

throughout has been to us a steadfast encouragement in well-doing, and a true help to all who, in Christ's name, try to resist the evils of our day, and would make Your Majesty's subjects loyal and self-controlled, living in accordance with those noble principles of generosity, benevolence, and religious toleration, whereon this happy Reign has been securely founded.

The University of Durham prays heartily for the long continuance of Your Majesty's rule over us, and may we long live under Your gracious protection, in peace and well-being and in the fear and love of God.

We have, Madam, the honour to be Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham.

Given at their House of Convocation, this 22nd day of June in the year of our Lord 1897.

L. S.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, and other Officers and Members of the Corporation of the Royal Literary Fund, desire respectfully to approach Your Majesty as our Most Royal Patron, and to tender our heartfelt congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's eventful and glorious reign.

At the same time, we avail ourselves of this occasion to offer renewed expression of our feeling of deep gratitude for the munificent patronage vouchsafed by Your Majesty to this Corporation throughout Your Majesty's Reign, and while assuring Your Majesty of our dutiful and affectionate homage and devotion to a Monarch which has been nobly represented and upheld in Your Person, we fervently pray that Your Majesty may be long spared to preside in health and strength over a loyal, faithful, and loving people.
