now placing in Battery; and in the mean time we have carried on our Trenches to the Glacis of the Gounterfearpe, now placing in Battery; and in the mean time we have carried on our Trenches to the Glacis of the Counterfearpe, without loofing above reomen, among whom are 2 Officers of the Regiment of Lochis, and one of the Eactors Ingeniers. Moniteur as Catinat is fill encamped near Saluer; The Marquis de Larré has left the Neighborhood of Safa, and is come with 6000 Men under his Command to Dignerel; The Vaudois have cut off 50 of his Foragers, and above 100 Horfes between Lucerne and Pignerel. And just now we have advice, That the Marquis de Larre that had been laid up at Lucerne, and to definoy the Forage try thereabouts, a Party of the Vaudois, Commanded by the Sieur Duckene, had fallen upon them, killed 50, wounded as many, and obliged the relt to retire in diforder.

Terin, Octob. 6. The Regiment of Fuziliers which came lately from Aofta, marched from hence on Tuefday laft, to join our Army before Carmagnole, which conflits at prefer tween 50 and 40000 men; and Moniteur Catinat is fait not to have above 20000. The Trenches were opened before Carmagnole on the 3d, and the great Cannon arrived there the 5th. The Town is commanded by the Sieur de Pheilie Reliere, who has the reputation of a good Officer, and feems rejoived to defend it.

The Town is commanded by the Sieur de Pleilis Relieve, who has the reputation of a good Officer, and feems resolved to defend in the troop of a good Officer, and feems resolved to defend in the reputation of a good Officer, and feems resolved to defend in the feet of the man from the Camp before Carmagnole, in his way to Germany, whicher he is dispatched by the Electror of man from the Camp before Carmagnole, in his way to Germany, whicher he is dispatched by the Electror of Bavaria, with an account, That Carmagnole was Surrended on Monday laft in the Afterneon; the Garison marching out with their Arms, Bag and Baggage, and 3 Picces of Cannon, and leaving behind them, among other cannon, 6 Pieces and 3 Mortars, with the Arms of France, and a great quantity of Provitions. The Garison was to be conducted to Pignerol; whither Monsteur Carman is retired with his whole Army; and, it's believed, our next Advices will inform us of his farther Retreat rowards Dauphine. Great supplies of Ammunition and Bamb; are still fent from hence to the Contederate Army, which makes think they have some new design in hand.

Vicina, Octob. 14. The Letters from the Imperial Camp in Hongary, give us this following Journal of their motions. On the 24th of the last Month the Count of Averdory again with a Detachement of Horse to see the Ways mended, and made passable for the Cannon and Carriages. The 26th the Instantry and Artillery passed the Thirty sunder the Command of Count Mansfelt, and marched to Sc. Cavalry. The 28th the Army encamped at Panhalma; the 29th and 30th they passed the River Gages. The first instant the Horse advanced to the Morasos Arcos; and the Foot concernment of the Schot the Passosh, where Prince Lewis received an Euvoy from the King of Poland, who is sent to takecare of the Interests of that Crown at the Froot to over the Personagy, which they passed the Advice of General Heisters being set at Liberty by Teckley is confirmed from Transsor under his Command to reduce some places of Schrums a which has additional

We hear from Esseke, that the Duke de Grof was preparing to march with the Troops under his Command to reduce some places of Sclavonia which are itill in the Posseilion of the Turks. A Battalion of Passes Heydukes is put into Esseke to Reinforce that Garison; And the ack and wounded of the Imperial Army, which were removed into a Hospital near Modara are many of them recovered, and as fast as they grow well are sent to the Camp. We have advice from General Vertram's Camp, that our Hustirs had taken the Palank of Tissue, and put all the Turks that were in it to the Sword; And that 2000 Tartars from Temospaser had attackt our Foragers, but were presently reputied.

Planties are at last arrived here from the Bishop of Manfler to assist at the Diet of the Circle, which is now held in this place.

Parit, Ocish, 20. On Sunday last arrived here a Consider from Pleatonous, with advice, That Carmagable was Surgestived, the Garison marching out on the gen instant with their arms and Baggage, and 3 pieces of Cannon. The Letters from Plantol of the 1th of this Menth give an account, That the Garison of Carmagnele was arrived there, having given up that place upon a Signal from Moniteur Carnat, who was not in a condition to relieve them; and that soon after he decamped with the Army from Saluces, and having repassed the Po, retired under the Cannon of Pignerol. That the Prince d'Elbeuf, who Commanded the Rear-guard consisting of 1500 Men, had fallen into an Ambuth of the Vandois; who, after the first discharge, sell on with their Bayones at the end of their Muskets, and killed between 7 and 800 of our Men; and that they feared other Ambuthes in the desires or the Mountains, these People being extreamly enraged against the French. That the Confederate Army was come to Vizone, alking their March directly towards Sasa; which place, twas believed, they would Atrack. And, by fresher Advices, from Piedmont, we understand, That Montieur Carinas had separated his Army; and that the Troops were retiring into Dauphine, Provence, and Bress. The Duke of Maine is returned from the Army in Flanders; and the Duke of Luxemburg is expected at Versalles the begining of the next Week. The Prince de Cournay, and the Marquis de Vangation are both sent to the Bastitle.

Erussels, 24. October. We have advice, That the Baron der Henricon, and the Count de Lippe, with the Forces under their Conamand, had rejoyned those of Liege, Commanded by the Count de Tilli, in the Plain of Thunge, between Hay and Liege, and were afterwards marched towards the Marquis de Bonsser, and retired with his 15000 Men towards Murche and Reckessor; and we hear since, That he has put them into Quarters. The Regiments that are to e fince, That he has put them into Quarters. The Regiments that are to enter into Garison here, lye as yet encamped with some other Troops, about 2 or 3 Leagues from hence. The new Forts that are made at the head of the Suburbs of Anderlecke are almost finished. The Prince de Viademant is expected back to Morrow from the Hastie.

the Hague, Ostob. 26. The State of the War is settled for the next Year, both by Sea and Land. The Armics in Flanders are separated and gone into Winter-Quarters. The Letters from Vienna consist the Emperor and the Turks; as those from Italy do the Surrender of Carmagnole, and the retreat of Monsieur Catinat into Daughing.

Dublin, Osiob. 14. The Lorde Juffices returned hither on the 9th in the Evening, having been met near this this City by most of the Perfors of Quality about the Town, and received at the City Gate, by the Magistracy and Militia. The General continues Encamped with the Army near Limerick, till the Irifb are marched away, which they will do, to foon as Snapping is ready for their Transportation. Upon a late review, above 2000 came over to us, among whom is the Lord Every, with his whole Regiment; and its not deuted but a greater number will to low. On the 7th Endarack O Demel waited upon the General in the Camp. There is a Report, That a French Fleet of Men of War and Transport Ships, with Parisons and Ammunition, is come into the Bay of Directions and Ammunition, visions and Ammunition, is come into the Bay of Dings on the Coast of Kerry, of which we are expecting to he with more certainty.

Plintouth, Octob. 18. Yesterday arrived here seem the North West passage the Hudstons Bay Frigat, Leosard Edgeouth Commander, and the Loyalty, James Young Commander, both of Iradion. This day we have advice from Loo, That a great heat Fast India Ship, homeward Bound, was cast away left right that place. She had been out 5 years, and was very Rich.

Portsmouth, Octob. 20. This Morning arrived at Spinkel. Portsmouth, Octob. 20. This Morning arrived at Spinkel. Dutch homeward Bound East India Ships, together with one in the West Iradies, a Galliot and a Privateer. The Decides and October of War now Riding at Spinthead, is preparing to Sal
