Northern Assurance Company.

(Extending objects of the Company; altering, amending, and enlarging Powers of investment, and conferring further powers; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Northern Assurance Company (in this Notice called "the Company") for an Act (in this Notice called "the intended Act") to effect the following purposes, or some of them (that is to say):—

To alter and amend all or some of the provisions of the Northern Assurance Acts, 1865, 1874, and 1889.

To extend the objects of the Company, and to empower the Company to undertake the business of marine insurance, and of insurance against accidents, and against risks, liabilities, and contingencies of all descriptions, and generally any kind of insurance business.

To take over and carry on the business of other insurance companies, and to form and control companies for carrying on insurance businesses abroad.

To alter and extend the powers of the Company, and of the London and Aberdeen boards and the general court of the Company, respectively, and to enable those boards to lay out, invest, or lend the capital, funds, and property of the Company in or upon any investments or securities which may be authorised by special resolution of the Company, and from time to time to alter such investments. To provide for the passing of such special resolutions by the Company.

To vary all such existing rights and privileges of the Company as may interfere or be inconsistent with the attainment of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other powers, rights, and privileges in lieu thereof, and to confer upon the Company further powers, rights, and privileges in and for the carrying on and the management and regulation of their business.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1898.
