INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., c. 19), power is given for increasing, in certain cases, the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district, or division, in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen: and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county, an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the office of the Clerk to Commissioners of Taxes in Preston, on Wednesday, the 25th day of October 1899, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Preston, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

The Metropolis Water Act, 1871.

The Local Government Act, 1888.

To the London County Council:—

TAKE notice, that we, the Company of Proprietors of Lambeth Water Works, in conformity with the provisions of the Metropolis Water Act, 1871, propose to give, on and after the 1st day of April, 1900, a constant supply of water to so much and such parts of the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of London, as are bounded by or contained within imaginary lines drawn along or near to the following roads and places, that is to say:—

Commencing at the Paxton Hotel Gipsy-road, thence northward along the boundary of the area or district known as the Company's C Division of constant supply as far as the point of intersection of the London Chatham and Dover Railway with the South London and Sutton Junction Railway, thence north-eastward along the boundary of the P Division of constant supply to Townley-road, thence south-eastward along the boundary of the F Division of constant supply to Lordship Lane Railway Station, thence westward across the fields to the junction of College-road and Union-road, thence southward along the south side of Union-road and behind the houses on the east side of Alleyn Park to Church-walk, and thence westward along Church-walk to the Paxton Hotel, and which area or district is called "Country District, Division W."

Given under the Common Seal of the Company of Proprietors of Lambeth Water Works the 3rd day of October, 1899.

Sealed by order of the Board of Directors,

H. WILKINS, Secretary.
