AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February, 1898.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Pancras situate at Pennycross in the parish of Saint Andrew Plymouth in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Pancras situate at Pennycross aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Andrew Plymouth which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Pancras situate at Pennycross as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Pancras Pennycross.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Pancras situate at Pennycross as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Pancras, Pennycross being:—

"All that portion of the tithing or chapelry of Weston Peverill otherwise Penycross or Penncross in the parish of Saint Andrew Plymouth in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and which is not included within the limits of the new parish of Saint Mark Ford Devonport in the said county and diocese."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.
