Foreign Office, May 9, 1898.

HER Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has this day received, through Her Majesty's Ambassador at Washington, the following Proclamation, which has been issued by the President of the United States of America:—

[Existence of War—Spain.]

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of Congress approved April 25, 1898, it is declared that war exists and that war has existed since the 21st day of April, A.D. 1898, including said day, between the United States of America and the Kingdom of Spain; and

Whereas it being desirable that such war should be conducted upon principles in harmony with the present views of nations, and sanctioned by their recent practice, it has already been announced that the policy of this Government will be not to resort to privateering, but to adhere to the rules of the Declaration of Paris;

Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power vested in me by the Constitution and the laws, do hereby declare and proclaim:

1. The neutral flag covers enemy's goods, with the exception of contraband of war.
2. Neutral goods, not contraband of war, are not liable to confiscation under the enemy's flag.
3. Blockades in order to be binding must be effective.

4. Spanish merchant vessels, in any ports or places within the United States, shall be allowed till May 21, 1898, inclusive, for loading their cargoes and departing from such ports or places; and such Spanish merchant vessels, if met at sea by any United States ship, shall be permitted to continue their voyage, if, on examination of their papers, it shall appear that their cargoes were taken on board before the expiration of the above term; Provided, that nothing herein contained shall apply to Spanish vessels having on board any officer in the military or naval service of the enemy, or any coal (except such as may be necessary for their voyage), or any other article prohibited or contraband of war, or any despatch of or to the Spanish Government.

5. Any Spanish merchant vessel which, prior to April 21, 1898, shall have sailed from any foreign port bound for any port or place in the United States, shall be permitted to enter such port or place, and to discharge her cargo, and afterward forthwith to depart without molestation; and any such vessel, if met at sea by any United States ship, shall be permitted to continue her voyage to any port not blockaded.

6. The right of search is to be exercised with strict regard for the rights of neutrals, and the voyages of mail steamers are not to be interfered with except on the clearest grounds of suspicion of a violation of law in respect of contraband or blockade.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, on the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-second.

(Seal) WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP.

COTTON CLOTH FACTORIES.

Order of the Secretary of State, dated February 2, 1898, making Regulations for the Protection of Health in Cotton Cloth Factories.

THE COTTON CLOTH FACTORIES ACTS, 1889 AND 1897.

WHEREAS on the 28th March, 1896, I, the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, appointed a Committee to enquire into the working of the Cotton Cloth Factories Act, 1889, and into the question of steaming and the introduction of artificial moisture in Cotton-Weaving Sheds, and to report what amendments in the law, if any, were desirable :

And whereas the Committee in their report, dated 17th February, 1897, made certain recommendations as to the amendment of the law :

And whereas section 1 of the Cotton Cloth Factories Act, 1897 (60 and 61 Vict. c. 58), empowers the Secretary of State by Order to make regulations for the purpose of giving effect to such of the recommendations contained in the said report as he may deem necessary for the protection of health in Cotton Cloth Factories, and thereby to require any additional readings of the thermometers, and to make any consequential alterations in the schedules to the Cotton Cloth Factories Act, 1889 : and enacts that such regulations when made shall have effect as if embodied in that Act.

Now, I, by this Order, make the following regulations :—

(1.) In every Cotton Cloth Factory to which the Cotton Cloth Factories Act, 1889, applies, the occupier or manager or person for the time being in charge of the factory shall, in addition to taking the two readings of the thermometers required by section 7 of that Act, read each of the thermometers every day between seven o'clock and eight o'clock in the forenoon, and record the reading of each thermometer in the form and in accordance with the regulations in Schedule B of the said Act as amended by this Order.

(2.) Schedules B and C of the Act of 1889 shall be altered and shall be as set out in the schedule to this Order.

(3.) In every such Cotton Cloth Factory when artificial humidity is produced the water used for the purpose shall either be taken from a public supply of drinking-water or other source of pure water, or shall be effectively purified to the satisfaction of the Inspector before being introduced in the form of steam into the factory; and all ducts for the introduction of humidified air shall be kept clean.

(4.) The pipes used for the introduction of steam into a Cotton Cloth Factory in which the temperature is 70 degrees Fahrenheit or over shall, so far as they are within the shed, be as small both in diameter and length as is reasonably practicable and shall be effectively covered with non-conducting material to the satisfaction of the Inspector, so as to minimise the amount of heat thrown off by them into the shed.

that the Commander of the gunboat "Albay" reports the existence of shoals and foul ground near South Tai Tai Island (Ikadambanuan):—

NOTE.—No soundings were obtained on the shoals, but the depths on the two last were estimated to be between three and four fathoms. The positions are given as on chart No. 967 and must be considered doubtful.

The light-vessel is schooner-rigged, with two masts and no bowsprit, a funnel and fog-signal apparatus between the masts, and a white circular gallery at each masthead under the lantern. The hull is painted red, with "Umatilla Reef" in large black letters on each side, and "67" in black figures on each bow and quarter.
