

other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the Metropolis affected by such representation one calendar month before such representation is so considered; provided always that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the vestry clerk of such parish:

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1855," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving notice to the Incumbent and the vestry clerk of the parish of Saint Mary, Stoke Newington, of his intention to make the representation, made a representation stating that he was of opinion that so much of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the fourteenth November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, as relates to the Church and churchyard of Saint Mary, Stoke Newington, should be varied, by substituting for the directions therein contained the Order hereinafter set forth:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the eighth day of August last to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the fourteenth November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, as affects burials in the Church and churchyard of Saint Mary, Stoke Newington, be varied by substituting for the directions therein contained the following Order, viz.:-

"And that burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Church and churchyard of Saint Mary, Stoke Newington."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:-

In the additional Churchyard of Sunbury, in the county of Middlesex, until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

In the Churchyard of Wellow, in the county of Somerset, until the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 7th day of October, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act 1855" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, the church, and, with certain exceptions, the old portion of the churchyard of Waltham, in the county of Lincoln, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order in so far as it affects burials in the said churchyard be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order be varied by the substitution of the following clause in the place of Clause (c) in the said Order:-

(c.) Of Samuel Walton Kirke and John White in the spaces reserved for that purpose.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 7th day of October, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned
