(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In reserved grave spaces which have never before been buried in, and which, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the Francis, Freeman, and Charlton families as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

(c.) In partly walled and earthen graves now existing, or in the reserved spaces immediately adjoining them, burials may be allowed of the widows or widowers of those already interred, provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

LINTON, CAMBRIDGESHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Congregational Chapel at Linton, Cambridgeshire; and also in the chapelyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In existing earthen graves burials may be allowed of the relations of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

WEST MERSEA, ESSEX.—(1.) Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of West Mersea, in the county of Essex; and also in the old portion of the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In a reserved grave space which has never before been buried in, and which, when opened, is free from water, burial may be allowed of the Reverend C. Pierrepont Edwards, and of so many members of his family as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

(2.) Forthwith and entirely in the Congregational chapelyard in the parish of West Mersea, in the county of Essex.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 24th day of November next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said 24th day of November.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 7th day of October, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1853," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of
