

fittings, and other matters or things required for the purposes of the said Order.

To authorise the Vestry to take, collect, and recover rents and charges for the supply of electrical energy and power, and for the use of any machinery, lamps, meters, wires, fittings, or apparatus connected therewith.

To incorporate with the Provisional Order, and to extend and apply to the proposed Undertaking and works, and to the Vestry as Undertakers of the same, and with or without variation, all or some of the provisions of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, and of the Acts or portions of Acts incorporated therewith, and to confer upon the Vestry all or some of the powers within the area of supply which, by the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, or any Act amending the same or incorporated therewith, are or may be conferred upon Undertakers; and the Provisional Order will contain all such regulations and conditions as to the supply of electricity, and all matters incidental thereto, as the said Acts authorise or the Board of Trade may prescribe, and will alter, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might interfere with any of its objects, and confer all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying such objects into effect.

To incorporate with the Provisional Order Section 124 of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891 (relating to actions against local authorities, their officers and servants, and their protection from personal liability), and to extend that section to matters arising under the Order.

To empower the Vestry to borrow money for all or any of the purposes of the Order, and to charge the moneys so borrowed upon the lighting rate or other fund or rate applicable for lighting; and to empower the Vestry to apply any of their funds to any of the purposes of the Order, and to provide for the disposal or application of the revenue from the Undertaking.

The streets and other places in, over, or along which it is proposed to take power to place any electric lines or other works are all the streets and other places within the said area of supply, whether repairable by the local authority or not.

It is proposed that electric lines should be laid down in the following streets within a period of two years after the commencement of the Order: Harrow-road, Kensal-road, Wedlake-street, Wedlake-street Footbridge.

The streets, roads, or places within the said area not repairable by the local authority which the Vestry propose to take power to break up are as follows:—

Conlan-street.
Great Western-terrace.

The canals which the Vestry propose to take powers to pass or cross over or under are as follows:—

The Grand Junction Canal of the Grand Junction Canal Company.

The tramways which the Vestry propose to take powers to break up, pass, or cross over or under are as follows:—

The tramways of the Harrow-road and Paddington Tramways Company.

The draft of the proposed Provisional Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade on or before the 21st day of December next, and printed copies of the draft Provisional Order when applied for, and of the Provisional Order when made, will be furnished at the price of One Shilling for each copy to all persons applying for the same at the office of the Clerk to the Vestry of St. Luke Chelsea, Town Hall, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W.; at the Public Offices, 186, Kensal-road, W.; and at the office of Sydney Morse, of 4, Fenchurch-avenue, in the city of London, Solicitor. Every local or other public authority, company, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application, must do so by letter addressed to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Electric Lighting Acts," on or before the 15th of January, 1899. A copy must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Sydney Morse.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1898.

THOMAS HOLLAND, Vestry Clerk, Town Hall, Chelsea.

SYDNEY MORSE, 4, Fenchurch-avenue, London, E.C., Solicitor for the Order.

In Parliament—Session 1899.

Colonial and Foreign Banks Guarantee Fund. (Incorporation of the Trustees of the said Fund and Transfer to them of all the Property forming part thereof; Providing for Appointment of Additional and New Trustees; Local Committees in Colonies and elsewhere with Power to Issue Fidelity Policies of Assurance; Powers to Trustees to make Rules and Regulations for the General Conduct of the Business and the Management, Investment, and Administration of the Fund and the Application from time to time of Surplus over Liabilities and Expenses; Representative Council of Subscribers to the Fund; Remuneration of Trustees, Council and Committees; Incorporation of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To constitute and incorporate a body of Trustees of the Colonial and Foreign Banks Guarantee Fund to consist of the existing Trustees and others to be nominated by them and their successors from time to time with or without such other persons as may be defined in the Bill or prescribed by Parliament, and to transfer to and vest in or to provide for the transfer to and the vesting in the Body so incorporated (hereinafter called "the Corporation") of all lands, tenements, hereditaments, moneys, stocks, funds, securities, and real and personal estate of whatsoever tenure or nature at the passing of the intended Act, vested in or held by the then Trustees of the said Fund or any person or persons on their behalf, all which are hereinafter included under the expression "The Fund."

2. To fix the number and provide for the qualification, nomination, and appointment of New and Additional Trustees from time to time, and to determine the quorum of the Trustees at their meetings, and to authorise them to issue to employers Policies of Assurance against acts of dishonesty and fraud (hereinafter called policies) by their employees, to establish Local Committees in the Colonies or elsewhere with power to issue policies, to appoint and remove such officers, agents, and servants as they think expedient for the conduct of the business of the Corporation, and to fix their remuneration.

3. To determine who are or may become subscribers to the Fund the rights, privileges, and obligations of subscribers and the amount, terms, and conditions of their subscriptions, and generally to provide for the making from time to time of such Rules and Regulations as the Corporation consider expedient with respect to the conduct of their business, the management, investment, and administration of the Fund, and
