THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1894.

BRAMFORD FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Bosmere and Claydon Rural District Council, that a Fair has been annually held in Bramford Street on the Monday week before Whit Monday in each year, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871":

And whereas on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now therefore I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held in Bramford Street on the Monday week before Whit Monday in each year, shall be abolished.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 16th day of March, 1899.

For the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, the Punjab, and the Central Provinces	Hindustani.
For Burma	Burmese.
For Bombay	Marathi.
For Madras—Tamil or Telugu	At the option of the Candidate.
For the Lower Provinces of Bengal

In Hindustani the Candidate will be required to be acquainted with both the Persian and the Nagari character; and in the case of the last two Provinces mentioned above a Candidate whose Vernacular Language is either of the languages shown against his Province, must offer the other for examination.

† These subjects may not be offered by any Candidate who has offered them at the Open Competition.

In this Examination, as in the Open Competition, the merit of the Candidates examined will be estimated by marks (which will be subject to deductions in the same way as the marks assigned at the Open Competition), and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it. The examination will be conducted on paper and viva voce, as may be deemed necessary. This Examination will be held at the close of the year of probation and will be called the 'Final Examination.'

If any Candidate is prevented by sickness or any other adequate cause from attending such examination, the Commissioners may with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for India in Council, allow him to appear at the Final Examination to be held in the following year, or at a special examination."

II. For Regulation 11, which at present stands as follows:—

"11. The selected Candidates who, at the Final Examination, shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9, and who shall have satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character, and ability to ride, shall be certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India, provided they shall comply with the Regulations in force at the time for that Service"—

it is proposed to substitute the following, that is to say:—

"11. The selected Candidates who on examination shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9, and who shall have satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character, conduct during the period of probation, and ability to ride, shall be certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India, provided they shall comply with the regulations in force at the time for that Service."

III. For Regulation 12, which at present stands as follows:—

"12. Persons desirous to be admitted as candidates must apply on forms, which may be obtained from 'The Secretary, Civil Service Commission, London, S.W.,' at any time after the 1st December, in the year previous to that in which the Examination is to be held. The forms must be returned so as to be received at the office of the Civil Service Commissioners, on or before the 31st May (or, if that date should fall upon a Sunday or public holiday, then on or before the first day thereafter on which their office is open), in the year in which the Examination is to be held"—

it is proposed to substitute the following, that is to say:—

"12. Persons desirous to be admitted as Candidates, must apply on forms which may be obtained from the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, London, S.W., at any time after the 1st December, in the year previous to that in which the Examination is to be held. The forms must be returned so as to be received at the office of the Civil Service Commissioners, on or before the 1st July (or, if that date should fall upon a Sunday or public holiday, then on or before the first day thereafter on which their office is open), in the year in which the Examination is to be held."
