

be found desirable, or as may be authorised by the Bill.

To authorise the Company to apply to any of the objects or purposes of the Bill or of the Undertaking any capital, moneys, or other funds in their hands, and which may not be required for the purposes for which they were authorised to be raised.

To make provision for the increase of the Insurance Fund of the Company in proportion to the additional capital to be raised under the Bill, and to enact all such other consequential or incidental provisions in relation thereto as may be found necessary or expedient.

To authorise and empower the Company to purchase and acquire by agreement, and to hold and use for the purposes of their Undertaking, or as the case may require, to confirm and sanction the purchase and acquisition by the Company in the names of trustees or nominees, and to vest in the Company all or some of the lands and hereditaments next hereinafter described, and now held by or in trust for the Company (that is to say):—

All those pieces or parcels of land situate in the parish of East Ham, in the county of Essex, containing 36 acres or thereabouts, which said lands are shown and identified by the Nos. 94 (part of), 95 (part of), 96, 97 (part of), 98 (part of), 100 (part of), 101 (part of), 101A (part of), 127, 128, and 129 (part of) on sheet 67 of the Ordnance Map (Edition 1894–1896, scale $\frac{1}{25000}$, or 25·344 inches to the mile), and by the Nos. 347B., 348 (part of), 362 (part of), 363, 364, 365, 366 (part of), 367 (part of), 373 (part of), and 412 (part of) on the map annexed to the apportionment of rent charge in lieu of tithes for the parish of East Ham aforesaid, and which said lands are bounded on the North by the Northern Outfall Sewer belonging to the London County Council, on the East by lands belonging to the Company, on the South by the Beckton-road, and on the West by the East Ham Manor Way, as it now exists between the said Beckton-road and the said Northern Outfall Sewer.

and upon those lands to construct gas works and works for the manufacture and conversion of residual products of gas, and to make and store gas, and such residual products, and to exercise upon such lands all the powers now vested in the Company in regard to their existing gas lands and gas works with respect to the manufacture of gas and the conversion of residual products, together with such further powers as may be connected with or incidental to the manufacture, conversion, supply or consumption of gas or residual products, or as may be specified in the Bill.

To authorise and empower the Company to purchase and acquire by agreement, and to hold and use for the purposes of their Undertaking other than the manufacture and storage of gas, and the manufacture and storage of residual products, or as the case may require, to confirm and sanction the purchase and acquisition by the Company in the names of trustees or nominees, and to vest in the Company all or some of the lands and hereditaments next hereinafter described, and now held by or in trust for the Company (that is to say):—

First:—All those pieces or parcels of land situate in the parish of East Ham, in the county of Essex, containing 49 acres or thereabouts, as the same are now in the occupation of Mark Gibbard, which said lands are shown and identified by the Nos. 98 (part of), 100 (part of), 105, 107, and 108 (part of) on the said Ordnance Map, and by the Nos. 348 (part of), 349 (part of), 350, 351, and 362 (part of) on the said Tithe Map, and which said lands are bounded on the North as to part by the back gardens belonging to the houses in Roman-road, and as to part by the lands identified by the Nos. 106 and 109 on the said Ordnance Map; on the East by the said East Ham Manor Way, as it now exists between the said Beckton-road and the said Northern Outfall Sewer; on the South as to part by the Accommodation-road formerly known as Alder-Tree lane, and identified by the No. 101A on the said Ordnance Map, and as to part by the lands identified by the Nos. 99 and 103 on the said Ordnance Map; and on the West by the lands identified by the Nos. 99, 106, 118 and 119 on the said Ordnance Map.

Secondly:—All those pieces or parcels of land situate in the parish of East Ham, in the county of Essex, containing 46a. Or. 19p., or thereabouts as the same are now in the occupation of Edward Wardle Moore, which said lands are shown and identified by the Nos. 143 (part of) and 144 on the said Ordnance Map, and by the Nos. 381A, 382A, and 387 on the said Tithe Map; and which said lands are bounded on the North by the lands identified by the No. 138 on the said Ordnance Map; on the East as to part by the said East Ham Manor Way, and as to part by the lands identified by the Nos. 145 and 146 on the said Ordnance Map; on the South as to part by the lands identified by the Nos. 145, 146, and 159 on the said Ordnance Map, and as to part by lands belonging to the London and St. Katharine Docks Company; and on the West by the lands identified by the No. 142 on the said Ordnance Map.

To empower the Company to purchase and acquire by agreement, and to hold and use such additional lands and hereditaments as they may from time to time require for the general purposes of their Undertaking other than the construction of gasworks, the manufacture or storage of gas, or the manufacture or conversion of residual products; and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of any lands and hereditaments now belonging to the Company, or which they may hereafter acquire, and which may not be required for the purposes of their Undertaking.

To extend the time for the sale of all or any of the superfluous lands belonging to the Company in connection with their Undertaking, and to confer upon the Company further powers with reference to the retention, sale or disposition of such lands, and to repeal, alter, amend and extend with reference thereto the provisions of the Lands Clauses Act 1845, with reference to the sale of superfluous lands.

The Bill will or may repeal, alter, and amend all such rights and privileges as would interfere with any of its objects, and confer other rights and privileges, and will or may repeal, alter, and amend and make applicable to the purposes of the Bill all such provisions as may be necessary of the following local and personal Acts (that is to say): the City of London Gas Act, 1868; the Gas Light and Coke Company's Act, 1868; the Gas Light and Coke Company's Act, 1870; the Gas Light and Coke Company's Act, 1871; the Gas Light and Coke Company's Act, 1872; the Gas Light and Coke Company's Act, 1873; the Gas Light and Coke Company Act, 1876; the Gas Light and Coke Company's (Capital Consolidation) Act, 1898; and the Schemes of Amalgamation and Orders in Council made under
