TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 1899.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 7, 1899.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Duke of York will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Tuesday, the 14th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

HOPETOUN,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 6, 1899.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be open to the Public on and after Monday next, the 13th instant, on every week day, Wednesdays excepted, under the usual Regulations, until further orders.

FAIRS.

Alteration of Date.

WORTHEN, SHROPSHIRE.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Chirbury Rural District Council, that Fairs have been annually held at Worthen on the last Monday of the months of March, June, September, and November, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should in future be held on the last Thursday of those months.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873."

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should in future be held on the last Thursday of the months of March, June, September, and November.

Now therefore I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the Fairs which have been annually held at Worthen on the last Monday of the months of March, June, September, and November, shall in future be held on the last Thursday of those months.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 1st day of March, 1899.

M. W. Ridley.

Civil Service Commission, March 7, 1899.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS respecting Competitive Examinations for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future Examinations.

1. Competitive Examinations of Candidates for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service will be held from time to time at such places as may be deemed expedient.

2. These examinations are open, under such general restrictions as may be laid down, to all natural-born subjects of Her Majesty, being of the prescribed age, and of good health and character. The undermentioned restrictions are at present in force :—

(i.) The following classes of persons are ineligible, viz. :—

(1.) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of less than five years' service, and

(2.) Persons actually serving in the Army and Navy.

(ii.) The following classes of persons will not be eligible unless they produce to the Civil Service Commissioners the written permission of the authorities of their department to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition, viz. :—

(a) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service; (b) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of more than five years' service; (c) Apprentices in Her Majesty's Dockyards, and Engineer Students in the Navy.

(iii.) Persons who have been trained in Normal Schools at the public expense will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Committee of Council on Education, Great Britain, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

(iv.) In reckoning age for competition, the following allowances will be made, viz. :—

(1) Persons who have served in the Army or Navy may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have served; (2) persons who have served for two full consecutive years (a) in any Civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners; (b) in the Royal Irish Constabulary; or (c) as Registered Boy Copyists in connection with the Civil Service, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years which they may have spent in such service.

3. The limits of age are 17 and 20. Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the Examination.

4. Any examination which may be held before the 30th June, 1900, will be in the following subjects:—

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Arithmetic.
4. Copying MS. (to test accuracy).
5. English Composition.
6. Geography.
7. Indexing or Docketing.
8. Digesting Returns into Summaries.
9. English History.
10. Book-keeping.

5. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

6. A fee of £2 will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that on the 25th April, 1899, and following days, a Competitive Examination will be held in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Bedford, Birmingham, Bristol, Leeds, Liverpool, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Plymouth, Aberdeen, Glasgow, Belfast, and Cork, under the foregoing Regulations, at which examination 150 Candidates will be selected for Clerkships of the Second Division of the Civil Service (including those who may succeed in the limited competition under Clause 13 of the Order in Council of 29th November, 1898).

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 11th April, an application in the handwriting of the Candidate on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission, March 7, 1899.

Metropolitan Water Companies.

(Supply of Water between Companies; Execution of Works required by Local Government Board; Execution of Purposes of Bill by each Company in District of any other Company; Apportionment of Cost; Arbitration; Issue of Orders by Local Government Board; Penalties for Default; Raising of Money and Issue of Debenture Stock by Companies; and for other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill containing provisions for the purposes hereinafter mentioned is now before Parliament. The Bill proposes—

1. To authorise and facilitate the supply of water to each other by the several Water Companies named in section 3 of the Metropolis Water Act, 1871 (34 and 35 Vict. cap. 113), and the execution by the Companies of such works as the Local Government Board may direct for enabling such supply to be given.

2. For the execution of the powers of the Bill by each of the said Companies in the District of any other of the said Companies.

3. To provide for the apportionment of the cost of works under the Bill amongst all the said Water Companies; for determination of questions by arbitration; for fixing the period for execution of works, the extent and period of supply of water, and for the supply of information to the Local Government Board; for the imposition of penalties in case of default; for raising money by the said Companies by the issue of debenture stock; for preventing claims in the event of subsequent purchase of the Companies' Undertakings; and for inquiries by the Local Government Board.

4. The Bill also contains provisions subsidiary and incidental to the purposes mentioned above.

Dated this 3rd day of March, 1899.
