The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY, the 9th of NOVEMBER.

Published by Authority.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1897.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, November 11, 1897.

CEREMONIAL observed at the Funeral of HER LATE ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS MARY ADELAIDE WILHELMINA ELIZABETH, DUCHESS OF TECK, First Cousin to HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, at St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, on Wednesday, 3rd November, 1897, at one o'clock.

On the night of Tuesday, 2nd of November, the Remains of Her late Royal Highness The Duchess of Teck, accompanied by The Hon. Arthur Walsh, Comptroller of Her late Royal Highness's Household, and Mr. Adams, the Steward, were privately removed from the White Lodge, Richmond Park, and conveyed to the North Entrance of St. George's Chapel. Here they were received by The Dean and Clergy of Windsor, and deposited temporarily at the West End of the Nave near the Tomb of The Princess Charlotte, where a short service was held.

On the morning of Wednesday, 3rd of November, His Highness The Duke of Teck, with Their Serene Highnesses The Prince and Princess Adolphus and The Prince Alexander of Teck, and accompanied by Their Royal Highnesses The Duchess of Albany and The Duke and Duchess of York, with their Ladies and Gentlemen in Waiting, left White Lodge and travelled by Special Train, South Western Railway, from Mortlake, arriving at the Deanery, Windsor, before 12.30 o'clock, and returned in the afternoon to White Lodge. Their Royal Highnesses were met at Windsor Station by Colonel The Hon. W. Carington, C.B., Equerry to The Queen.

Their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, with His Highness The Prince Christian Victor of Schleswig-Holstein, arrived from Cumberland Lodge, and Their Royal Highnesses The Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Strathearn, with their attendants, also arrived from Bagshot, where they returned in the afternoon.

A Special Train, to convey Her Majesty's Invited Guests, left Paddington Station at 11.50 o'clock, and arrived at Windsor at 12.25 o'clock, where carriages were in waiting to convey them to the South Door of the Chapel, from whence they were shewn to seats in the Choir by Her Majesty's Gentlemen Ushers.

At 12.5 o'clock, a Special Train left Paddington Station to convey Their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess of Wales, and other Members of The Royal Family, to Windsor, arriving at 12.40 o'clock. Major The Hon. H. Legge, M.V.O., Equerry to The Queen, was in attendance at Windsor Station.

Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales, with the other Princesses who arrived by this train, drove to the Deanery and were there received by The Vice-Chamberlain.

Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales, with Her Royal Highness The Duchess of York, and Her Serene Highness The Princess Adolphus of Teck were conducted by The Hon. A. N. Hood, Gentleman Usher to The Queen, to Her Majesty's Pew with their Ladies and Gentlemen in Attendance.

The following Members of The Royal Family, viz. :—Their Royal Highnesses The Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, The Duchess of Connaught and Strathearn, The Duchess of Albany, Her Serene Highness The Princess Victor of Hohenlohe, with Countess Feodora Gleichen, as well as The Lady Geraldine Somerset, representing Her Royal Highness The Grand Duchess of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, The Hon. Lady Biddulph, representing Her Royal Highness The Princess Beatrice, Princess Henry of Battenberg, and The Hon. Mrs. Monson, representing Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, with their Ladies in Waiting, also drove to the Deanery, and were conducted by The Vice-Chamberlain to seats prepared for them near the Rails of the Altar.

His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, K.G., and others taking part in the Procession were on arrival at the South Door, conducted by the Great Officers to the West End of the Chapel to await the commencement of the Funeral Service. They were there joined by His Highness The Chief Mourner accompanied by his supporters, being conducted from the Deanery by The Vice-Chamberlain.

At one o'clock, The Right Rev. The Bishop of Peterborough and The Very Rev. The Dean of Windsor with The Rev. Edgar Sheppard, Sub-Dean of Her Majesty's Chapels Royal, and The Rev. F. S. Colman, Vicar of St. John The Baptist's Church, Kingston Vale, The Canons, The Minor Canons and Choir of St. George's Chapel, proceeded to the West End of the Nave, and a Procession was formed in the following order :—
