

this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Davids. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 13th day of October, 1897.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry, to the consecrated church of Saint Catherine Burnley situate in Todmorden-road in the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Stephen, Burnley, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Burnley, and of the parochial chapelry of Burnley in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such cures respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Burnley, and of the parochial chapelry of Burnley aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Catherine, Burnley, situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester as such Bishop, and with the consent of the Reverend Arthur Townley Parker, Honorary Canon of Manchester, now rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parochial chapelry, as the patron of that rectory and also of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Burnley (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Burnley, and of the said parochial chapelry of Burnley which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Catherine, Burnley, situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Catherine, Burnley.’

“We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Catherine, Burnley comprising:—

“I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Stephen, Burnley, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded upon part of the south-west by the new parish of Saint Paul, Lane Bridge in the said county and diocese, upon the north-west partly by the said new parish and partly by the parochial chapelry of Burnley in the said county and diocese upon the north and upon the north-east by the said parochial chapelry (including the hereinafter described portion thereof) upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint John, Holme, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining side that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Holme, from the new parish of Saint Stephen, Burnley, aforesaid at a point in the middle of the River Calder distant one chain and a half or thereabouts to the south-east of Park Bridge which carries the roadway leading from Towneley Hall to Lodge Farm over the said river and extending thence first north-westward and then westward along the middle of the same river for a distance of one mile or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Burnley, from the new parish of Saint Paul, Lane Bridge, aforesaid.

“II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parochial chapelry of Burnley which is bounded upon the south by the above described portion of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Burnley, and upon all other sides that is to say upon the north-west, upon the north, and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen Burnley from the parochial chapelry of Burnley aforesaid at the centre of the aqueduct which carries the Leeds and Liverpool Canal over Yorkshire-street and extending thence northward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of twenty-nine chains or thereabouts to the centre of Godley Bridge which carries Ormerod-road over the said canal and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to the point where it is joined by the footpath which leads along Burnley Ridge past the houses called or known respectively as Ridge Farm, Higher Ridge Farm Ridge Row and Higher Ridge to Brunshaw-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to a point at its junction with Brunshaw-road aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Burnley from the new parish of Saint Stephen, Burnley, aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been
