Whitehall, December 21, 1897.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence to The Queen on the occasion of the Death of Her Royal Highness Princess Mary Adelaide, Duchess of Teck, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

A Common Council holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Thursday, the 28th day of October, 1897.

Fandel-Phillips, Mayor.

Resolved unanimously—

THAT this Court, with devoted loyalty, desires humbly to assure Her Most Gracious Majesty The Queen of the sincere and heartfelt grief with which it regards the sad and sudden death of Her Majesty's beloved Cousin, Her Royal Highness the Princess Mary Adelaide, Duchess of Teck, a Princess whose amiability of character, and sweetness of disposition, had endeared her not only to her Royal relatives but to the whole people.

And this Court earnestly prays that the Giver of all Good may vouchsafe to Her Majesty consolation and fortitude in this great affliction.

John B. Monckton, Town Clerk.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Ripon, in Council assembled, sharing in the nation's sorrow, beg to be permitted to express to Your Majesty and Her Royal Highness the Duchess of York our profound sympathy and condolence on the lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Mary, Duchess of Teck.

Given under the Corporate Common Seal of the City of Ripon at a Meeting held at the Town Hall on the 28th day of October A.D. 1897.

Tom Williamson, Mayor.
