"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Aidan Skel-manthorpe, being :—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Augustine Scissett, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Wakefield, which is bounded upon the north by the parish of Emley, upon the north-west by the new parish of Emmanuel, Shelley, upon the south-west partly by the last-named new parish and partly by the parochial chapelry of Cumberworth all in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-east and upon the east by an imaginary line commencing at the point upon the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Cumberworth from the new parish of Saint Augustine Scissett aforesaid in the footpath which leads from Lane Hackings Green to Gilthwaites-lane at a distance of two chains or thereabouts from its junction with that lane and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said footpath for the said distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Gilthwaites-lane aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to the point where it is joined by Lidgett-lane and by the footpath which leads past the north-western side of Skel-manthorpe Cemetery into High Bridge-lane and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described footpath for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts (thereby passing the said cemetery) to the point where such footpath joins High Bridge-lane aforesaid and Busker-lane, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to the point where such lane bends sharply south-eastward and extending thence due north and in a direct line for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing Pilling-lane and the Clayton West Branch Line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway and passing to the east of Blacker Wood and crossing the stream called Park Gate Dike) to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Augustine Scissett from the parish of Emley aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Wakefield.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 11th day of January, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of "The Burial Act 1853" made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

PINXTON, DERBY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Pinxton in the county of Derby ; and also in the old churchyard except as follows :—

(a.) In existing vaults burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In reserved grave spaces which have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

MAPPOWDER, DORSET.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Mappowder, in the county of Dorset ; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In the vault now existing of the Reverend Alfred Roberts burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In the adjoining reserved grave space burials may be allowed, at their decease, of so many members of the family of the Reverend Alfred Roberts as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

(c.) In existing grave spaces which are free from water the burial of John Gosney, Miss E. Bennett, Robert Chaldecott, Mrs. James Chaldecott, and John Miller Biles, at their decease, may be allowed provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without disturbing human remains.

CHARTHAM, KENT.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Chartham, in the county of Kent ; and also in the churchyard except as follows :—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed, at their decease, of the widows, widowers, brothers, and sisters of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

(c.) In existing grave spaces which when opened are free from water the burial of children may be allowed provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of four feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

BUCKNALL, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Bucknall in the county of Lincoln : and also in the old churchyard except for the burial of Mrs. Augusta Lutt, at her decease, in a grave not less than five feet deep.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into
