

parish of Newtown-Linford, shown on sheet No. XXIV, 8, being part of enclosure No. 90. And the Bill will or may enable the Corporation to acquire compulsorily easements or wayleaves in, through, under, or over lands, in lieu of so acquiring those lands.

6. To authorise the Corporation to hold, sell, exchange, and lease for such consideration and upon such terms, conditions, reservations, restrictions, and covenants as they think expedient, any lands which they may acquire under the authority of the intended Act, free from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or of the existing Acts of the Corporation, with respect to superfluous lands, and to acquire, by compulsion or agreement, any mines or minerals under any such lands, notwithstanding the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to mines.

7. To exempt the Corporation from the provisions of Section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, in respect of all or some of the lands to be acquired by them under the powers of the intended Act.

8. To authorise the Corporation temporarily to discharge water from any of the aqueducts and conduits into any available stream or watercourse or into any stream or watercourse with which any of the intended conduits or overflows may communicate, or into any stream or watercourse crossed by any aqueduct or conduit, and to make provision for compensating all riparian owners and other persons for any damage which may be caused by the exercise of such power.

9. To make such provisions as may have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be prescribed or authorised by the intended Act, for the protection and benefit of the landowners, mineowners, mill-owners, and any other persons and bodies whose property, rights, powers, or interests will or might be affected by the execution of the powers of the intended Act, and of their property, rights, and interests, and to authorise or confirm, or give effect to any arrangements or agreements which may have been or may be entered into between the Corporation and such landowners, mineowners, and other persons and bodies, or some or any of them.

10. To empower the Corporation to make and carry into effect agreements with any owners, lessees, or occupiers of any lands within the drainage area of any of their reservoirs and works with reference to the execution by the Corporation, or such owners, lessees, or occupiers of such works, as may be necessary for the purpose of draining such lands, or any of them, or for more effectually collecting, conveying, and preserving the purity of the waters flowing to, upon, or from such lands, directly or derivatively, into such works.

11. To confer on the Corporation further powers for preventing the fouling, contaminating, or discolouring of any river, stream, brook, or spring from which the Corporation do or may derive any of their water.

12. To enable the Corporation to make compensation to any parties injuriously affected by the exercise of the powers conferred by the Bill, or prescribed by Parliament, either in money or water, as the circumstances of the case may require.

13. To empower the Corporation to stop up, alter, divert, or interfere with, temporarily or permanently, all highways, roads, paths, passages, railways, cauals, brooks, streams, springs, bridges, sewers, mains, pipes, electric and telephonic apparatus, and all other works which it may be convenient so to stop up, alter, divert, or interfere with in the execution or for the purposes of the intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with any lands, highways, brooks, streams, springs, bridges, sewers, mains, pipes, electric and telephonic apparatus, or all other works which would or might in any manner interfere with the construction, maintenance, enjoyment, or use of the said intended works or any of them, or impede or interfere with any of the objects or purposes of the intended Act, and particularly to stop up all roads and footpaths which are included within the points of diversion of the same as hereinbefore described, or which will be rendered unnecessary in such diversions or impracticable by reason of the works to be authorised by the intended Act, or which are shown on the deposited plans (hereinafter referred to) as intended to be stopped up or diverted, or which are included within the limits of any lands shown on those plans as intended to be taken compulsorily, and which shall be so taken, and to extinguish all rights of way over such roads and footpaths, and to vest in the Corporation, and to empower them to appropriate to their own use all such roads and footpaths so stopped up or diverted, and to confer other rights and privileges.

14. To empower the Corporation on the one hand, and on the other hand any other corporation, or any county, urban district, rural district, or parish council, and any joint committee, public authority or body, and any company and person in or having jurisdiction within or without the limits of the Corporation for the supply of water whose district or statutory limits for the supply of water is situate solely in the county of Derby, or being wholly or partly in the counties of Leicester or Nottingham, shall be within 10 miles of any aqueduct, conduit or line of pipes of the Corporation, to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements for or in relation to the supply of water in bulk by the Corporation to such other corporation, and to such council, authority, body, company and person, and the execution of the works and the acquisition of the lands requisite for the purpose of such supply, and to constitute such supply and the works expressly made for the purpose thereof, for or by such corporation, council, authority, body or company, a part of their respective water undertakings, and to enable the contracting parties respectively, for any of the purposes of the Bill for which the same may be required, to apply their funds, rates and revenues, and any moneys they are authorised to raise, and which are not required for the purposes for which they were authorised, and to borrow further moneys, and to levy rates and charges, and to confirm, with or without alteration, any such contract or agreements which may have been already, or which during the progress of the Bill may be made, and the Bill will or may authorise the Corporation for the purposes aforesaid to exercise the powers of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up of streets for the purpose of laying pipes.

15. To empower the Corporation to create a special fund and to carry to the credit of that fund the whole or some portion of the surplus profits of their water undertaking, and to provide for the investment of such fund and its application in or towards supplying any deficiency in the revenue of the undertaking, and to meet the charges for interest and repayment of capital in respect of moneys borrowed under the intended Act, and for the ultimate discontinuance and winding-up of such fund, and to
