

Henry de Jersey Chudleigh. And it was ordered that the said Bernard Robert Harris should on or before the 20th July 1898 give security to the satisfaction of the Court. And it was ordered that the said Bernard Robert Harris the Liquidator in the voluntary winding up of the said Company should on the 29th July next and on the same day in each succeeding month file with the Registrar Companies (Winding-up) a report in writing as to the position of and the progress made with the winding up of the said Company and with the realization of the assets thereof and as to any other matters connected with the winding up as the Court may from time to time direct. And it was ordered that no bills of costs charges or expenses or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidator of the said Company or any remuneration charges or expenses of such Liquidator or of any manager accountant auctioneer broker or other person be paid out of the assets of the said Company unless such costs charges expenses or remuneration shall have been taxed or allowed by the Registrar Companies (Winding-up). And it was ordered that all such costs charges expenses and remuneration be taxed and ascertained accordingly. And it was ordered that the costs of the Petitioners and of the said creditors supporting the said petition of the said petition be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company. And the creditors contributories and Liquidator of the said Company and all other persons interested were to be at liberty to apply as there might be occasion. And the time within which this Order was to be advertised in the London Gazette was extended until the 16th July 1898.—Dated the 11th day of July 1898.

ASHURST MORRIS CRISP and Co. Solicitors for the said Petitioners.

[Extract from the Edinburgh Gazette of July 8, 1898.]

Collision between S.S. "Viceroy" and the S.S. "Godmunding."

INTIMATION is hereby given that the Glasgow and South-Western Railway Company, incorporated by Act of Parliament, the registered owners of the steamship "Viceroy," of Glasgow, have presented a petition to the Lords of Council and Session (First Division,—Mr. Couper, Clerk), in terms of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," to stay all suits or actions pending or hereafter to be instituted before their Lordships or in any other Court, in relation to the petitioners' liability, as owners of the said steamship "Viceroy," in respect of the collision between her and the steamship "Godmunding," of London, between Millport and Kilchattan Bay, in the Firth of Clyde, on 14th May 1898; to appoint the petition to be intimated, to appoint all parties having or pretending to have any right or claim in the premises to lodge answers and claims; and to limit the liability of the petitioners, in respect of said collision, to the sum of £1,586 3s. 2d. in respect of loss and damage to vessels, goods, merchandise, or other things (other than damage in respect of loss of life or personal injury), and thereafter to rank such claimants as shall have claimed according to their respective rights in the premises, and to exclude any other claimants who do not come in within such time as their Lordships might fix; and further to make such Order as to the petitioners finding security for or consigning in Court the said sum of £1,586 3s. 2d., or any part thereof as their Lordships might determine; in which petition their Lordships have pronounced the following Interlocutor:—"Edinburgh, 7th

No. 26986.
