WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance and other lawful means, Her Majesty has power and jurisdiction within the territories comprised in the East Africa Protectorate:

And whereas by Article 11 of the East Africa Order in Council 1897 "The Land Acquisition Act 1894," an Act of the Governor-General of India in Council, is applied to the East Africa Protectorate:

And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for the vesting of lands taken for public purposes under the provisions of the said Act:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act 1890" or otherwise, in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Any lands, whereof possession has been or shall after the passing of this Order be taken for public purposes under the provisions of "The Land Acquisition Act 1894," shall vest absolutely in the Commissioner and Consul-General and his successors in office for the time being in trust for Her Majesty or if the Secretary of State at any time or in any case by Order under his hand so directs, in such other trustee or trustees as the Secretary of State may appoint.

2. The Secretary of State may when he thinks fit by a like Order remove any trustee so appointed, and may appoint any new or additional trustee or trustees.

3. This Order shall be read and construed with the East Africa Order in Council, 1897, and may be cited as the East Africa (Acquisition of Lands) Order in Council 1898.

4. And the Most Honourable the Marquess of Salisbury, K.G., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

J. H. Harrison.
