South Metropolitan Gas Company.

(Scheme for the Election of Employees' Directors made under the provisions of the South Metropolitan Gas Act, 1896, and the South Metropolitan Gas Act, 1897.)

1. WHEREAS provision was made by Section 19 of the South Metropolitan Gas Act, 1896, authorising the Directors to prepare a scheme for the election of one or more Directors by the shareholding employees of the Company as follows:—

Section 19.

- (1) "At any time after the total investments of the employees of the Company in the ordinary stock of the Company dating from the distribution of the first profit-sharing bonus in July one thousand eight hundred and ninety shall exceed the nominal amount of forty thousand pounds of such stock the Directors of the Company may as and when they deem expedient prepare a scheme for the purpose of enabling employees holding ordinary stock of the Company to elect one or more of their number but not exceeding three to be a director or directors of the Company."
- (2) "The scheme shall be submitted to a special general meeting of the Company duly called with notice of the business to be considered thereat and the meeting may adopt the scheme either without alteration or with such alterations (not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Act) as the directors may assent to."
- (3) "The scheme so adopted shall be submitted for the approval of the Board of Trade and that Board may consider the same and may either approve the same without alteration or may suggest any alterations therein or may disapprove the same and if the directors assent to the alterations (if any) so suggested the "Board of Trade may approve the scheme as altered."

- (4) "The scheme when approved shall be published in the London Gazette and (subject as hereinafter provided) shall for the period of three years and no longer from the date of such publication have effect. Provided that if at any time during that period the amount of the investment of the employees in the stock of the Company shall fall below the nominal amount of forty thousand pounds the scheme shall cease to be in force."
- (5) "On the cesser of such scheme and subject to the provisions of this Act and to the like submission adoption and approval a new scheme may at any time be adopted for any period that may be in that scheme prescribed and so from time to time."
- (6) "The qualification of an employees' director shall be fixed by the scheme for the time being subject to the following limitations. The employees' director shall have been not less than seven years in the constant employ of the Company and shall have held for not less than twelve months prior to the date of election and shall continue to hold not less than two hundred and fifty pounds nominal value of the ordinary stock of the Company."
- (7) "The fees to be paid to an employees' director for his attendance at the Board shall be fixed by the scheme. The fees shall bear some proportion to the amount of the qualification not being less than his ordinary day's pay nor more than four times that amount."
- (8) "The scale and method of voting for and the mode of election of employees' directors shall be settled by the scheme and may be varied by successive schemes from time to time."

And whereas by the South Metropolitan Gas Act, 1897, the qualification of an Employees' Director was reduced from the said sum of £250 to the sum of £100.

And whereas the total investments of the employees in the Ordinary Stock of the Company exceed the nominal amount of £40,000.

Now, therefore, the Directors of the Company, acting in pursuance of the powers conferred on them in that behalf by the said Acts, have prepared the following scheme, that is to say:—

1. In this scheme

Interpretation.

"The Company" means the South Metropolitan Gas Company.

"Employees" means persons in the employ of the Company and holding Stock in the Capital of the Company.

"Employees' Director" means a Director elected by the Employees.

Commencement of Scheme.

2. This scheme shall come into operation as soon as it has been adopted by the Shareholders of the Company in manner provided by the South Metropolitan Gas Act, 1896, and approved by the Board of Trade, and shall continue in force for 3 years and no longer, subject to cesser, if the amount of the investment of the Employees in the Stock of the Company shall fall below the nominal amount of £40,000.

Number of Employee Directors.

3. Employees in receipt of weekly wages shall have the power to elect two directors, herein referred to as "the two Directors," and Employees on the staff receiving salaries, payable monthly, shall have the power to elect one director or three in all.

Scale of Voting.

4. Every employee shall have for this purpose one vote for every ten pounds of stock held in his own name, or jointly with that of his wife or child, up to 100. . . 10 Votes.

One vote for every £25
above the first £100 up
to £300 . . . 8 Additional Votes.

One vote for every £50
above the first £300 up to £1,000 . . . 14 " "

Above £1,000, no more votes, thus giving a maximum of . . . 32 Votes.

Qualification of Employees' Director.

5. The qualification of an employees' director shall be the having been not less than seven years in, and continuing in, the employ of the Company, and the having held for not less than twelve months prior to the date of election, and the continuing to hold, not less than £100 in the stock of the Company.

Nomination of Candidates.

6. The Company shall, one calendar month at least prior to the date of election, make out an alphabetical list of all the employees possessing the necessary qualification to act as directors, giving the name of the station at which each candidate is employed, his length of service, and his occupation. Such list shall be printed and posted up for seven days in conspicuous places at the various works or stations of the Company, and shall be supplied to any shareholding employee on application at the head office or the office of his station. Any qualified employee not wishing to be a candidate can have his name withdrawn by writing to the Secretary to that effect within eight days from the posting up of the list, and his name shall, forthwith, be struck out of the posted lists.

Selection of One Candidate by each Station.

7. For the first election (when the two directors are to be elected), every voter at each station, and at subsequent elections when, in consequence of death or retirement only one director is to be elected, every voter at each station, except the station at which the director remaining upon the Board is employed, shall be supplied with a voting paper in the form prescribed in the Schedule A attached hereto. Such voting paper shall be addressed personally to each voter and shall contain the names of all the workmen employed at the station who are qualified and willing to act as directors. If he desires to record his vote he shall place his full number of votes, as set out on the voting paper, against the name of any one candidate whom he thinks best fitted to become a director, sign the paper and hand it to the persons, viz.; one officer nominated by the Board, and the last elected workman member of the profit-sharing committee who shall be appointed to receive it. In the event of any candidate receiving a majority of the total number of votes polled at his station, he shall be the selected candidate for that station; but should this not be the case, new voting papers shall be issued containing the names of the two candidates who received the highest numbers of votes. A second vote shall, in that event be taken, and the candidate who receives the highest number of votes shall then be the selected candidate for that station.

Final Voting for Two Workmen Directors.

8. When this selection has been made, another voting paper (Schedule B), containing the names of the selected candidates of the several stations, shall on the first occasion of electing two workmen directors, be supplied to every voter at all the stations. Voters must put the full number of their votes against each of any two names, or their voting papers will be spoiled and their votes lost. At subsequent elections, when only one director is to be elected, the process as set out in this clause shall be repeated, with the single alteration that the full number of votes shall be placed against one name only.

Representation of various Stations.

9. No station shall at any time have more than one workman director on the Board.

Retirement of Employee Directors.

10. One director of the two directors elected under this scheme shall retire after the first Board Meeting in the month of November every year. If duly qualified, the retiring director shall be eligible for re-election. The first retirement shall be settled by ballot, the following ones by rotation.

Time of Election.

11. The first and succeeding elections, except in the case of unexpected vacancies, shall take place between the 1st of September and the 1st of November in each year, on a date to be fixed by the Board. Employee Directors whose turn it is to retire shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and take office. In the event of retirement at other than the usual time, by leaving the service of the Company, or the death of an employee director, a successor shall be elected within two months, at a date to be fixed by the Board, who shall take the place, and retire in the turn, of the late director.

Fees.

12. The employee directors shall have their ordinary duties and the pay attaching thereto suspended during the time that is found to be necessary for their duties as directors. The fees shall "bear some proportion to the amount of their qualification," relatively to those of ordinary directors, which are equal to one-fifth part of the nominal value of their qualification, and will accordingly be about £20 per annum. The fees for their service as directors shall be the amount they would have earned if they had been at their ordinary employment, plus 10s. 6d. for each weekly attendance.

Staff Representation.

13. The above regulations shall, so far as is necessary and practicable, apply mutatis mutandis to the election of a director by the salaried officers of the Company.

Passed by the Board, July 6th, 1898.

The Seal of the South Metropolitan Gas Company was affixed hereto, in the presence of

FRANK BUSH,
Secretary.
