ARTICLE IV.

"The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of Her Majesty's Government, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of Bolivia, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial in the territory of the Republic of Bolivia or in the United Kingdom respectively for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

"If the person claimed on the part of Her Majesty's Government, or on the part of the Government of Bolivia, should be under examination for any other crime in the territory of the Republic of Bolivia or in the United Kingdom respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

"ARTICLE V.

"The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applying or applied to.

"It shall likewise not take place when, according to the laws of either country, the maximum punishment for the offence is imprisonment for less than one year.

"ARTICLE VI.

"A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

"ARTICLE VII.

"A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime, or on account of any other matters, than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored, or has had an opportunity of returning, to the State by which he has been surrendered.

"This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

"ARTICLE VIII.

"The requisition for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties respectively.

"The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

"If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

"A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but a person so sentenced may be dealt with as an accused person.

"ARTICULO III.

"Cada una de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes se reserva el derecho de negar ó conceder la entrega de sus propios subditos ó ciudadanos.

"ARTICULO IV.

"La extradición no tendrá lugar si el individuo reclamado por el Gobierno de Su Majestad, ó el individuo reclamado por el Gobierno de Bolivia, ya hubiese sido enjuiciado y puesto en libertad ó castigado, ó continuará procesado en el territorio de la Republica de Bolivia ó en el Reino Unido respectivamente, por el crimen por el que se demande su extradición.

"Si el individuo reclamado por el Gobierno de Su Majestad, ó por el Gobierno de Bolivia, estuviera detenido por cualquier otro crimen en el territorio de la Republica de Bolivia, ó en el Reino Unido respectivamente, su extradición será aplazada hasta la terminación del juicio y la completa ejecución del castigo que le fué impuesto.

"ARTICULO V.

"La extradición no tendrá lugar si, despues de cometido el crimen ó de instituida la acusacion criminal ó de condenado el reo, surgiera la prescripcion, segun las leyes del Estado requerido ó requeriente.

"No tendrá igualmente lugar cuando, segun las leyes de cada país, la mas alta pena del delito sea menor de un año de prision.

"ARTICULO VI.

"Un criminal fugado no será entregado si el delito por el cual se solicita su extradición es de caracter politico, ó si dicho criminal probase que el pedido de extradición se ha hecho en realidad con la mira de enjuiciarlo ó castigarlo por un delito de caracter politico.

"ARTICULO VII.

"Un individuo entregado no puede en caso alguno ser detenido ni enjuiciado en el Estado al que se haga la entrega, por otro crimen ó por otros asuntos que no sean aquellos que hayan motivado la extradición, hasta tanto que haya sido devuelto, ó haya tenido una oportunidad de regresar al Estado que lo entregare.

"Esta estipulacion no es aplicable á crímenes cometidos despues de la extradición.

"La requisitoria de la extradición se hará por los Agentes Diplomáticos de las Altas Partes Contratantes respectivamente.

"La requisitoria para la extradición de un individuo acusado ha de ser acompañada de orden de prision, dada por autoridad competente del Estado que requiera la extradición, y de aquellas pruebas que, segun las leyes del lugar donde sea hallado el acusado, justificarian su prision si el crimen hubiese sido cometido allí.

"Si la requisitoria se relaciona con persona ya condenada, deberá venir acompañada de la sentencia condenatoria dictada contra la persona condenada por el Tribunal competente del Estado que haga la requisitoria para la extradición.

"Una sentencia dictada en rebeldia no ha de reputarse condenatoria; pero á una persona así sentenciada puede tratarse como á persona acusada.

"ARTICLE IX.

"If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive."

"ARTICLE X.

"A fugitive criminal may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings, as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority exercises jurisdiction; provided, however, that in the United Kingdom the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged, as well in the Republic of Bolivia as in the United Kingdom, if within the term of sixty days a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the Diplomatic Agent of his country in accordance the stipulations of this Treaty. The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this Treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other."

"ARTICLE XI.

"The extradition shall take place only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the same State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to; and no criminal shall be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his committal to prison to await the warrant for his surrender."

"ARTICLE XII.

"In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, and certificates of, or judicial documents stating, the fact of a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

"1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State.

"2. Depositions, or affirmations, or the copies thereof, must purport to be certified, under the hand of a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State, to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require.

"3. A certificate of, or judicial document stating, the fact of a conviction must purport to be certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State.

"ARTICULO IX.

"Si la requisitoria para la extradición está de acuerdo con las precedentes estipulaciones, las autoridades competentes del Estado requerido procederán a la prisión del fugitivo."

"ARTICULO X.

"Puede prenderse a un criminal fugitivo en virtud de un mandato de prisión, dictado por cualquier Juez de Instrucción ó de Paz, ó otra autoridad competente en cualquiera de los dos países, mediante aquellas pruebas, informes ó denuncias, y aquellos procedimientos, que en la opinión de la autoridad que dé el mandato justificarian análogo mandato si el crimen se hubiera cometido ó la persona hubiera sido condenada en aquella parte de los dominios de las dos Partes Contratantes donde ejerza jurisdicción el Juez de Instrucción ó de Paz, ó otra autoridad competente; bajo la condición, sin embargo, que en el Reino Unido el acusado ha de ser remitido en tal caso, á la mayor brevedad, á Londres, á disposición de algún Juez de Instrucción. De conformidad con este Artículo, el acusado será puesto en libertad tanto en la Republica de Bolivia como en el Reino Unido, si dentro del plazo de sesenta dias no hubiera hecho una requisitoria para la extradición el Agente Diplomático de su país de acuerdo con las estipulaciones de este Tratado. La misma regla se aplicará á los casos de personas acusadas ó condenadas por cualquiera de los crímenes ó delitos especificados en el presente Tratado, y que se hubieran cometido en alta mar abordo de un buque de cualquiera de los dos países que entrase en un puerto del otro."

"ARTICULO XI.

"Solo tendrá lugar la extradición en el caso de hallarse suficiente el testimonio, según las leyes del país requerido, ya sea para justificar el enjuiciamiento en el caso de que se hubiera cometido el crimen en el territorio del mismo Estado, ya sea para comprobar la identidad del preso como la persona condenada por los Tribunales del Estado que hace la requisitoria, y que el crimen por el que se le haya condenada es de aquellos con motivo de los cuales podría, en la época de dicha condenación, haberse concedido la extradición por el Estado requerido; y ningún criminal será entregado hasta después de pasados quince días, contados desde la fecha de su encarcelación á esperar la orden para su entrega."

"ARTICULO XII.

"En los exámenes que deben practicar de conformidad con las precedentes estipulaciones, las autoridades del Estado requerido aceptarán como testimonio válido las deposiciones juramentadas ó las declaraciones de testigos tomadas en el otro Estado, ó copia de ellas, y también las ordenes de prisión y sentencias allí dictadas y certificadas del hecho de una condena ó documentos judiciales que lo declaren, con tal que estén autenticados como sigue:—

"1. Una orden de prisión debe parecer firmada por algún Juez, Magistrado, ó empleado del otro Estado.

"2. Las deposiciones, ó afirmaciones, ó las copias de estas, deben demostrar que certifican, mediante la firma de algún Juez, Magistrado, ó empleado del otro Estado, ser las deposiciones ó afirmaciones originales, ó copias fieles de ellas, según lo requiere el caso.

"3. Un certificado del hecho de una condena ó documento judicial que la declare, debe demostrar que esta otorgada por algún Juez, Magistrado, ó empleado del otro Estado."

"4. In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of the other State; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by the law of the country where the examination is taken may be substituted for the foregoing.

"ARTICLE XIII.

"If the individual claimed by one of the High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date.

"ARTICLE XIV.

"If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper Tribunal thereof, shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

"ARTICLE XV.

"All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery of such articles, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

"ARTICLE XVI.

"All expenses connected with extradition shall be borne by the demanding State.

"ARTICLE XVII.

"The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, so far as the laws for the time being in force in such Colonies and foreign possessions respectively will allow.

"The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal, who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions, shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the chief Consular officer of the Republic of Bolivia in such Colony or possession.

"Such requisition may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to his Government.

"Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Bolivian criminals who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis, so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

"Requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal emanating from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

"4. En todos los casos dicha orden, deposicion, afirmacion, copia, certificado, ó documento judicial debe autenticarse, ya sea mediante juramento de algun testigo, ya sea mediante el sello oficial del Ministro de Justicia, ó de algun otro Ministro del otro Estado; pero cualquiera otra manera de autenticar que esté permitida á la sazón por la ley del país donde se practique el examen, puede sustituirse á las precedentes.

"ARTICULO XIII.

"Si el individuo reclamado por una de las Altas Partes Contratantes conforme al presente Tratado también lo fuera por otra ú otras Potencias con motivo de otros crímenes ó delitos cometidos en sus respectivos territorios, se concederá la extradición al Estado cuya requisición fuere de fecha mas antigua.

"ARTICULO XIV.

"Si no se exhibiera testimonio bastante para la extradición dentro de los dos meses después de la fecha en que se prendió al fugitivo, ó dentro del nuevo plazo que designe el Estado requerido ó el correspondiente Tribunal del mismo, el fugitivo será puesto en libertad.

"ARTICULO XV.

"Todo objeto que esté en posesión del individuo que haya de entregarse y que se le tome al tiempo de prenderlo, será entregado al efectuarse la extradición si la autoridad competente del Estado requerido para la extradición ha ordenado la entrega de dichos objetos; y dicha entrega se hará extensiva no solo á los objetos robados, sino á cualquier otro que pueda servir de comprobante del crimen.

"ARTICULO XVI.

"Todos los gastos que ocasione la extradición estarán á cargo del Estado que la requiera.

"ARTICULO XVII.

"Las estipulaciones del presente Tratado se aplicarán á las Colonias y posesiones exteriores de Su Majestad Británica, en cuanto lo permitan las leyes que estén á la sazón en vigor en dichas Colonias y posesiones exteriores.

"La requisitoria para la entrega de un criminal fugitivo, refugiado en alguna de dichas Colonias ó posesiones exteriores, será hecha al Gobernador ó autoridad principal de dicha Colonia ó posesión por el Agente principal Consular de la República de Bolivia en dicha Colonia ó posesión.

"Conocerá de dicha requisitoria, sugetándose siempre, en cuanto le sea dado, y en cuanto lo permitan las leyes de dicha Colonia ó posesión exterior, á las prescripciones de este Tratado, dicho Gobernador ó autoridad principal, el cual tendrá, sin embargo, la facultad ó bien de conceder le entrega ó de referir el asunto á su Gobierno.

"Su Majestad Británica tendrá, no obstante, la facultad de hacer arreglos especiales en las Colonias y posesiones exteriores Británicas para la entrega de criminales Bolivianos que se refugien en dichas Colonias y posesiones exteriores, sobre la base, en cuanto lo permita la ley de dicha Colonia ó posesión exterior, de las estipulaciones del presente Tratado.

"Las requisitorias para la entrega de un criminal fugitivo que emanen de alguna Colonia ó posesión exterior de Su Majestad Británica serán regidas por las reglas sentadas en los precedentes Artículos del presente Tratado.

"ARTICLE XVIII.

"The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties by a notice not exceeding one year, and not less than six months.

"The Treaty, after receiving the approval of the Congress of the Republic of Bolivia, shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Lima as soon as possible.

"In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1898.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district

"within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect; and such Order being registered in the registry of the diocese which the registrar is hereby required to do shall be forthwith binding on all persons whatsoever including the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected thereby if he or they shall have consented thereto in writing under his or their hands; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto the Order shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting to the alteration or by the surviving incumbent objecting if more than one shall object thereto; and in such case the Order shall forthwith after such avoidance become binding on all persons whatsoever."

And whereas the Right Reverend John James Stewart, Lord Bishop of Worcester hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid represented in a writing dated the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"I, John James Stewart, Bishop of Worcester, beg leave to represent to your Grace, that there is contiguous to the parish of Wichenford in the county and diocese of Worcester and in the same county and diocese a place or district known by the name of Kenswick which is a distinct parish for civil purposes but an extra-parochial place so far as regards ecclesiastical purposes.

"That there is no church or chapel within the limits of the said extra-parochial place, a church or chapel which formerly stood there having many years ago fallen into decay and been taken down.

"That the inhabitants of Kenswick aforesaid have for a considerable number of years usually resorted to the church of the said parish of Wichenford for Divine service and other ecclesiastical offices.

"That the population of the parish of Wichenford is three hundred and thirty-four and of Kenswick twenty-four.

"That the present vicar of Wichenford is not willing to undertake the spiritual cure of the inhabitants of Kenswick aforesaid and objects to the alteration so that any Order in Council will not come into operation until his avoidance of the benefice.

"That it appears to me that the said extra-parochial place called Kenswick, the boundaries whereof are well known and defined may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament 1 and 2 Victoria chapter 106 and 2 and 3 Victoria chapter 49 be advantageously annexed to the said parish of Wichenford for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions of the twenty-sixth section of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament I have drawn up in writing a scheme appended to this representation describing the manner in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration may be made with justice to all parties interested and I submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the patrons of the benefice of the said parish of Wichenford to the intent that your Grace may if you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consents to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand this first day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

"J. J. S. Worcester."

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Olave, Hart-street, with All Hallows Staining in the city of London, and in the diocese of London, between that benefice and two other benefices namely, the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Luke, Homerton, and the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Thomas, Arbour-square, Stepney, both in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid.

"Whereas the whole advowson of each of the said three benefices of Saint Olave, Hart-street, with All Hallows Staining, Saint Luke, Homerton,

"And whereas the said William James Johnston, Matthew Fuller Woodley, Leonard Wrightson, Charles Edward Smith, Thomas Pallister Young, William John Verry, Robert Honey, James Innes, and Harry John Newman have represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the new parish of Saint Luke, Homerton, and within the new parish of Saint Thomas, Arbour-square, Stepney, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Saint Olave, Hart-street, with All Hallows, Staining, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter-mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation, stating that, he is of opinion that so much of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, as relates to burials in the parish of Astley, in the county of Worcester, should be varied by substituting the directions hereinafter set forth for those contained in the said Order, in regard to burials in the church and churchyard of that parish:

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

2. The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the nucleus. It is shown that the structure of the nucleus is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

3. The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the molecule. It is shown that the structure of the molecule is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

4. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the crystal. It is shown that the structure of the crystal is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

5. The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the solid. It is shown that the structure of the solid is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

6. The sixth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the liquid. It is shown that the structure of the liquid is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

7. The seventh part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the gas. It is shown that the structure of the gas is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

8. The eighth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the plasma. It is shown that the structure of the plasma is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

9. The ninth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the neutron star. It is shown that the structure of the neutron star is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

10. The tenth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the black hole. It is shown that the structure of the black hole is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

11. The eleventh part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the universe. It is shown that the structure of the universe is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

12. The twelfth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the time. It is shown that the structure of the time is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

13. The thirteenth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the space. It is shown that the structure of the space is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.
