HEWITT and URQUHART 150 Leadenhall-street E.C.

To the Defendant Daniel Havelock Fisher of 43 Calverdale-road Clapham Surrey.

TAKE notice that on the 6th day of November 1897 an originating summons in the action Jay v. Fisher 1897 J. 1922 which claimed that an account should be taken of what was due to the plaintiff for principal interest and costs under a mortgage dated the 30th day of May 1896 and made between the defendant of the one part and the plaintiff of the other part and that the said mortgage might be enforced by foreclosure or sale and that all proper accounts and enquiries might be directed and that such further or other relief might be given as to the Honourable Court might seem fit. And take notice that by an Order dated the tenth day of December 1897 it was ordered that the publication by advertisement in the form set forth in this Order (being in fact this form) of the said originating summons and of this Order once in the London Gazette twice in the Times and twice in the Standard newspapers and the sending a copy of the said originating summons and a copy of the said Order through the post office in a registered envelope addressed to the defendant Daniel Havelock Fisher 43 Calverdale-road Clapham Surrey should be deemed good service of the said originating summons upon you. And take notice that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office Royal Courts of Justice London within 14 days after the last of such advertisements the plaintiff may proceed in the said action and Judgment may be given in your absence.

SPENCER CRIDLAND and CO. 215 Piccadilly London W. Plaintiff's Solicitors.

FREDERICK OLIVER.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Justice in England Chancery Division made in a cause of Purr v. Wicks (old suit) the following enquiry was made:—Whether Frederick Oliver named in the will of Harriet Oliver the testatrix in this action, is living or dead and if dead when he died and if he survived the testatrix, who is his legal personal representative. Notice is hereby given that any persons claiming to be interested as above are on or before the 25th day of April 1898 to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Romer at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Monday the 2nd day of May 1898 at 11 o'clock in the forenoon at the said chambers is appointed for hearing and adjudicating on the said claims. The said Frederick Oliver was a son of Laver Oliver and Susan Oliver and is believed to have left England for the West Indies prior to the year 1836.—Dated this 21st day of January 1898.
