Tickets of Admission for Ladies to the Abbey were, under the Seal of the Earl Marshal, forwarded to the Lord Chancellor and to the Speaker for distribution to the Peers and Members of the House of Commons, respectively.

In order to comply with the expressed wishes of the deceased the customs and regulations usual at a Public Funeral were modified and the Ceremonial was rendered as simple as possible. The Ceremony observed on this occasion cannot, therefore, be regarded as enforcing a precedent in the case of future Public Funerals.

NORFOLK,
 EARL MARSHAL.
