

to 1890 and of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1893 or that such other Order might be made in the premises as should be just it was ordered that the voluntary winding-up of the said Society be continued but subject to the supervision of the Court and any of the proceedings under the said winding-up might be adopted as the Judge should think fit. And the Court appointed Charles Edwin Dovey of Cardiff in the county of Glamorgan Accountant to be Liquidator of the said Society. And the Court directed that a Committee consisting of three creditors and three shareholders of the said Society should be appointed at Extraordinary Meetings of the creditors and shareholders respectively to assist the Liquidator in the liquidation of the said Society. And that the said Liquidator might exercise all the powers conferred upon him by the above Statutes without the sanction or the intervention of the Court in the same manner as if the Society was being wound up altogether voluntarily subject until further order to the restriction thereafter imposed upon him, that is to say:—(a.) The Liquidator shall not without the sanction of a majority of the said Committee or of the Court carry on the business of the said Society or bring or defend any legal proceedings or exercise any of the powers conferred by section 159 or section 160 of the Companies Act 1862. (b.) The Liquidator shall not without the sanction of a majority of the said Committee or of the Court sell or enter into any contract for the sale of the Society's business. (c.) The Liquidator except in cases of emergency shall not without the sanction of a majority of the Committee or of the Court employ a Solicitor or other agent to take any proceedings or do any business which the Liquidator is unable to take or do himself. And the Liquidator is to be at liberty to pay out of the assets of the Society the actual out-of-pocket expenses necessarily incurred by the said Committee acting as aforesaid subject to the approval of the Court. And the said Liquidator is to be at liberty to apply in Court or chambers in the event of any of the said persons so appointed members of the Committee dying or retiring. And the creditors contributories and Liquidator of the said Society and all other persons interested are to be at liberty to apply to the Judge in chambers as there might be occasion. And it was ordered that the costs of the petitioners and of the Society and of the creditors and contributories supporting and opposing the petition and of Mr. E. H. Davies the person appointed to hold meetings for the purpose of ascertaining the wishes of the creditors and contributories be taxed and paid out of the assets of the Society and on such taxation one set of costs was to be allowed to the said E. H. Davies and one set of costs to all the other creditors and parties aforesaid supporting and one set of costs to all other creditors and parties aforesaid opposing the petition.—Dated the 21st day of November 1898.
