AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1898

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said Majesty chapter sixty-three duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the two Archdeacons which are now within the diocese of Hereford, to wit the Archdeaconry of Hereford, and the Archdeaconry of Ludlow, and to the Rural Deaneries comprised within such Archdeacons.

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said two Archdeacons of Hereford and of Ludlow, and to certain of the Rural Deaneries therein are desirable and should be carried into effect.

"And whereas by an Order of Your Majesty

in Council bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of April following, the said Archdeaconry of Ludlow, theretofore called or known as the Archdeaconry of Salop, was given its present name, and certain transfers of territory were made as between the Rural Deanery of Clun, and the Rural Deanery of Ludlow, both within the said Archdeaconry of Ludlow.

"And whereas the said proposed arrangements involve the following changes, that is to say—(1) the transfer of certain parishes or cures or churches to and from the said Archdeaconry of Hereford and the Archdeaconry of Ludlow aforesaid, (2) the creation of one new Rural Deanery by the name of the Rural Deanery of Bishop's Castle in the said Archdeaconry of Ludlow, (3) the renaming of certain Rural Deaneries in the said Archdeacons of Hereford, and of Ludlow, and (4) the re-arrangement of the areas of certain Rural Deaneries in the said two Archdeacons.

"And whereas it appears to us to be convenient to set forth in the schedule to this scheme annexed the names of all the parishes cures or churches which under the arrangements hereinafter recommended and proposed will be situate within and will constitute the several Rural Deaneries of the said two Archdeacons of Hereford and of Ludlow to the intent that so far as legally may be the said schedule may be held to be in the place of and in substitution for the statutory schedule of Rural Deaneries in the said two Archdeacons prepared under the provisions of the hereinbefore thirdly-mentioned Act.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly Gazetted Order, the said Archdeaconry of Hereford and the said Archdeaconry of Ludlow respectively shall comprise and consist of the rural deaneries the names of which are set down in numbered order under the name of each of the said two Archdeacons respectively in the said Schedule to this scheme annexed, and that the name which in such Schedule is given to any rural deanery shall be the name thereof and that every parish or cure or church the name of which is set down in numbered order in the first column of the said Schedule under the name of the said Archdeaconry of Hereford or under the name of the said Archdeaconry of Ludlow and under the name of any rural deanery in either of the said two Archdeacons respectively shall belong to and be and form a part of the Archdeaconry and of the rural deanery under the respective names of which it appears as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Archdeacon of such Archdeaconry and of the rural dean of such rural deanery respectively and shall not belong to or be or form a part of any other Archdeaconry or rural deanery nor be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other Archdeacon or rural dean.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them under or by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.
