*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 20, 1898.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Drawing Room will be held at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 8th of June next (instead of on the 6th of June as previously announced), at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room are requested to bring with them to the Drawing Room two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

The privilege of making presentations to The Queen at a Drawing Room is restricted to those Ladies who have themselves been previously presented to Her Majesty, and who are themselves present at the Drawing Room.

Under such circumstances a Lady has the privilege of presenting one Lady only at a Drawing Room in addition to her Daughters or Daughters-in-law.

This restriction does not apply to Ladies who, from official position or other circumstances, are specially privileged to make presentations to Her Majesty.

The Lady who proposes to present another must send in writing the name of such Lady to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Drawing Room, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the name to Her Majesty, when, if it be approved, presentation cards will be forwarded.

Printed Forms for this purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Ladies to be presented be very distinctly written on the presentation cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Drawing Room, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The number of Presentations at each Drawing Room is limited to 200.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

*Earl Marshal's Office,
St. Stephen's House, Victoria Embankment,
May 25, 1898.*

HER Majesty having signified Her Royal pleasure that the public solemnization of the Funeral of the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone shall take place in Westminster Abbey—

This is to request that all Privy Councillors, under the degree of the Peerage, desirous of being present on the occasion, will signify the same to me, by letter addressed as above, on or before the 26th instant (after which no application can be received), in order that places may be reserved for them.

Those persons in the Procession as also those having seats in the Abbey are to appear in Morning Dress.

The body will lie during Thursday and Friday next, the 26th and 27th instant, in Westminster Hall, to which the public will be admitted. And the Funeral will take place in Westminster Abbey on Saturday morning, the 28th instant. The body will be preceded to the Abbey by both Houses of Parliament and Privy Councillors, and will be followed by the Family and Mourners.

Peers and Members of the House of Commons are earnestly requested to inform respectively the Lord Chancellor's Secretary and the Speaker's Secretary not later than Wednesday evening whether they intend to take part in the ceremony, in order that tickets may be forwarded to them. Privy Councillors who are not Members of either House of Parliament will receive tickets of admission if they apply to the Earl Marshal by Wednesday evening, giving the address to which the tickets should be sent.

Owing to the shortness of the time, it will not be possible to enlarge the accommodation on the floor of the Abbey, and therefore the only persons besides those who take part in the procession and Members of the Corps Diplomatique whom the Earl Marshal will be able to admit will be representatives of national institutions.

It has been decided to invite representatives of the Navy, Army, and Civil Service, and likewise of the Universities and other learned bodies. Invitations to those whom it will be possible to admit in this capacity will be duly forwarded.

With a view to giving as representative a character as possible to the assemblage, it has been further decided that the head of every Municipality and County Council throughout the United Kingdom, or a nominee appointed by him, should be provided with a seat inside the Abbey. Under this designation would come (a) in England, Lord Mayors and Mayors, and Chairmen of County Councils, or a nominee appointed by them; (b) in Scotland, Lord Provosts and Provosts, and Chairmen of County Councils, or a nominee appointed by them; (c) in Ireland, Lord Mayors and Mayors, and foremen of the grand juries at the last assizes, or a nominee appointed by them. Those who propose to take advantage of this privilege, either themselves or by deputy, must inform the Earl Marshal.

No application can be entertained unless it is received by Thursday, and the application must contain the name and designation of the applicant and the exact address to which the ticket should be sent. As no tickets can be issued before Thursday night, care should be exercised to furnish, if possible, an address in London.

Owing to the absence of space, and to the fact that the Public Funeral is intended to be a tribute of the Nation to the memory of the deceased Statesman, irrespective of party, political organizations will not be represented.

In deference to the wishes already announced, no Flowers will be used; and in order that the Ceremonial may be in keeping with the desire of the Family for simplicity, Morning Dress only will be worn.

All communications to the Earl Marshal should be addressed to St. Stephen's House, Victoria Embankment, London, S.W.

NORFOLK,
Earl Marshal.
