

will be fumigated and held under observation five full days.

Rule 5. Vessels from places south of 25 degrees north latitude, with clean bills of health, and having had no sickness on board, will be fumigated, and held three days after fumigation.

Rule 6. Iron steamships arriving from ports south of 25 degrees north latitude, with no cargo or passengers, or laden with such articles as cannot possibly be carriers of infection, with clean bills of health from last clearance and the clearance preceding the last, and in good sanitary condition at the time of arrival, may be permitted to enter, after being fumigated, without further detention, if, in the judgment of the local quarantine officer, it is safe to do so.

Rule 7. Vessels wishing to engage in the fruit trade will be allowed to do so under special restrictions and regulations governing same.

All officials, military authorities, and citizens of Texas are solicited to assist the quarantine officers in the execution of the above rules, and are earnestly requested to notify the Governor of any dereliction of duty by officers or employes, or any other facts that will give greater efficiency to the quarantine service.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and have caused the seal of State to be affixed, at the city of Austin, this 1st day of March A.D. 1899.

JOSEPH D. SAYERS, Governor of Texas.

(Seal.)

By the Governor,
D. H. HARDY, Secretary of State.
