AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of March, 1898.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint Alfred Eichholz, Esquire, M.A., M.B., B.C., Fellow of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, and Basil Sidney Cornish, Esquire, M.A., Brasenose College, Oxford, to be two of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of March, 1898.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Earl of Kintore.

Lord James of Hereford.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, Her Majesty the Queen has power and jurisdiction within the dominions and territories of the King of Siam :

And whereas by a Treaty made the third day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, between Her Majesty the Queen and His Majesty the King of Siam, it was amongst other things agreed as follows :—

“Article VIII. His Majesty the King of Siam will appoint a proper person or proper persons to be a Commissioner and Judge, or Commissioners and Judges, in Chiengmai for the purposes hereinafter mentioned. Such Judge or Judges shall, subject to the limitations and provisions contained in the present Treaty, exercise civil and criminal jurisdiction in all cases arising in Chiengmai, Lakon, and Lamphoonchi, between British subjects, or in which British subjects may be parties as complainants, accused, plaintiffs or defendants according to Siamese law : provided always that in all such cases the Consul or Vice-Consul shall be entitled to be present at the trial, and to be furnished with copies of the proceedings, which, when the defendant or accused is a British subject, shall be supplied free of charge, and to make any suggestions to the Judge or Judges which he may think proper in the interests of justice : provided also that the Consul or Vice-Consul shall have power at any time before judgment, if he shall think proper in the interests of justice, by a written requisition under his hand, directed to the Judge or Judges, to signify his desire that any case in which both parties are British subjects, or in which the accused or defendant is a British subject, be transferred for adjudication to the British Consular Court at Chiengmai, and the case shall thereupon be transferred to such last-mentioned Court accordingly, and be disposed of by the Consul or Vice-Consul, as provided by Article II of the Supplementary Agreement of the 13th May, 1856 :”

And whereas in pursuance of the said Treaty His Majesty the King of Siam has from time to time appointed Commissioners or Judges for the purposes mentioned in the said Article, and civil and criminal jurisdiction has been and is exercised in Chiengmai subject to the limitations and provisions contained in the said Treaty :

And whereas, in pursuance of powers reserved in the said Treaty, it has been from time to time agreed between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Siam that the limits within which the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners and Judges under, and for the purposes of, the said Treaty shall be extended to the Provinces of Muang Nan, Phre, Muang Thon, Raheng, Sawankaloke, Sukotai, Utaradit, and Pichai :

And whereas such limits of jurisdiction may hereafter be further extended :

And whereas in order to the fulfilment of the said Treaty, and for other purposes, it is expedient to amend “The Siam Order in Council, 1889,” hereinafter referred to as “the Principal Order” :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by “The
