"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Mumby otherwise Mumby-cum-Chapel, and of the parish of Hogsthorpe in the said county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Mumby otherwise Mumby-cum-Chapel and of the said parish of Hogsthorpe should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Leonard Mumby situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See both of the vicarage of the said parish of Mumby otherwise Mumby-cum-Chapel and of the vicarage of the said parish of Hogsthorpe (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Mumby otherwise Mumby-cum-Chapel, and of the said parish of Hogsthorpe which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Leonard Mumby situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Chapel Saint Leonards.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Chapel Saint Leonards comprising:—

And also all that other portion of the said parish of Hogsthorpe which is contiguous to the said civil parish of Chapel Saint Leonards and all those detached portions of the said parish of Mumby otherwise called or known as Mumby-cum-Chapel which taken together are bounded upon the north and upon the east by the said civil parish of Chapel Saint Leonards and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south, and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said civil parish of Chapel Saint Leonards from the parish of Hogsthorpe aforesaid, at the point in the middle of the road leading from Trunch-lane to Hogsthorpe where such boundary after following the middle of the said road turns off in a southerly direction, and extending thence first south-westward and then westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing Orby Drain) to the centre of Stone Bridge which carries such road over Willoughby High Drain, and extending thence generally north-eastward along the middle of the last-named drain for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts to the point where it is joined by Four Hundred Acre Drain, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named drain for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries Sea-lane over such drain, and extending thence north westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the footpath leading from Mill-lane past the windmill and the house called Mill Hill to the point of junction of Maiden-lane, Bradshaw-lane and Workhouse-lane, and extending thence that is from Sea-lane aforesaid northward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts to the said point where Maiden-lane Bradshaw-lane and Workhouse-lane all meet as aforesaid and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the western end of the hedge forming the southern boundary of the house and premises called the Old Workhouse and extending thence eastward along the said hedge for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the hedge forming the eastern boundary of the same premises and extending thence northward along the last-mentioned hedge for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its northern end on the southern side of Workhouse-lane aforesaid and extending thence due north and in a direct line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the said lane) to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hogsthorpe from the civil parish of Chapel Saint Leonards aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.
