

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Martin, situate within the Parish of Bryanston, in the County of Dorset, and in the Diocese of Salisbury, for the Old Church of Saint Martin, situate within and hitherto being the Parish Church of the same Parish.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting :

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Bryanston, in the county of Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Martin.

And whereas the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, as such Bishop, and the Right Honourable William Henry Berkeley, Viscount Portman, as the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Bryanston, and the Reverend William Mason Anderson, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Rector or Incumbent of the same rectory, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Bryanston, that the said new church of Saint Martin situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Martin) of the same parish.

Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument, under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, and of the said William Henry Berkeley, Viscount Portman, and William Mason Anderson, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Martin, situate within the said parish of Bryanston, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Martin as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Bryanston in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Martin, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Martin, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Martin as aforesaid) of the said parish of Bryanston, or of or belonging to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Martin (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Bryanston), and to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said William Henry Berkeley, Viscount Portman, and William Mason Anderson have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals, this third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.
