty to receive this loyal and reverent address the Council assures Your Majesty that the heartiest prayers of the churches represented by the Council have always been offered, and will continue to be offered, that God will bless the Queen, and preserve Her to a devoted and loving people

To Her Most Gracious Majesty The QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE London Central Committee, together with the National Council of Young Men's Christian Associations, on behalf of the Committees and Members of these Associations spread throughout Your Majesty's Dominions, desire to testify their loyalty to Your Majesty's Person and Throne, and humbly to approach Your Majesty with the expression of their respectful and heartfelt congratulations on the memorable occasion of Your Majesty having, under the blessing and protection of Almighty God, completed the Sixtieth Year of Your august and beneficent Reign.

The deep and real interest which Your Majesty has ever shown in efforts to promote the moral and material advancement of Your people, the sympathy evinced by Your Majesty towards every section of Your subjects, and the marks of Royal favour directly bestowed upon the Associations by Your Majesty, and by other Members of Your Royal House (particularly in connection with the Jubilee of the Associations celebrated in 1894), combine to assure us of the satisfaction afforded to Your Majesty by the rise and development of institutions which, in seeking to advance the Religious, Educational, Social, and Physical well-being of Young Men, have proved themselves potent factors for good throughout the entire community.

Dating their formation from the earlier years of Your Majesty's Reign, the Associations are an outcome of the Religious Liberty won for the Country by the Reformation, while they owe much of their usefulness to the exercise of that freedom of conscience, the securing of which to Your Majesty's subjects has been a marked characteristic of the enlightened and wise legislation with which Your Majesty's Reign must always remain identified.

Your Majesty's Illustrious Example has made it easier for all classes of Your subjects, including those occupying the most exalted stations, to recognize that there exists a claim upon them to devote themselves to some helpful and necessary work in the interests of those around them; and in directing attention to the circumstances and needs of young men—multitudes of whom are removed from the protective influences of home life at a critical period in their history—as well as to the duty of organizing preventive and remedial agencies in their behalf, the Associations humbly trust that while their efforts have proved conducive to the material and moral advancement of young men, they have shared also in some degree the high privilege and honour of promoting that righteousness which exalteth a nation.

The Associations, including those of Canada, Australia, South Africa, India, and other of Your Majesty's Colonies and Dependencies—forming part of a World-wide Federation, comprising over six thousand branches, with an enrolled membership of more than half a million—earnestly pray that God will graciously vouchsafe to Your Majesty and to the countries under Your rule, a continuance of all those blessings which have made Your Majesty's reign the longest, the most prosperous, and most illustrious in our Country's history.

Signed on behalf of the Associations.

To Her Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the Colonies and Dependencies thereof in Europe, Asia, Africa, America, and Australia, QUEEN, Defender of the Faith, and Empress of India, Sovereign of the Orders of the Garter, Thistle, Bath, St. Patrick, Star of India, and St. Michael and St. George.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland, beg to offer to Your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious occasion of the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's glorious Reign, together with a renewed expression of our devoted loyalty and attachment to Your Throne and Person.

Ten years have elapsed since it became our pleasing duty to approach Your Majesty with an expression of our cordial good wishes and felicitations upon the completion of the fiftieth year of Your reign. During that eventful decade many sorrows have fallen to Your lot. These have been shared by Your people, who have year by year been drawn closer to Your Royal Person by ties of affectionate regard. Nor have they failed to notice how nobly You have borne Yourself in times of affliction as well as of happiness, or how thoroughly You have made their joys and sorrows Your own.

We recognize with grateful appreciation the favour which Your Majesty, in common with Your illustrious and deeply-lamented Consort, has ever extended to our profession.

It is also a matter for congratulation that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and other Members of the Royal Family, following the example of their illustrious Parents, have always displayed a similar kindly interest with that Profession in its efforts for the advancement of Medical Science as well as the preservation and improvement of the health of the Nation.

That the Almighty may be pleased to spare Your Gracious Majesty for many years to come to guide the destinies of the mighty Empire over which You have so long and so nobly ruled, is the earnest prayer of us, Your Majesty's loyal subjects and dutiful servants, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland.

We trust that Your great and ever extending Empire may continue to enjoy the signal blessings that have accrued to it under Your Majesty's beneficent rule, and that the most precious gifts granted to us—health, happiness, prosperity, and peace—may for many years to come be bestowed on Your Majesty, as well as on those who are nearest and dearest to You.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the President, Vice - Presidents, and Council of the British Institute of Public Health and others, humbly desire to express to Your Majesty, on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your August Reign, our most grateful sense of the blessings enjoyed by all classes of Your people under Your Majesty's wise and beneficent rule.

Referring particularly to the objects for which our Institute was founded, we humbly desire to express our grateful knowledge of the unprecedented advantages which have been secured under Your Majesty's Reign for the health of the people in all parts of Your Empire, as evidenced by the health legislation of the past sixty years, the lengthened duration of life, the diminished amount of sickness, the lessening of suffering and pain in the treatment of disease, the better housing and brightened lives of the industrial classes, and the increase of their working ability. These benefits, which have arisen from the remarkable advance in public health, have not been confined to the civil population: they have also produced a greatly improved health of Your Navy and Army.

While conscious of the advantages that have been secured by a more accurate scientific knowledge in the Department of Preventive Medicine, we deeply recognize that the influence for good which Your Majesty has never failed to exercise has been largely instrumental in enabling these advantages to be properly applied for the benefit of the nation, and we venture to refer with especial gratitude to the active interest which was taken in this great cause by His Royal Highness the Prince Consort at a time when such help was of vital importance.

We therefore pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over us, and that we may continue to be blessed by Your Majesty's life and example.

In witness whereof we, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, have caused the seal of the Institute to be hereunto affixed this 16th day of June, 1897.

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Fellows, Members, and Associates of the Incorporated Society of Medical Officers of Health, humbly desire to tender to Your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Glorious Reign.

Among the many benefits which have accrued to Your people during Your Majesty's beneficent rule none have been of such vital personal importance to all classes equally as the improvement of the public health, a work inaugurated under Your Majesty's direct supervision.

We fully appreciate the encouragement and support which Your lamented Consort and Your beloved Heir have given to every work having for its object the promotion of the health and happiness of Your people, and we would especially signalize the parts they have taken in the provision of parks and open spaces and in the improvement of the conditions under which so many of Your poorer subjects were compelled to live.

We pray that the Almighty may be pleased to spare You to rule the Nation for many years with health and strength to continue the noble work of Your life.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the President, Council, and Fellows of the Royal Astronomical Society, humbly beg to approach Your Majesty with the tender of our sincere and respectful congratulations on the happy completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

Sixty years ago Your Majesty was graciously pleased to become the Patron of our Society. In approaching Your Majesty on that occasion our Society ventured to express the hope that "Your Majesty's Reign would be distinguished for the advancement of Astronomy, as well as of every other branch of Science, and for the enjoyment under Divine Providence of every Earthly blessing."

When we see how abundantly these loyal wishes have already been fulfilled we desire to express our deep appreciation of the interest and sympathy that Your Majesty has always manifested in the intellectual well-being of Your subjects; and on behalf of all those within the wide limits of Your Majesty's Empire, who are interested in the development of Astronomy, we gratefully acknowledge the benefits we have enjoyed during the long continuance of Your Majesty's Reign; and pray that for many years Your Majesty may be spared to rule over us.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the President, Council, and Fellows of the Society of Antiquaries of London, gladly seize the occasion to again approach Your Majesty, our gracious Patron, and to offer our most sincere congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your most happy Reign.

It can justly be said that Your Majesty's long and beneficent Reign has been signalized as much by progress in the arts and sciences as by the most remarkable increase in the happiness, well-being, and material comfort of Your loyal subjects, and this last result has been brought about in no small measure by the liberal and well considered legislation which Your Majesty has seen fit to approve. We fully realize how sincerely Your Majesty sympathizes in any measure that alleviates the distress of the poor and suffering or tends to the well-being of Your subjects at large, no less than with any efforts either of individuals or Societies which may serve to increase the intellectual wealth of Your Empire.

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

We are sensible of the interest Your Majesty has ever shown in the progress of science, which, in its various applications by the profession to which we have the honour to belong, has done so much to promote the prosperity that has signalized Your Majesty's Reign.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty may be endued with Heaven's choicest blessings, and may long be spared to rule over a united and happy Empire.

That it may please the Great Disposer of Events to prolong Your Majesty's Glorious Reign, and to grant You every blessing, spiritual and temporal, is the fervent prayer of Your Majesty's obedient and faithful subjects.

WE, the President and Members of the Royal Irish Academy, beg to offer to Your Majesty our most loyal and hearty congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Reign.

Since His Majesty George III founded our Academy in 1786, each reigning Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland has been our patron.

Established in the Kingdom of Ireland for the study of Science, Polite Literature, and Antiquities, we and our predecessors have now, for over a century, devoted ourselves to this task, and we are gratified to know that the published records of our labours are in Your Majesty's library at Windsor.

We tender to Your Majesty the assurance of our loyal devotion, and we pray that You may be long spared to occupy the Throne of these realms.

Signed on behalf of the Royal Irish Academy,
Rosse, President.

E. Perceval Wright, M.D., Secretary.
Academy House, Dawson-street,

Dublin, June 14, 1897.

[Presented by the Right Honourable the Earl of Rosse, J. K. Garstin, Esq., D.L. (proposer), and the Right Honourable Viscount Powerscourt (seconder).]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Warden, Fellows, Masters, Scholars, and Commoners of Winchester College, desire to approach Your Majesty with the warmest feelings of loyalty to the Throne and devotion to Your Majesty's Person. We are deeply sensible of the inestimable blessings which the Almighty has conferred upon this country during the Sixty Years of Your Majesty's Reign, and we thankfully acknowledge that Your Majesty's pure and lofty example in every relation of life has produced the most beneficial effects upon all classes of Your Majesty's subjects. We earnestly pray that the blessing of the Almighty may continue to rest upon the Throne of these realms, and that in God's good Providence Your Majesty may be spared for many years to reign over a prosperous and grateful nation.

Given under our Seal this twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

[Presented by the Reverend the Warden of the College, the Reverend W. A. Fearon, D.D. (proposer), the Reverend G. Richardson (seconder), the Reverend C. H. Hawkins, W. N. Weech, Esq., (Senior Scholar), and E. de G. Lucas, Esq. (Senior Commoner).]

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Chancellor, Doctors, and Masters of the University of Dublin, beg leave to approach Your Majesty with our respectful congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Reign.

In common with all the loyal subjects of Your great Empire, we look back with gratitude and pride on the many and eventful years of Your Majesty's Reign. We thankfully recognize the extent to which the progress and happiness of those years is due to the personal influence of Your Majesty, and to the bright example which You have set in public and private life.

You have taught a home-loving people to reverence the Sovereign, not only as the Head of the State, but as the model of domestic virtue.

By Your ready sympathy with suffering in all its forms, and by Your gracious interest in the welfare of all classes of the community, You have done much to encourage and promote the spirit of social unity. The increasing interest which is felt in the instruction, health, comfort, and recreation of the masses of Your subjects, is traceable not only in the course of legislation during Your Reign, but in the growing readiness of those who are in the enjoyment of wealth and leisure to employ these gifts in the relief of suffering humanity.

While we cordially share in the feelings of loyalty and attachment which animate Your Majesty's subjects generally, we have a special interest, as members of a learned body, in the intellectual progress for which Your Reign is pre-eminently distinguished.

In Literature, the Victorian age will be for ever remembered, with those of Elizabeth, Augustus, and Pericles, as one of the periods in the history of our race when the human intellect has borne its ripest and most precious fruits.

Still more remarkable has been the progress of science, especially in its practical application to the service of mankind. The practice of Surgery, the more important of our manufactures, and almost every department of industry, have been largely affected by the scientific discoveries and inventions of the past sixty years. The practical application of the forces of steam and electricity has brought the most distant parts of the Globe into communication; and it is not too much to hope that this marvellous result, achieved in Your Majesty's reign, may, in fulness of time, lead to a better understanding and a closer union among the nations of the earth.

Founded by another great Queen, the University of Dublin has in Your Majesty's reign, by the final abolition of tests, attained its full development as an institution whose emoluments, offices, and distinctions are open without restriction to all the subjects of the Crown. We have endeavoured to take our part as a University in the work of intellectual culture; and we note with gratitude and hopefulness that the three centuries of our corporate existence—though they have seen the rise and fall of many institutions—have been for us a period of uninterrupted progress, without organic change.

We tender to Your Majesty the earnest assurance of our devoted loyalty to Your Throne and Person, and we pray that Your reign may be prolonged, so as to develop more fully and extend more widely the blessings of Your just and beneficent rule.

Rosse, Chancellor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Chancellor and Senate of the Royal University of Ireland, in common with the rest of Your Majesty's subjects throughout Your great Empire, respectfully offer You our dutiful congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your glorious Reign.

We cannot but regard ourselves as being specially bound to approach Your Majesty on this auspicious occasion for our University owes its foundation to Your Majesty, and enjoys the distinguished honour of numbering amongst its graduates their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.

We humbly pray that the Almighty may be pleased to spare You long to rule over Your loving people.

Dufferin and Ava,
Chancellor.
James Creed Meredith,
Joseph McGrath, } Secretaries.

Dated this 16th day of June, 1897.

[Presented by the Most Noble the Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, Sir Thomas Moffett, James C. Meredith, Esq., LL.D., and Joseph McGrath, Esq., LL.D.]

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the undermentioned Chief Officers of the Provincial Police of Great Britain, humbly approach Your Majesty, and beg permission respectfully to submit, on behalf of our Forces, comprising 29,052 Officers and Constables, our loyal and dutiful congratulations on the auspicious occasion of the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your glorious Reign.

The Police Force of Great Britain, as now constituted, was organized in the second year of Your Majesty's Reign, and the most valuable of all Acts benefiting the Police was reached in the fifty-third year of Your Majesty's Reign, when an Act of Parliament conferring the inestimable boon of a guaranteed life pension to Police Officers, together with provision for their Widows and Orphans, was passed into law.

We humbly submit that, of the many admirable Acts of Parliament passed during Your Majesty's Reign, few, if any, have tended more to the protection and happiness of Your Majesty's subjects than those establishing the present system of Police.

We feel that it will be gratifying to Your Majesty to learn that the Police have raised, by voluntary subscription, a considerable sum in aid of the Police Orphanage at Redhill, and other charities, as a loyal offering in commemoration of Your Majesty's long and glorious Reign.

We earnestly pray that it may please Almighty God long to spare Your Majesty to the well-being of the vast Empire which has so greatly prospered under Your Majesty's most beneficent Rule.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the President, Past Presidents, and Council of the Coroners' Society, on behalf of the Coroners of England and Wales, representing one of the most ancient and honourable offices under the Crown, beg most respectfully to approach Your Majesty, on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Reign, with the hearty expression of our sincere sentiments of loyal attachment and devotion.

We especially note with much satisfaction that during Your Majesty's extended Reign, which will ever be memorable in the annals of this great and glorious Empire, the average duration of life has considerably extended, and that by the more diligent and efficient investigations and inquiries made by Your Majesty's Coroners, into the causes of mortality, whether arising from criminal, accidental, or natural sources, many beneficial reforms have been instituted tending to the protection, preservation, and prolongation of the lives of Your Majesty's faithful subjects.

Your people unanimously rejoice in that liberty and freedom which has gradually been extended to them during Your Majesty's Reign, together with that peace and prosperity which the fostering hand of a wise and loving Sovereign has done so much to promote.

We therefore pray that Your Majesty may long continue to rule over a happy and contented people, and enjoy in the future that good health, which Almighty God in His wisdom has in the past vouchsafed unto Your Majesty.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA, by the Grace of God QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Vestry of the Ancient and United Parishes of St. Margaret and St. John the Evangelist, Westminster, representing 54,000 of Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, humbly beg permission to offer to Your Majesty our unfeigned congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign and our expression of unswerving attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

In common with the many millions of Your Majesty's faithful subjects in the United Kingdom, in the numerous Colonies, and in the vast Dependencies of the Empire, we thankfully observe the spread of religion, the advance of national honour, happiness, and prosperity, the increase of commerce, the progress of knowledge, and the lessening of human misery and suffering, which under Divine favour, have so prominently distinguished Your Majesty's Reign, nor can we omit the expression of our heartfelt gratitude for the noble example of a pure and happy home which Your Majesty has given to the wives and mothers of all English households.

These national and domestic benefits of Your Majesty's Reign we regard with thankfulness as a happy fulfilment of the sentiment published on 1st July, 1837, in an account of the Proclamation of Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, in the following terms:—

"Wednesday, 21st June, was the day fixed by the Queen for this ceremony; it was the longest day; and may God grant it may be the commencement of the longest Reign in the regal calendar, to be distinguished alike for its glory and its endurance."

We rejoice also to observe in Your Majesty's long and beneficent Reign a perfect realization of the high hopes expressed in an Address Your Majesty was graciously pleased to receive from our predecessors in office on 20th July, 1837 wherein they stated:—

"We look forward with the utmost hope and confidence to the Reign of Your Most Gracious Majesty."

"We cannot but remember with peculiar pride and interest that it was in the ancient parish of St. Margaret that Your Majesty was born; that it was here that Your Majesty passed the greater part of Your life and received Your excellent education under the care of Your Majesty's illustrious and most respected parent—that education which under Divine blessing may enable Your Majesty to sustain with dignity and wisdom the high station to which it has pleased Almighty Providence to call you, and to secure to Your Majesty the universal respect and affection of Your people."

Most humbly and earnestly do we implore the Giver of all Good that Your Majesty's life may be long preserved to sway the sceptre of the vast realms over a happy and united people, ever ready to follow the example set by Your Majesty's family of all that is noble, virtuous, and good.

The Common Seal of the United Vestry of St. Margaret and St. John the Evangelist, Westminster, affixed by order of the Vestry in the presence of

C. Spencer Smith,
Chairman.

J. E. Smith,
Vestry Clerk.

[Presented by the Right Honourable the Earl of Onslow, G.C.M.G., Frederick Rose, Esq. (proposer), and C. Spencer Smith, Esq., J.P. (second), Major-General J. B. Sterling, Thomas Horn, Esq., and C. C. Piper, Esq.]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent and Imperial Majesty.

Most Gracious, Royal, and Imperial Majesty,
THE Vestry of the Royal Parish of St. Martin-in-the-Fields at their first Meeting next after the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, desire to convey to Your Majesty their loyal, dutiful, and heartfelt congratulations that it has pleased Almighty God so to prolong Your Majesty's life that an event unparalleled in English History has been recorded.

The Vestry devoutly and gratefully acknowledge that under Your Majesty's Sovereignty, races and peoples of the world to the extent of about a third of its entire population have been benefited and raised to a higher plane, socially, religiously and morally, by Your Majesty's example and by Your beneficent and gracious Rule.

In so doing, the Vestry also gratefully record their opinion that the life of Your vast Empire has been strengthened and its influence extended by the kindly and womanly sympathy Your Majesty has ever evinced to Your subjects, which has tended to cement Your peoples, and has constrained them to a willing and glad allegiance to Your Throne and to Your Majesty's Most Gracious Person.

In conclusion, the Vestry desire, as representing the parish in which Your Majesty has so long resided, to join their prayers with those which have ascended from every part of the globe, that it may please Almighty God to prolong a life so precious to Your subjects, and to continue to Your Majesty power and influence in years yet to come, in further promoting the prosperity and happiness of His people.

Ordered to be sealed, and sealed accordingly in the presence of the Chairman (Lt.-Col. Probyn, J.P.), and the Vice-Chairman (Mr. T. Hill), this 21st day of July, 1897.

In the presence of

G. W. Murnane, Clerk to the Vestry.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Clifford Probyn, J.P. (proposer), Thomas Hill, Esq. (second), James Johnston, Esq., J. T. Hollinan, Esq., E. Harris, Esq., and G. W. Murnane, Esq.]

To Her Majesty the QUEEN.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Chairman and Members of the Board of Works for the Strand District of the County of London representing the parishes of St. Clement Danes, St. Anne, Soho, St. Paul, Covent Garden, St. Mary-le-Strand, the Liberty of the Rolls, and the Precinct of the Savoy, desire to present our loyal and dutiful congratulations to Your Majesty on the attainment of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

It was a source of much gratification to the inhabitants of this district that Your Majesty passed through it to St. Paul's Cathedral on 22nd June, and the Board as the governing body of the district was glad to have the opportunity of showing its loyalty to the Throne by doing everything in its power to facilitate the progress of Your Majesty's procession on that occasion.

We desire to deeply thank Your Majesty for the example you have set all Your subjects in simplicity of life and nobility of character which have had such an important influence in the formation of the character of the Nation and as a consequence upon the many ameliorations of the position of the people which have taken place during Your Majesty's Reign, which we humbly pray may continue for many years to come.

The Seal of the Board of Works for the Strand District was hereto affixed by order of the Board this 14th day of July, 1897, in the presence of

T. Walter L. Emden, Chairman of the Board.

H. Andrews, Clerk of the Board.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the London Committee of Deputies of the British Jews representing the several Jewish Congregations in the United Kingdom, and we, the Council of the Anglo-Jewish Association, humbly and dutifully approach Your Majesty for the purpose of offering our loyal and heartfelt congratulations on the celebration of the 60th Anniversary of Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

We reverently thank Our Almighty Father for having prolonged Your Majesty's life to rule over these Realms during a period unparalleled in the history of the Nation.

While deeply rejoicing, in common with the rest of Your Majesty's subjects, on this unique and most auspicious occasion, those who profess the Jewish religion thankfully remember that they have special cause for gratitude. During Your Majesty's illustrious reign, the many disabilities from which they had previously suffered have been entirely removed, their rights as British subjects have been fully recognized, and they have been placed on a footing of equality with their fellow-citizens of other denominations. As one happy result of this emancipation, we rejoice to think that many members of our faith have been enabled to devote themselves with utility and success to the service of their Queen and country, in Parliament, on the Judicial Bench, at the Bar, and in various other departments of Public Life.

Since Your Accession to the Throne, not only has the number of Your Majesty's subjects enormously increased, but the ties of loyalty and patriotism which bind the varied races of the vast British Empire to each other have been greatly strengthened by a common devotion and affection towards Your Majesty's Person and Throne.

While the marked intellectual and material progress of the people in the last sixty years has ever been fostered and encouraged by Your Majesty's own wisdom and judgment, Your Majesty's subjects are still more deeply moved by the fact that You have always been as a loving Mother to them, rejoicing with them in their joys, sorrowing with them in their sorrows, and ever ready to offer comfort and sympathy to the humblest of those in affliction.

Your Majesty's wise, benignant and constitutional rule has not only secured to Your Majesty the enduring love and gratitude of Your own subjects, but also commands the respect and admiration of the Rulers and peoples of every civilized State.

We reverently pray that Almighty God may vouchsafe to Your Majesty health and strength for many years to come so that the blessings of Your Majesty's illustrious Reign may be prolonged for the glory of the Empire and the advancement of civilization throughout the world.

Independent Order of Oddfellows, Manchester Unity Friendly Society.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, and Corresponding Secretary, in the name and on behalf of the Members of the Manchester Unity Friendly Society, and pursuant to a resolution unanimously passed at the Annual Meeting held at Douglas, Isle of Man, during Whit Week, of the representatives then assembled, which Society comprised on the 1st January last 769,969 adult members, together with 10,479 widows of deceased members, and 106,632 juvenile members in Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, the Colonies, and in various other parts of the Globe, with an accumulated capital of its various branches exceeding nine millions sterling, beg to approach Your Majesty for the purpose of expressing sentiments of devotion and loyalty to Your Person and Throne on the occasion of the Diamond Jubilee of Your Majesty's Reign.

When, on the occasion of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne, the then Officers of the Society, on the 1st August, 1837, presented an humble address of congratulation to Your Majesty, they stated that it was of a philanthropic and charitable description, formed for the assistance of its members in sickness and distress, and the decent interment at death, and that the sole qualification for admission was the possession of a good moral character.

Again, after the expiration of fifty years, on the 27th June, 1887, on the occasion of Your Majesty's Jubilee, another Address was presented at Windsor Castle, which Your Majesty was graciously pleased to accept in Person, in which Your Majesty was assured of the continued loyalty and attachment of the members.

During the Reign of Your Most Gracious Majesty, the membership of the Manchester Unity has increased from 80,000 to nearly 800,000 adult members, having an annual income of over £1,500,000, and an expenditure of £1,230,000, with an accumulated capital (as before stated) exceeding nine millions sterling.

In conclusion, we beg respectfully to assure Your Majesty of the continued loyalty and devotion of the members, and on their behalf we offer our respectful congratulations on the completion of Your Sixty Years' Reign, and express the hope that Your Majesty may still be spared for many years to govern an Empire distinguished no less for its proportions, its wealth, and the happiness and prosperity of its people, than it is for the enjoyment of benefits which have proceeded from the beneficent exercise of Your Majesty's Sovereign power.

Dated at Manchester this 12th day of July, 1897.

The momentous advance and development of Science, Art, and Commerce under Your Majesty's wise and beneficent sway, have attracted the profound attention and admiration of those nations of the world whose civil and commercial interests in this country are, with Your Majesty's approval, confided to our care.

To the ardent hopes of those whom we have the honour of representing that for years to come Your Majesty may be blessed with happiness and peace, we venture to add our fervent prayer that the Almighty may be pleased to grant Your Majesty a continuance of health and strength so as to enable You still to rule with glory and with splendour.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, Members of the Coal Exchange, an Institution of great antiquity, beg to offer our heartfelt congratulations and unswerving loyalty, on this the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign over the vast Dominions of the British Empire.

We are thankful to Almighty God for having prolonged Your Majesty's Reign beyond that of any of Your Predecessors, and that during it there has been a continual increase in the happiness and prosperity of the people.

Your Majesty, in the year 1849, graciously consented to open the Coal Exchange in Person. This intention was frustrated by illness, but Your Majesty conferred upon the Coal Trade the highest mark of Your Royal favour by appointing His Royal Highness the late Prince Consort to fulfil the duty on behalf of Your Majesty.

During Your Majesty's Reign the annual importation of Coal into London has increased from three million to eighteen million tons, and during it the coal trade has paid fifteen million pounds in city dues, thus providing funds to construct amongst other notable works, the Victoria and Albert Embankments, the Holborn Viaduct, and the approaches to London Bridge, through which Your Majesty passed on Jubilee Day.

We earnestly pray that Almighty God may continue to shower His blessings on Your Majesty, and that the loyalty and affection of of Your Majesty's subjects may always continue.

For the Coal Factors' Society,

Frederick W. Harris, Chairman.

For the Coal Merchants' Society,

W. J. Franks, Chairman.

For the Inland Coal Owners' Association,

W. W. Matthewman, Chairman.

Dated at the Coal Exchange, London,

24th June, 1897.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the United Kingdom Commercial Travellers' Association in conference assembled at the Council House of the City of Birmingham, representing sixteen thousand travellers, venture humbly to approach Your Majesty with the expression of Our loyal and hearty congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's illustrious Reign.

Your Majesty, sustained by Divine Providence, and animated by zeal for the public welfare, combined with purity of intention, has successfully protected the rights and promoted the happiness of all classes of Your subjects, who are justly proud of the great development of Your Empire, and of the commercial and general prosperity that has attended Your Majesty's Gracious Rule.

We are deeply sensible of the advancement of science, art, literature, and education, and of the wise and beneficent manner in which Your Majesty has presided over the social and political affairs of this great Empire, fulfilling the highest hopes of Your loving subjects.

Your Majesty has ever been ready to show sympathy for others in every station of life, and the affectionate loyalty now being displayed throughout Your Majesty's Dominions will cause Your Majesty special feelings of joy, and tend to brighten Your life for many years to come. It is our earnest prayer that Your Majesty may be blessed with health to continue Your happy and glorious Reign over a loyal and contented people.

Signed on behalf of the United Kingdom Commercial Travellers' Association.

Board of Trade (Fisheries Department),
London, July 20, 1897.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Sofia, enclosing the following Quarantine Notices, issued by the Bulgarian Government, viz. :—

Sofia, le 26 juin, 1897.

Ministère des Affaires Etrangères et des Cultes.
No. 7063.—Circulaire.

LE Conseil Supérieur Sanitaire de la Principauté dans sa séance du 24 juin courant a pris les décisions suivantes.

Les pèlerins qui auront purgé la quarantaine de cinq jours seront libérés et soumis à domicile à une surveillance de 10 jours par le Médecin ou l'officier de santé le plus proche ou à défaut par le Maire. Pour toute personne libérée, le Médecin de la quarantaine devra en aviser télégraphiquement le Sous-Préfet, le Médecin de l'Arrondissement, le Préfet ou le Médecin de District compétent, en lui indiquant le domicile du pèlerin libéré.

Le Médecin de District adressera chaque jour à la Direction Sanitaire un rapport sur l'état sanitaire de la personne surveillée.

Sofia, le 26 juin, 1897.

Plague Further Measures (Pilgrims).

Ministère des Affaires Etrangères et des Cultes.
No. 7064.—Circulaire.

LE 10 juin courant, vieux style, il a été ordonné, pour les pèlerins arrivant de la Turquie d'Europe, une quarantaine de cinq jours établie à Hébitchivo, Bourgas et Varna, où leurs effets ainsi que les habits portés sont désinfectés, les pèlerins eux-mêmes étant désinfectés et baignés. Le passage des pèlerins et de leurs effets par d'autres points que ceux ci-dessus indiqués est rigoureusement défendu. Dans le but de soustraire leurs effets de la désinfection et de ne pas laisser stériliser l'eau bénite (Zemyem Souyou) qu'ils emportent des lieux saints, les pèlerins ont inventé l'expédient suivant. A leur départ pour la Bulgarie ils laissent leurs effets et l'eau bénite à Constantinople ou en d'autres villes de la Turquie d'Europe, à divers commissionnaires, auxquels ils recommandent d'en faire l'expédition directement à leurs amis dans les villes de Bulgarie où il n'y a pas de quarantaine. De cette manière, les effets et l'eau bénite sont introduits par les douanes à d'autres adresses, ne passent pas par les points de quarantaine pour être désinfectés et peuvent ainsi attirer sur le pays une épidémie dangereuse, spécialement la peste qui sévit en Arabie d'où arrivent ces pèlerins.

En vue de ce qui précède le Conseil Supérieur Sanitaire dans sa séance du 24 juin courant a arrêté ce qui suit :—

Est défendu l'entrée en Bulgarie de toutes sortes de haillons, vieux habits, effets usés, chiffons, linge sale, couvertures, &c., qui arrivent de la Turquie d'Europe, comme marchandises. L'entrée de ces effets provenant de l'Asie et de l'Afrique, est défendue par arrêté No. 39 du 1 février (Circulaire du Ministère Princier des Affaires Etrangères No. 1374 du 5 février, au courant). A ces fins, le Conseil Supérieur Sanitaire de la Principauté attire l'attention toute spéciale des Directeurs des Douanes et de Chefs de postes douaniers pour qu'ils ne permettent en aucun cas l'entrée de ces effets provenant de la Turquie d'Europe, sauf après une rigoureuse désinfection. Messieurs les Préfets sont invités à prêter leur concours aux Directeurs des Douanes et aux Chefs des postes douaniers.
