*Board of Trade (Fisheries Department),
London, October 12, 1897.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the following copy of a Notice issued by the Governor of the Bahamas, relating to Quarantine:—

No. 114.—Government Notice.

His Excellency the Administrator of the Government has directed the publication for general information of the subjoined Order in Council made under the authority of "The Quarantine Act Amendment Act, 1897."

By command,

HESKETH BELL, Acting Colonial Secretary.
Colonial Secretary's Office, Nassau,
4th August, 1897.

At an Executive Council, held this 31st day of July, A.D. 1897.

Present,

His Excellency the Administrator in Council.

WHEREAS persons have from time to time been landed from places abroad at places within the Colony that are not ports of entry, and it is expedient with the view of preventing the introduction of any infectious disease that such a practice should be prohibited, his Excellency the Administrator acting by and with the advice of his Executive Council, under the authority of "The Quarantine Act Amendment Act, 1897," section 5, has been pleased to make the following order.

Any person arriving from any port or place without the limits of the Bahama Islands, who shall land at any place within the said Islands other than a port of entry; or any person who shall knowingly harbour a person who shall have so landed at a place not a port of entry; or who shall convey such person from the place at which he may have so landed to any other place within these Islands, without reporting the facts immediately after arrival to the police or to the health officer, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds; to be recovered before any magistrate, and in default of payment may be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two months; and any letters, papers, or other like matter brought into the Colony by any person so offending, shall be liable to be seized and may be destroyed by order of the convicting magistrate. Provided nevertheless that nothing herein contained shall be held to apply to persons who may have become shipwrecked, or be landed from any vessel in distress.

Done in Council, this 31st day of July, 1897.

HENRY MOSTYN, Acting Clerk of Council.
