PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Agatha, Landport, situate in Conway-street, Landport, within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of All Saints, Portsea, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of All Saints, Portsea, and of the parish of Portsmouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and of such parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of All Saints, Portsea, and of the said parish of Portsmouth should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Agatha, Landport, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Randall Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and caused his episcopal seal to be affixed to this representation) with the consent of the Reverend Cosmo Gordon Lang, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Vicar of Portsea, and as such vicar, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of All Saints Portsea (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation) and with the consent of the Warden and Scholars Clerks of Saint Mary's College of Winchester in the said county of Southampton, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Portsmouth (in testimony whereof they have caused their common or corporate seal to be affixed to this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of All Saints, Portsea, and of the parish of Portsmouth aforesaid which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Agatha, Landport, situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Agatha, Landport.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of Saint Agatha, Landport, comprising:—

"All that portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of All Saints, Portsea, and all that contiguous portion (being a detached portion) of the parish of Portsmouth both in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester which are together comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Luke, Portsea, in the said county and diocese from the new parish of All Saints, Portsea aforesaid at the junction of Arundel-street with Commercial-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Thomas's-street and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Vicar-row and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its northern end at a point at the wall forming the southern boundary of the premises of the Royal Portsmouth Portsea and Gosport Hospital and extending thence westward along the said wall for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the wall forming the western boundary of the same premises and extending thence northward along the last described wall for a distance of four chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the eastern side of Clarence-street) to the northern end of the said last described wall at the point where Clarence-street aforesaid Fitzherbert-street and Flathouse-road all join and extending thence westward and in a direct line across the last-named road to the wall forming the south-eastern boundary of the Royal Dockyard and extending thence south-westward along the last-mentioned wall for a distance of twenty-three chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the north-western side of the said Flathouse-road) to the point at the Unicorn-gate where the said Flathouse-road is joined by Unicorn-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Edinburgh-road upon the said boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Portsea, from the new parish of Saint Luke, Portsea aforesaid, and extending thence for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby first following the middle of the last-named road and then following the middle of Commercial-road aforesaid) to the firstly-mentioned point at the junction of the last-named road with Arundel-street aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.
