

By repealing section 2 of Statute XII intituled "The Annual Election of Fellows" and substituting therefor the following section to form an amended section 2 of the same Statute :—

STATUTE XII.

THE ANNUAL ELECTION OF FELLOWS.

2. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained the fellowships at the disposal of the Board of Electors shall be filled up (a) from among the persons eligible as next hereinafter provided that is to say any Member of the College (or if in any year the Council shall think fit any Member of the University) who shall have been admitted in the University to the title of Bachelor Designate in Arts or to some equal title and who is not of standing to be admitted to incept in Arts or in any other faculty shall be eligible at each or any of the three annual elections taking place or which might have taken place next after the end of three years and six months from the beginning of the term in which he commenced residence. Provided however that if a Member of the College has been by illness or other grave cause prevented from proceeding to a degree at the regular time the Council may if they think fit prolong in his case the said period of three years and six months so as to make him eligible at each or any of the three annual elections taking place or which might have taken place next after the time when he shall have been admitted to the title of Bachelor Designate in Arts or to some equal title. Provided always that to determine the eligibility of Students of Affiliated Colleges and of Advanced Students respectively this section shall be read as if the words "two years" and "one year" respectively were substituted for the words "three years" wherever the same occur.

By repealing section 7 of Statute XV intituled "Tenure and Vacating of Fellowships" and substituting therefor the following section to form an amended section 7 of the same Statute :—

STATUTE XV.

TENURE AND VACATING OF FELLOWSHIPS.

7. If any Fellow entitled to retain his fellowship in virtue of his holding any qualifying office in the University other than the offices of Public Orator Registrary or Librarian shall at any time be permitted or required, under the Statutes of the University, during a period exceeding four weeks, to discharge the duties of his office by deputy, the time during which such duties shall be so discharged shall not be reckoned as part of the period of service after which such Fellow shall either become entitled to hold his fellowship until the end of one year from his ceasing to hold a qualifying office or as hereinafter provided be discharged from the obligation to hold such office, or after which he shall be entitled to any increase of his dividend.

By adding to the same Statute XV after section 7 the following section to form section 7a of that Statute :—

7a. If any Fellow entitled to retain his fellowship in virtue of his holding the office of Public Orator Registrary or Librarian in the University shall at any time in term on account of absence from the University or for other reason be permitted or required under the Statutes of the University during a period exceeding four weeks to discharge the duties of his office by deputy, the time during which such duties shall be so discharged shall not be reckoned as part of the period of service after which such Fellow shall either become entitled to hold his fellowship until the end of one year from his ceasing to hold a qualifying office or as hereinafter provided be discharged from the obligation to hold such office.

By repealing section 8 of the same Statute XV and substituting therefor the following section to form an amended section 8 of that Statute :—

8. If any Fellow entitled to retain his fellowship in virtue of his holding any qualifying College office shall at any time be prevented during a period exceeding four weeks from discharging the duties of such office by reason of ill-health, or of absence from Cambridge for the purpose of study out of the University, or of occupation in any special educational work to which the Council may appoint him, or of other grave cause to be approved by the Council, the time during which he shall so be prevented from discharging such duties shall not be reckoned as part of the period of service after which such Fellow shall either become entitled to hold his fellowship until the end of one year from his ceasing to hold a qualifying office or as hereinafter provided be discharged from the obligation to hold such office, or after which he shall be entitled to any increase of his dividend, or after which he shall be compelled to retire from office as hereinafter provided.

By repealing section 1 of Statute XX intituled "The Major Scholars" and substituting therefor the following section to form an amended section 1 of the same Statute :—

STATUTE XX.—THE MAJOR SCHOLARS.

1. There shall be at least seventy-four Major Scholars exclusive of the Supernumerary Scholars (if any). The Council may in virtue of new benefactions found additional Major scholarships to be held subject to the provisions herein contained.

By adding to section 3 of the same Statute XX the following proviso :—

Provided also that with reference to those students who by the Statutes and Ordinances of the University are enabled to proceed to their first degree after keeping by residence less than nine terms the Council shall make regulations from time to time determining whether and under what conditions they or any of them shall be eligible for scholarships.

By adding after Statute XXI intituled "The Minor Scholars" the following further Statute to form Statute XXIa :—

STATUTE XXIa. SUPERNUMERARY SCHOLARS.

Any Major or Minor Scholar may, with the consent in writing of his Tutor, declare in writing to the Master his intention of becoming a Supernumerary Scholar. Such Supernumerary Scholar shall not thenceforth be entitled to any payment in respect of his scholarship but save as aforesaid he shall remain a Scholar to all intents and purposes and hold his Scholarship for the like time and under the like conditions and enjoy the like privileges and advantages in respect thereof as if he had not made such declaration. Provided that a person elected to an ordinary Major Scholarship shall not become a Supernumerary Major Scholar by reason of any such declaration made by him with reference to any scholarship previously held by him. Provided also that no account shall be taken by the Electors at any election to scholarships of any such declaration previously made by any candidate either with reference to any scholarship previously held by him or otherwise.

By repealing section 2 of Statute XXVIII intituled "The Vice-Master" and substituting therefor the following section to form an amended section 2 of the same Statute :—