TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1899.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 26th day of October, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of "The Pluralities Act 1838" as amended by "The Pluralities Act 1850," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as herein-after directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twenty-third day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned Frederick, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of All England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend Ernest Roland Lord Bishop of Chichester as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Saint Martin and the rectory of Saint Olave both in the city of Chichester and county of Sussex having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons may with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and is not of inconvenient extent and that the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy Trinity of Chichester being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said rectories of Saint Martin and Saint Olave, Chichester respectively consent to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Chichester, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consent in writing of the said patrons and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of Saint Martin situate in the city and diocese of Chichester and the rectory of Saint Olave, situate in the same city and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," as amended by "The Pluralities Act, 1850," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses; that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twenty-third day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned Frederick, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend Edward Lord Bishop of Lincoln as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Owmbly and the vicarage of Normanby both in the county of Lincoln having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons and the aggregate yearly value does not exceed five hundred pounds might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Right Honourable Henry Baron James of Hereford Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster acting for and on behalf of Your Most Gracious Majesty (being the patron or person entitled to present to the said benefice of Owmbly if the same were now vacant and the Very Reverend Edward Charles Wickham, Clerk, Doctor of Divinity, Dean of the Cathedral Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Lincoln and the Chapter of the same church being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said benefice of Normanby if the same were now vacant) consent to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no cause has been shown.

"The representation of the Lord Bishop of Lincoln, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consent in writing of the patrons before referred to and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes and for declaring that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall present or nominate to the said benefices after the same shall be united into one benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say, the first and second turns shall belong to and be exercised by Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria in right of Her said Duchy of Lancaster, Her successors or assigns and the third turn in every three turns shall belong to and be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter of Lincoln their successors or assigns and so on in the same order for ever and that on the present vacancy the turn shall belong to and be exercised by Her said Majesty and shall be reckoned as the first of the above-mentioned two turns."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of Owmbly situate in the county and diocese of Lincoln, and the vicarage of Normanby, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective patrons shall present or nominate to such united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say:—the first and second turns shall belong to and be exercised by Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria in right of Her Duchy of Lancaster, Her successors or assigns, and the third turn in every three turns shall belong to and be exercised by the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln, their successors or assigns, and so on in the same order for ever, and that on the present vacancy the turn shall belong to and be exercised by Her Majesty and shall be reckoned as the first of the above-mentioned two turns.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," as amended by "The Pluralities Act, 1850," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the eighth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We Frederick by Divine Providence Archbishop of Canterbury do hereby in pursuance of 'The Pluralities Act 1838' certify to Your Majesty in Council that it having appeared to us that the benefice (being a rectory) of Elmstone and the benefice (being a vicarage) of Preston next Wingham both in the county of Kent and our diocese of Canterbury might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice for ecclesiastical purposes we enquired into the circumstances of the case and on such enquiry it appeared:

"That the benefices are contiguous and when united will not be of inconvenient extent.

"That the aggregate population of the parishes of Elmstone and Preston next Wingham according to the latest returns of population made under the authority of Parliament does not exceed five hundred and sixty-eight persons the population of the said parish of Elmstone being seventy-four and the population of the said parish of Preston next Wingham being four hundred and ninety-four.

"That there is a church belonging to each of the said benefices. The churches are distant about one mile and a quarter from each other.

"That there is a sufficient house of residence belonging to Elmstone but the house formerly occupied as the vicarage of Preston next Wingham but not considered suitable for a residence is let and the rent added to the income of the benefice.

"That the net yearly value of the said benefice of Elmstone is one hundred and sixty-five pounds or thereabouts and the net yearly value of Preston next Wingham is three hundred and twenty-two pounds or thereabouts.

"That the patronage of the said benefice of Elmstone belongs to the Reverend Walter Delmar Lindley, M.A. the present Incumbent thereof and the patronage of the said benefice of Preston next Wingham belongs to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury. Both the said patrons consent to the union of the said two benefices for ecclesiastical purposes only and that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall present or nominate to the said benefices after the same shall be united into one benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows:—subject to the right of the patron of Elmstone to present on the first vacancy of the united benefice the right of presentation thereto shall for ever thereafter belong to and be vested in and exercised by the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury.

"That after the said union is effected there shall be three full services on every Sunday throughout the year in the two churches which shall then belong to the united benefice that is to say two services at Preston and one service at Elmstone.

"That it is proposed that the house of residence that now belongs to the said benefice of Elmstone shall become the house of residence of the united benefice.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consents to Your Majesty in Council we caused a statement in writing of the facts to be affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The copies of the statement of facts and notice before referred to and the consents of the patrons before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry consents and matters aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes and for declaring that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall present and nominate to the said benefices after the same shall be united into one benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say:—subject to the right of the patron of Elmstone to present on the first vacancy of the united benefice the right of presentation thereto shall for ever thereafter belong to and be vested in and exercised by the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of Elmstone, situate in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, and the vicarage of Preston next Wingham, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective patrons shall present or nominate to such united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say:—The patron of Elmstone shall present on the first vacancy of the united benefice and on the second and every subsequent vacancy of the united benefice the right of presentation thereto shall belong to, and be vested in and exercised by, the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 26th day of October, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthias Upper Tulse Hill situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime particular district) of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill, of the district parish of Saint Matthew Brixton, in the said county and diocese, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill, in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such cures respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill, of the said district parish of Saint Matthew Brixton, and of the said new parish of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthias Upper Tulse Hill situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Archbishop of Canterbury as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Matthew Brixton, with the consents of the Reverend George Edward Tate of Number 37 Arundel-gardens Kensington Park in the county of Middlesex, Prebendary of Wells Clerk in Holy Orders of the Venerable John Richardson of Saint Edmunds Number 163 Tulse Hill in the said county of Surrey, Archdeacon of Southwark Doctor in Divinity; of the Reverend Handley Carr Glyn Moule Doctor in Divinity Norrisian Professor of Divinity in the University of Cambridge of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone of the Glade Hampstead in the said county of Middlesex, Minister of Saint John's Chapel Hampstead aforesaid, and Honorary Canon of Christ Church Oxford, and of the Reverend Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot Vicar of Saint Jude's South Kensington in the said county of Middlesex and Prebendary of Wells, Clerk in Holy Orders (commonly known as the Simeon Trustees) as the patrons of the vicarage of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill aforesaid and with the consents of the Reverend Nathaniel Arthur Garland of Number 109 Church-road Richmond in the said county of Surrey Clerk in Holy Orders, William Brown of Summerhurst, Hungershall Park Tunbridge Wells in the county of Kent Esquire Anthony George Yeates of Number 85 Tulse-hill aforesaid Esquire, Herbert Dalton of Number 12 Broadwater-down Tunbridge Wells aforesaid Esquire, and Joseph Moore of Culross, Faygate, Horsham in the county of Sussex Esquire, as the patrons of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill, of the said district parish of Saint Matthew Brixton and of the new parish of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill aforesaid which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed. should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Matthias Upper Tulse Hill situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthias Upper Tulse Hill.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthias, Upper Tulse Hill comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime particular district) of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill of the district parish of Saint Matthew Brixton, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill, all in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Brixton Hill from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill aforesaid at a point in the middle of the road called Upper Tulse-hill at a distance of five chains or thereabouts from its junction with the road called Brixton-hill and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the first-named road for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the private roadway leading to Tulse Hill House and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said private roadway for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to the point opposite to the south-eastern corner of the said house where the said private roadway bends towards the north and extending thence still eastward and in a direct line for a distance of seven and a half chains or thereabouts to a point upon the line of fences which forms the western boundary of the houses and premises situate upon the western side of the road called Tulse-hill, and extending thence northward along the said line of fences for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby passing in part along the eastern end of Craster-road, and along the backs of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of Medora-road and along the backs of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of the southern end of Leander-road and thereby passing for a short distance along the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill from the district parish of Saint Matthew Brixton aforesaid) to the point where the said line of fences is joined by the line of fences dividing the houses and premises situate on the north-eastern side of the northern end of the said Leander-road from the houses and premises situate on the south-western side of the south-western branch of Appach-road aforesaid, and extending thence north-westward along the last-described line of fences for a distance of seven and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence dividing the house and premises known as Number 1 Leander-road from certain houses and premises situate on the south-eastern side of the road called Josephine-avenue and extending thence first south-westward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its south-western end on the north-eastern side of Leander-road aforesaid and continuing thence south-westward and in a direct line across the last-named road for a distance of forty feet or thereabouts to a point on the south-western side of the same road at the northern end of the line of walls or fences which divide the houses and premises known respectively as Number 2 Leander-road and Number 1 Helix-road from certain other houses and premises situate on the south-eastern side of the road called or known as Josephine-avenue as aforesaid and continuing thence that is to say from Leander-road aforesaid still south-westward along the last-described line of walls or fences to its south-western end on the north-eastern side of Helix-road aforesaid and continuing thence still south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of forty feet or thereabouts across the last-named road to a point on the south-western side of the same road at the north-eastern end of the line of walls or fences dividing the houses and premises known respectively as Number 2 Helix-road and as Number 1 Arodene-road from the houses and premises situate on the south-eastern side of the road called Helix gardens and continuing thence that is to say from Helix-road aforesaid south-westward along the last-described line of walls or fences for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its south-western end on the north-eastern side of Arodene-road aforesaid extending thence first south-westward to, and then north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Matthew Brixton from the new parish of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill aforesaid) to a point opposite to the north-eastern end of the line of walls or fences dividing the houses and premises situate on the south-western side of Arodene-road aforesaid and the houses and premises situate on the north-eastern side of Fairmount-road, from the building and premises known as a Baptist Chapel and situate on the south-western side of Arodene-road aforesaid and from certain of the houses and premises situate on the south-eastern side of the road called or known as Brixton Hill, and extending thence, that is, from the last-described point in the middle of Arodene-road aforesaid, first south-westward then south-eastward and then again south-westward to, and along the last-described line of walls or fences for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to the south-western end of the same line of walls or fences on the north-eastern side of Fairmount-road aforesaid and continuing thence precisely in the last-mentioned direction that is to say south-westward and in a straight line across the last-named road to a point at the north-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of certain other houses and premises situate upon the south-eastern side of the road called or known as Brixton Hill as aforesaid, and extending thence that is from Fairmount-road aforesaid south-westward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to the south-western end of the same wall or fence upon the north-eastern side of Beechdale-road, and extending thence first south-westward to, and then north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as Brixton Hill aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill from the new parish of All Saints

Clapham Park in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirty-seven chains or thereabouts thereby following the middle of the road called or known as Brixton Hill as aforesaid, to the point at the junction of the same road with Mill-lane, where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill from the new parish of Christ Church Streatham in the county and diocese aforesaid, and extending thence along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts first south-eastward, across the road called Brixton Hill as aforesaid then north-eastward, and then again south-eastward following the south-western side of the firstly herein mentioned road called Upper Tulse Hill as aforesaid to its junction with the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Saviour Brixton Hill from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Tulse Hill as aforesaid and extending thence westward along the last-mentioned boundary to the first-described point in the middle of the road called Upper Tulse Hill as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

Board of Trade (Fisheries and Harbour Department), London, October 31, 1899.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following copy of a Decree respecting quarantine issued by the Belgian Government, viz. :—

Moniteur Belge 22 Octobre 1899.

Défense de laisser importer des bois provenant de la démolition d'abris, élevés à bord de navires, pour le transport de chevaux et de bestiaux.

Le Ministre de l'Agriculture,

Vu la loi du 30 Décembre 1882, sur la police sanitaire des animaux domestiques ;

Vu l'arrêté royal du 27 Mai 1899, modifiant notamment l'Article 46 du règlement d'administration générale du 20 Septembre 1883, pris en exécution de la loi susvisée ;

Attendu qu'il se fait fréquemment dans le pays des ventes de bois, insuffisamment nettoyés et désinfectés, provenant de la démolition d'abris ayant servi à bord de navires affectés au transport de chevaux et de bestiaux ;

Considérant que ces ventes présentent des dangers au point de vue de la propagation de la morve et d'autres affections contagieuses de nos animaux domestiques,

Arrêté :

Article unique. A dater du 15 Novembre 1899, est interdite l'importation dans le pays, tant par voie de mer que par voie de terre, des bois provenant de la démolition de stalles, boxes ou abris quelconques ayant servi au transport de chevaux ou de bestiaux à bord de navires.

Peste.—Mesures aux frontières.

Le Ministre de l'Agriculture,

Vu l'arrêté royal du 5 Avril 1897, prescrivant des mesures sanitaires relativement aux provenances de pays ou de circonscriptions territoriales déclarés contaminés de peste ;

Vu spécialement les Articles 5 et 6 de cet arrêté, chargeant le Ministre de l'Agriculture et des travaux publics de désigner les pays ou parties de pays à l'égard desquels le régime prévu par les Articles 1er à 4 du dit arrêté concernant l'importation et le transit des marchandises, sera rendu applicable, et de régler les mesures à prendre dans les ports, au point de vue de la visite médicale, de l'isolement et de la désinfection, à l'égard des navires considérés comme infectés, suspects ou indemnes,

Arrête :

ART. 1er. Les dispositions qui font l'objet des Articles 1er à 4 de l'arrêté royal du Avril 1897, susvisés, sont rendues applicables aux provenances du port de Santos (Brésil), contaminé par la peste.

ART. 2. Ces provenances, arrivant par voie de mer, seront soumises à la station sanitaire de l'Escaut, et dans les ports d'Ostende et de Nieuport, ainsi qu'à Selzaete, au régime stipulé par les Chapitres II, III, et IV du règlement sanitaire général annexé à la Convention sanitaire internationale de Venise, en date du 19 Mars 1897.

NOTICES TO MARINERS.

(Nos. 681 to 683 of the year 1899.)

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the visibility of lights are given from seaward.]

No. 681.—IRELAND—DUBLIN BAY.

Rosbeg Bank Buoy—Colour Altered.

INFORMATION, dated 17th October, 1899, has been received from the Irish Lights Office that the colour of Rosbeg Bank Buoy, Dublin Bay, has been changed from red to black.

Approximate position, lat.  $53^{\circ} 21' N.$ , long.  $6^{\circ} 34' W.$

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Wicklow to the Skerries Islands, No. 1468; Dublin Bay, No. 1415. Also, Coast of Ireland Pilot, 1893, page 145; and Supplement, 1899, relating to that work, page 13.

No. 682.—ENGLAND—RIVER THAMES APPROACH.

Wallet, and Two Maplin Buoys—Intended Alteration in Position.

THE Trinity House, London, has given notice that, on or about 4th November, 1899, the under-mentioned buoys in the River Thames Approach will be altered in position, as follows:—

1. Wallet Spitway Buoy will be moved  $3\frac{1}{2}$  cables E. by N.  $\frac{1}{2}$  N. of its present position.

2. N.E. Maplin Buoy will be moved one cable east of its present position.

3. Maplin Edge Buoy will be moved one cable east of its present position.

Approximate position, lat.  $51^{\circ} 36\frac{1}{2}' N.$ , long.  $1^{\circ} 54' E.$

[Variation  $15^{\circ}$  Westerly in 1893.]

NOTE.—The Buxey Spit having extended eastward, the best water for crossing the Spitway will be found in the direct line of the buoys, and just eastward of them.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Kentish Knock to West Swin, No. 1975; North Foreland to the Nore, No. 1607. Also, North Sea Pilot, Part III, 1897, pages 301, 315, 313; and Hydrographic Notice No. 1 of 1898, relating to that work, page 10.

No. 683.—ADRIATIC—QUARNERO GULF.

Tre Sorelle Islands Light—Exhibited.

THE Austro-Hungarian Government has given notice, dated 9th October, 1899, that a red fixed light of the 5th order is exhibited on Tre Sorelle Islands, north-westward of Rivagn Island.

Tre Sorelle Light is elevated 40 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 10 miles; it is obscured from the bearing of S.  $32^{\circ}$  E., through east, to N.  $25^{\circ}$  E. (over the Sorelle Islands), and from S.  $61^{\circ}$  W. to S.  $53^{\circ}$  W. (over Saida Shoal), but visible in other directions.

The light tower is joined to a building of one storey, erected about 10 yards within the north-east point of the southernmost of the Tre Sorelle Islands.

Approximate position, lat.  $44^{\circ} 10' 20'' N.$ , long.  $15^{\circ} 0' 40'' E.$

[Variation  $8^{\circ}$  Westerly in 1899.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Gulf of Quarnero, No. 2711. Also, List of Lights, Part V, 1899, No. 754; and Mediterranean Pilot, Vol. III, 1899, page 208.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
26th to 27th October, 1899.

Board of Trade.—Session 1900.

Prestwich Electric Lighting.
(Power for Prestwich Urban District Council to produce, store, and supply Electricity within the District; to acquire and appropriate Lands, and to construct Works and break up or interfere with Streets, Railways, and Brooks; and to lay down or to erect Mains, Pipes, Wires, and Apparatus; to demand and receive Rates and Charges; Power to enter into Houses and Buildings, and on Lands; Contracts and Transfer of Undertaking; Borrowing of Money and other Powers.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the District Council of the Urban District of Prestwich, in the county of Lancaster (hereinafter called "the Council"), and whose offices are at the Council Offices, Chester Bank, Prestwich, intend to apply to the Board of Trade, on or before the twenty-first day of December next, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize the Council to produce, store, supply, and distribute electricity for public and private purposes, as defined by the said Acts, within the Urban District of Prestwich (hereinafter called "the area of supply").

2. To enable the Council to acquire, take on lease, and hold lands or interests or easements in or over lands, or to appropriate for the purposes of the Order any lands belonging to or held by them, and to erect, maintain, work, and use upon such lands all necessary or proper engines, dynamos, batteries, machinery, apparatus, works, and appliances for generating, producing, storing, supplying, and distributing electricity, or for other the purposes of the Undertaking, and to empower the Council to sell or dispose of any lands not required for the purposes of the Undertaking.

3. To authorize the Council to open, break up, and interfere with all streets, roads, and public places, ways, footpaths, railways, rivers; towing-paths, bridges, culverts, sewers, drains, and gas and water mains and pipes; and telegraph and telephone and other wires within the area of supply, and to lay down, erect, maintain, renew, and remove either above or under ground, or otherwise electric lines, conductors, mains, pipes, tubes, wires, posts, street or distributing-boxes, meters, apparatus, or other works or things required for the purpose of enabling the Council to supply, produce, store, convey, transmit, or distribute electricity within the area of supply, and to confer all such other powers upon the Council as may be necessary for effecting the objects of the proposed Undertaking.

4. To authorize the Council to manufacture, purchase, hire, sell, and let all necessary lamps, accumulators, meters, fittings, plant, engines, dynamos, machinery, and other matters or things required for the purposes of the Order, and to acquire, work, and use patent rights for the producing, storing, controlling, distributing, and measuring, or otherwise relating to the supply of electricity.

5. To authorize the Council to take, collect, and recover rates, rents, and charges for the supply of electricity, and the use of any machines, lamps, meters, fittings, or apparatus connected therewith.

6. To prescribe or limit the area within which electricity shall at first be supplied, and to provide for the ultimate extension of the limits of supply to the whole of the district of the Council.

7. The names of the streets or parts of streets repairable by the Council in which it is proposed that electric lines shall be laid down within a specified time are as follows:—(1) Bury New-road from the George Hotel to the footpath leading to the Asylum; (2) Hilton-lane from Bury New-road to the Headlands; (3) Whittaker-lane, (4) Rectory-lane, (5) Bury Old-road from Singleton Brook to Glebelands-road, (6) Guest-road, (7) Poppythorn-lane, (8) Fairfax-road, (9) Wash-lane to the junction of Clifton-road and Gardner-road.

8. To exempt the Council from the obligation to supply electricity within such part or parts of the area of supply or under such circumstances as shall be specified in the Order.

9. To authorize the Council to break up, pass, or cross over or under the following streets not repairable by the Council, viz.:—Sedgley-park, Hilton-park, Prestwich-park, Deyne-avenue, Glebelands-road, Butterstile-lane, and Egerton-street, and also so much and such parts of the railways of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, so far as such railways lie within the area of supply.

10. To make provisions for the inspection and testing of mains, conductors, and works, for the appointment and remuneration of electric inspectors, and for the supply, use, inspection, testing, and certifying of meters, fittings, and instruments.

11. To authorize the Council to enter upon any houses, buildings, or lands supplied, or proposed to be supplied with electricity for any purpose relating to such supply.

12. To authorize the Council to enter into contracts with corporations, companies, or persons for the execution and maintenance of works, and the supply of electricity, and to relieve the Council from the consequences of any acts or defaults of any such contractors, and to empower the Council to sell or transfer to corporations, companies, or persons all or some of the rights, powers, privileges, and obligations intended to be conferred or imposed by the Order, for such period, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon.

13. To confer upon the Council all or some of the powers of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, and enactments incorporated therewith, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might interfere with any of the objects of the Order, and to confer all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying such objects into effect.

14. To empower the Council to borrow money for all or any of the purposes of the Order, and to charge the moneys so borrowed and interest upon the district fund and general district rate of the district, and to empower the Council to apply any of their funds to any of the purposes of the Order, and to provide for the disposal or application of the revenue arising from the Undertaking.

15. To incorporate with the Order section 265 of the Public Health Act, 1875 (relating to the protection of local authorities and their officers from personal liability), and to extend that section to matters arising under the Order; also the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899.

And notice is hereby given, that the draft of the Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade on or before the twenty-first day of December, 1899, and printed copies of the draft Order, when deposited, and of the Order when made, may be obtained (at the price of one shilling for each copy) at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitor and Parliamentary Agents.

And notice is hereby further given, that a map, showing the boundaries of the proposed area of supply, and the streets in which it is proposed that electric lines shall be laid down within a specified time, and a copy of this advertisement as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November, 1899, for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office at Preston, and at the office of the Clerk of the Council, at Chester Bank, Prestwich aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that every local or other public authority, company, or person desirous of bringing before the Board of Trade any objection respecting this application, must do so by letter, addressed to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Electric Lighting Acts," on or before the fifteenth day of January, 1900, and a copy of such objections must also at the same time be forwarded to the Clerk of the District Council, or to the undermentioned Parliamentary Agents for the Order.

Dated this 27th day of October, 1899.

LEWIS A. ORFORD, Solicitor and Clerk to the District Council, Chester Bank, Prestwich.

LEWIN, GREGORY, and ANDERSON, 6, the Sanctuary, Westminster, London, S.W., Parliamentary Agents.
