

works for the manufacture, conversion, utilization, storage, distribution, and supply of gas and residual products obtained in or resulting from such manufacture, and to manufacture and store gas, and to manufacture, convert, utilize, store, distribute, sell, and deal in coal and such residual products.

The lands (c) hereinbefore referred to are situate in the said parish of Enfield and are lands belonging to and occupied by the Company containing 1 acre and 14 perches, or thereabouts, lying immediately to the north-westward of the lands of the Company described in the Schedule to the Enfield Provisional Order, 1879, and between such lands and South-street and the backs of cottages abutting upon the south side of South-street, which lands are bounded on the north-east by the approach road leading to the lands described in the said Schedule, and on the south-west by a hedge forming the south-westernmost boundary of the Company's property.

To confer further powers upon the Company with respect to the sale of lands, and to enable the Company to lease and otherwise dispose thereof, and to erect, fit up, let, and dispose of houses and cottages for officers and servants.

To consolidate and convert or provide for the consolidation and conversion of all or any of the classes of ordinary shares or preference stock in the existing capital of the Company respectively into one or more classes of ordinary and preference stock, and, if and so far as may be necessary, to provide for the purchase, redemption, or extinction of any existing share or stock of the Company, and to fix and define or provide for the fixing and defining of the rates of dividends on such consolidated, ordinary, and preference stock respectively, and the preference or priority and other rights or privileges to be attached to such preference stock, and to alter, define, and regulate the rights and priorities of the holders of the existing capital of the Company, and to increase the nominal amount of such capital.

To empower the Company to raise additional capital, either by increase of one or more of such consolidated stocks, or by the issue of new shares or stock (ordinary or preferential), or by loans or debenture stock, or by any one or more of these methods, and to attach to any such new shares or stock such preference or priority of dividends, or other advantages or rights as the Bill may define, and to empower the Company to apply their corporate funds and revenues for all or any of the purposes of the Bill.

To authorize the Company to exercise any unexercised power of raising capital by the issue of any such consolidated stock as aforesaid.

To make special provision in respect of the issue or sale of any shares or stock to the shareholders or to the employés of the Company or the consumers of gas supplied by the Company.

To alter the scale of voting at meetings of the Company, and to define the same, and to alter and increase the qualification of Directors of the Company, and to make provision with respect to the giving of notice of the candidature of persons to be Directors of the Company.

To alter and define and regulate the maximum price to be charged by the Company for the supply of gas to consumers within their limits of supply as aforesaid, and the dividends which may be paid by the Company, and to make provision for the formation of insurance, accident, and reserve funds, and the dealing with the profits of the Company.

To make provision with reference to notice of discontinuance of a supply of gas, and for securing the payment and recovery of gas, rates, rents, and other charges made by the Company, and for the prepayment thereof in certain cases, and for the measurement of gas and the registration and testing of meters, and for the service of notices by and on the Company, and for the representation of the Company in bankruptcy and other proceedings, and to empower the Company to make applications for power to supply electricity, and to confer upon the Company the same powers of laying down and maintaining mains, pipes, and apparatus in streets not dedicated to the public as they from time to time possess in respect of public streets and roads.

To exclude or to authorize the Company and the Tottenham and Edmonton Gas Light and Coke Company (hereinafter called "the Tottenham Company") to enter into and carry into effect agreements for the exclusion of so much of the parishes of Edmonton and Southgate as are comprised within the Company's limits of supply as proposed to be declared, extended, and defined by the Bill from the district of supply of the Tottenham Company as defined by the Tottenham and Edmonton Gas Act, 1859, and to repeal or amend the powers conferred upon the Tottenham Company by that Act, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Tottenham Company with respect to the supply of gas and otherwise within the parts so to be excluded from their district of supply as aforesaid.

To relieve the Tottenham Company from any obligations in reference to the supply of gas within the area by the Bill, or in pursuance of any agreement excluded from their limits of supply, and to confirm and give effect to any agreement which may have been or may be made between the Company and the Tottenham Company touching any such matters.

To vary and extinguish all or any rights and privileges inconsistent or which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

The Bill will or may alter, repeal, and amend the provisions or some of the provisions of the Enfield Gas Act, 1867, and any other Act or any Provisional Order relating to or affecting the Company or their Undertaking, the Tottenham and Edmonton Gas Act, 1859, and any other Act or Provisional Order relating to or affecting the Tottenham Company or their Undertaking.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1897.
