To Edward Fabian late of the Orchard Tavern Public-house Askew-road Shepherd's Bush in the county of Middlesex Licensed Victualler.

TAKE notice that on the 3rd day of January 1899 a Writ was issued in the action of Watney and Company Limited v. Edward Fabian 1899 W. No. 25 which claimed (1) An account of what is due to the plaintiffs for principal interest and costs under an indenture of mortgage dated the 6th day of October 1898 and made between the defendant of the one part and the plaintiffs of the other part being a mortgage of the Orchard Tavern public-house Askew-road Shepherd's Bush in the county of Middlesex and the goodwill of the business carried on thereupon and to have the said mortgage security enforced by foreclosure or sale. (2) Payment to the plaintiffs by the defendant under his personal covenant of the moneys secured by the said indenture of mortgage. (3) A receiver and manager of the rents and profits of the said public-house and the business of a Licensed Victualler carried on thereon. (4) An injunction to restrain the defendant from interfering with the management of the said business and the possession of the said premises. (5) All proper accounts enquiries and directions. And take notice that as stated in a Notice of Motion dated the 5th day of January 1899 the High Court of Justice will be moved before his Lordship Mr. Justice Kekewich on Friday the 27th day of January 1899 or so soon thereafter as Counsel can be heard by Counsel on behalf of the plaintiffs for (1) An Order that Edward Cecil Moore of 8 Crosby-square in the city of London Chartered Accountant the interim Receiver and Manager appointed by Order dated the 5th day of January 1899 or some other fit person may be appointed receiver of the rents and profits of the Orchard Tavern Askew-road aforesaid and receiver and the manager of the business carried on thereon and of the licences and other property comprised in the indenture of mortgage of the 6th day of October 1898 in the Writ mentioned with all proper consequential directions and that such receiver may act at once upon the plaintiffs undertaking to be answerable for all moneys received by him as such receiver until he shall give security. (2) For such other Order as to the Court may seem just. And take notice that by an Order dated the 13th January 1899 it was ordered that the sending of a copy of the said Writ of Summons together with a copy of the said Order of 13th January 1899 and of the said Notice of Motion through the Post Office prepaid in a registered envelope addressed to the said defendant Edward Fabian at 32 Millgrove-street Battersea Park-road London S.W. and the service upon the wife of the said defendant at 32 Millgrove-street Battersea Park-road aforesaid of a copy of the said Writ and Notice of Motion and of the said Order of the 13th January 1899 together with the publication by advertisement of the said Writ of Summons of the said Notice of Motion and of the said Order once in the London Gazette and twice in the Daily Chronicle newspaper with an interval of two days between each insertion should be deemed good and sufficient service of the said Writ and Notice of Motion upon the said defendant Edward Fabian. And take notice that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you to the said Writ at the Central Office Royal Courts of Justice London within 8 days from the last of such advertisements the plaintiffs may proceed in the said action and Judgment may be given in your absence. And take notice that in default of your appearing on the hearing of the said motion the same will be proceeded with in your absence.
