"Pilotage Authority" means the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the city of Bristol.

"Pilotage Committee" means and includes the Committee appointed by the Pilotage Authority for regulating or managing their affairs as a Pilotage Authority and the representatives of Licensed Pilots and Ship Owners elected to serve on such Committee in pursuance of "The Pilotage Order Confirmation (No. 2) Act, 1890."

4. No person shall be eligible to be licensed to act either as Pilot or as a Certificated Master or Mate within the Pilotage District unless he produce to the Pilotage Authority satisfactory testimonials as to character, a certificate from a Medical Officer to be appointed by the Pilotage Committee that he is not suffering from any ailment which would prevent his performing his duties efficiently, and a recent Board of Trade Certificate as to his effective vision and freedom from colour blindness, and until he shall have satisfied the Pilotage Authority as to his knowledge in the following subjects, viz.:—

(1) The rules of the road at sea and the rules and regulations to be observed for the preventing collisions at sea, as laid down from time to time by the Board of Trade.

(2) The Bristol Channel and the River Avon, and the proper method of navigating the same respectively.

(3) The management of vessels, both steam and sailing, how to bring them to anchor and to keep them clear of their anchors in a tide way, and how to moor, unmoor and get them under weigh.

5. Pilots shall be divided into two classes, viz.:—First class and second class Pilots. First class Pilots may pilot vessels of any tonnage, and second class Pilots may pilot sailing vessels of not exceeding 1,200 tons register and steam vessels of not exceeding 1,000 tons register.

6. After a second class Pilot shall have served in that capacity for not less than one year without any serious mishap to a vessel while in his charge through his own default he shall be qualified to be licensed as a first class Pilot.

7. In any such case when a first class Pilot

No second class Pilot shall continue in charge of a sailing vessel exceeding 1,200 tons register or a steam vessel exceeding 1,000 tons register after a first class Pilot has offered to take charge of her. Provided that in no case shall a change of Pilots take place on board a vessel after such vessel shall have entered the River Avon.

8. Every Pilot shall upon first receiving a licence pay the sum of £2 2s. to the Pilotage Authority, and shall also pay to them the sum of £1 1s. on receiving every subsequent licence. Every Certificated Master or Mate upon receiving his Certificate shall pay to the Pilotage Authority the sum of £2 2s., and shall also pay to them the sum of £1 1s. on every renewal thereof.

10. No Pilot when proceeding to the outer limits of the Pilotage District to cruise, or when cruising therein in his pilot boat or in that of another Pilot, shall be towed by a steam vessel so as to prejudice the opportunity of any other Pilot to board an incoming vessel; nor shall he endeavour to obtain the pilotage of any vessel when another Pilot is attempting to board her, under the penalty of forfeiting the pilotage fee to the Pilot whose opportunity of employment has been lost thereby.

11. Every Pilot on boarding a ship for the purpose of piloting her to her destination shall demand of the Master or other Officer in charge, a statement in writing of her draught of water forward and aft.

12. No Pilot shall conduct himself contemptuously, or give abuse, or use improper language to the Haven Master; and every Pilot shall behave himself with strict sobriety and with due civility towards the Owner, Master and Officers of any vessel under his charge.

13. Every Pilot shall obey and execute all orders and regulations given and issued by the Pilotage Authority or the Haven Master, and obey the orders and directions of the Haven Master as to the number of boats and men to be employed in assisting to navigate any vessel up or down the River Avon or to moor or unmoor her in such river, or to enter any of the docks within the Port of Bristol, and he shall also strictly comply with the directions of the Harbour or Dock Master touching the docking or undocking, mooring or unmooring, towing or removing any ship or vessel which such Pilot may have under his charge, so long as such vessel shall be within the limits of the authority of any such Harbour or Dock Master.

14. Every Pilot shall use his utmost care and diligence to conduct vessels under his charge to their destination safely and without damage to other vessels.

15. No Pilot shall leave any inward bound vessel of which he has charge, unless being a second class Pilot to be superseded by a first class Pilot in pursuance of the 7th Clause hereof, until she is safely moored in one of the docks.

16. Pilots shall go on board of outward bound vessels in sufficient time before leaving the dock to ascertain whether they are ready to proceed to sea or anchor in Kingroad; and Pilots are in particular to personally satisfy themselves that the steering gear is connected and in working condition.

17. No pilot shall neglect or refuse to proceed to sea from any of the docks with any vessel which he is qualified to pilot when requested to do so by the Master or Owner of such vessel. In case of refusal he shall at once give his reason therefor in writing to the Haven Master, who shall report the matter at the next meeting of the Pilotage Committee.

18. Whenever any accident shall have happened to or been caused by any vessel while in charge of a Pilot, such Pilot shall within twenty-four hours after arrival or after leaving the vessel, fully report in writing the facts of such accident so far as he knows them to the Haven Master.

19. No Pilot shall conduct or navigate a vessel to a port outside the pilotage district without the permission of the Haven Master.

20. Every Pilot becoming aware of the existence of any danger in the ordinary track of shipping sailing to or from the port, the displacement of any buoy, lightship or beacon, the failure of any light or fog signal, or of any other impediment to the safe navigation of the Bristol Channel or the River Avon shall, as soon as possible, give notice in writing to the Haven Master of the nature and position of such danger or impediment or of such displacement or failure, together with the date and hour when discovered.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of July, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch in the city of London and in the diocese of London between that benefice and the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint George the Martyr Southwark in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas the advowson of each of the aforesaid benefices is vested partly in Your Majesty in right of the Crown being exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain by virtue of his office and partly in the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the city of London hereinafter referred to as 'the said Corporation.'

"And whereas the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Earl of Halsbury now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain as such Lord High Chancellor and the said Corporation have requested us to recommend to Your Majesty in Council the apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark is at present insufficiently endowed and that the said benefice and rectory of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch has endowments of such an amount as that after allowing for the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made upon the same endowments the lastly-mentioned benefice will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Mandell Bishop of the diocese of London, and the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parish of Saint George the Martyr Southwark by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice and rectory of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice and rectory of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch is now full of a Clerk.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Mandell Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he hath to this scheme set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Rochester (in testimony whereof he hath to this scheme set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Hardinge Stanley Earl of Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting on behalf of Your Majesty as one of the patrons of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he hath signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Corporation as remaining patrons of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said Corporation have to this scheme affixed their common or corporate seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice and rectory of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch shall from whatever cause be next avoided all the tithes or annual sums in lieu of tithes glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments which shall at the date of the next avoidance of the said benefice and rectory of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch or which may thereafter belong to the same benefice and rectory shall be charged and for ever thereafter be chargeable in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned that is to say a clear annual sum or yearly charge of three hundred pounds to be as from the day last aforesaid due and payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark and to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the said benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same incumbency on the other hand and to be receivable by the incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February the first day of May the first day of August and the first day of November in every year.

"Provided nevertheless that in any and every year in which the payment of such annual sum of three hundred pounds would have the effect of reducing the net income of the benefice of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch below the net income (including such payment of three hundred pounds) of the benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark then and in every such year there shall be paid to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark such part only of the said annual sum of three hundred pounds as shall be sufficient to make the net income of the said benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark equal to the net income of the said benefice of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch for the same year.

"And we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark shall have the following powers for recovering the said yearly rent charge hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say) power if and whenever any part of the said rent charge to which he may be entitled shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof and the fact of the same being so in arrear shall be verified by the declaration of the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark his executors administrators or assigns or in such other or further manner as shall be required by the Bishop of London it shall be lawful for the said Bishop to make an order requiring payment of the arrear to be made within a time to be specified in such order and if the same be not paid within such period then it shall be lawful for the said Bishop to sequester the profits of the said benefice of Saint Margaret Pattens with Saint Gabriel Fenchurch until all such arrears due at the time of such sequestration or afterwards to become due during such sequestration together with all costs and expenses of the said sequestration or occasioned thereby shall have been full paid and satisfied but such power of sequestration shall not in anywise abridge or interfere with any rights of the said incumbent of the benefice of Saint George the Martyr Southwark or his representatives to recover the said sum or any arrear thereof by proceedings at law or in equity or to use exercise and enjoy all such other powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same as may be statutorily exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the archdeaconry of Carmarthen and now vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands tithes and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid consists partly of a reversion expectant upon the determination of a beneficial lease, such lease producing only a small annual revenue and on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property some portions of the said lands tithes and hereditaments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands tithes and hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands tithes and hereditaments or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interests therein or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any) to be testified by his her or their being made parties to such instruments all or any of the said lands tithes and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said archdeaconry and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint David's.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint James Enfield and of the parish of Enfield in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the Schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and of such parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint James Enfield and of the said parish of Enfield should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Mandell Bishop of the said diocese of London as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has affixed his signature and his episcopal seal to this representation) with the consent of the Reverend George Hewit Hodson Clerk in Holy Orders Prebendary of Newington in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul London and vicar of the vicarage of the said parish of Enfield and as such vicar the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Enfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation) and with the consent of the Master Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity within the town and University of Cambridge, of King Henry the Eighth's Foundation the patrons of the vicarage of the parish of Enfield aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have caused their common or corporate seal to be affixed to this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint James Enfield and of the said parish of Enfield which are described in the Schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Matthew situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew Ponders End.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew Ponders End comprising:—

"All those two contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint James Enfield and of the parish of Enfield, both in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which, taken together are bounded upon the east partly by the parish of Waltham Holy Cross and partly by the parish of Chingford, both in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Saint Albans, upon the south by the parish of Edmonton, in the said county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say, upon the west and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Edmonton from the parish of Enfield aforesaid is intersected by the middle of the Cheshunt line of the Great Eastern Railway, and extending thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts (thereby passing through Churchbury Railway Station) to the centre of the bridge which carries Southbury-road over the said line of railway and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Enfield from the new parish of Saint James Enfield aforesaid) to the junction of the said road with Hertford-road and with Nag's Head-road, and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Duck Lees-lane and extending thence in a direction alternately north-eastward and south-eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to its present eastern end distant five chains or thereabouts eastward of its junction with Northampton-road and extending thence that is to say from the present eastern end of the said lane in a direction due east and in a straight line for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the River Lea Navigation) to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Enfield from the parish of Waltham Holy Cross aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Mary Doncaster, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary Doncaster is vested in the Archbishop of York for the time being.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary, Doncaster, now vested in him as aforesaid as such Archbishop should be transferred to and be vested in the Venerable John Richardson Archdeacon of Southwark, of Saint Edmund's Tulse Hill, in the county of Surrey, Philip Vernon Smith of Number 4 Stone-buildings Lincoln's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, Doctor of Laws, the Reverend Henry Nevile Sherbrooke of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester Clerk in Holy Orders, Sir Charles Douglas Fox, of Number 28 Victoria-street, in the city of Westminster, Civil Engineer, and the Reverend Walter Abbott Clerk in Holy Orders, the Vicar of Paddington in the said county of Middlesex the present Patronage Trustees of Miss Hyndman's Bounty to the Church of England and their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And whereas a certain augmentation of the said benefice of Saint Mary Doncaster has through us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and to our satisfaction been made, upon condition nevertheless that the transfer of the advowson of the same benefice which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter proposed shall be effected.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Mary Doncaster which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint Mary Doncaster.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, acting as such patron, and also as diocesan, and as Archbishop of the Province in which the said new parish of Saint Mary Doncaster is situate (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary, Doncaster, now vested in him the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, as such Archbishop, shall be transferred from him the said Archbishop and from his successors Archbishops of York, to the said John Richardson, Philip Vernon Smith, Henry Nevile Sherbrooke Charles Douglas Fox and Walter Abbott and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Richardson, Philip Vernon Smith, Henry Nevile Sherbrooke Charles Douglas Fox, and Walter Abbott and their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of July, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act 1853" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1855," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that so much of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, directing the discontinuance of burials in the city of Sheffield, as relates to burials in Attercliffe old and new churchyards, should be varied by substituting for the directions contained therein the following Order, viz.:—

ATTERCLIFFE.—That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Attercliffe Old Churchyard.

That burials be discontinued in Attercliffe New Churchyard except:—

(a.) In family vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed of the relatives of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

(c.) That no burial take place within twenty feet of the church or any other building.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-sixth day of August next:—

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-sixth day of August.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of July, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1853," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1855," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that so much of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the eighteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, as relates to burials in the parish of Burnham, in the county of Essex, should be varied by substituting for the directions contained therein, with respect to the said parish, the directions hereinafter set forth.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the nineteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the following directions be substituted for those contained in the said Order in Council of the eighteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, viz.:—

BURNHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Burnham in the county of Essex; and also in the whole of the church-yard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

(d.) In a reserved grave space in the south-west corner which has never before been buried in burial may be allowed of Peter and Lucy Richmond (at their decease) provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet and that the grave when made is free from water.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act 1853" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered:

And whereas by "The Burial Act 1855" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by an Order dated the thirteenth day of September, one thou-and eight hundred and fifty-four, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the burial ground of the Cathedral of Winchester.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council by Orders dated the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, to vary the said Order of the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in so far as it affects burials in the burial ground of the Cathedral of Winchester, should be further varied by the addition of certain words.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said first recited Order as varied by the said Orders of the thirteenth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and the thirtieth April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, be further varied by the addition of the following words, viz., "and except for the burial (in that part of the Cathedral Burial Ground, called the 'Great Water Close' situated on the south side of the Lady Chapel), in such cases as the Secretary of State may by licence under his hand allow, of Bishops of the diocese and Deans of the Cathedral at their decease."
