And whereas by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892," and by "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892," made in pursuance of that Act, it is provided that certain things may or shall be done on payment of the proper fee, and that Act further provides that the proper fee shall be such fee as may for the time being be fixed under the first recited Act, and that the fee so fixed as respects a Consul shall be the fee which shall be taken by any marriage officer;

And whereas under "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," Her Majesty in Council has power to make Orders in Council, and also to revoke or vary Orders in Council, made, or deemed to have been made, in pursuance of that Act;

And whereas it is expedient that the Table of Fees fixed by "The Consular Fees (China, Japan, and Corea) Order in Council, 1892," should, in certain respects, be amended, and that the whole of the fees to be taken by Consular officers and marriage officers in Japan should be stated in sterling currency, and should be fixed by an Order in Council made under the provisions of "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891:"

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the beforementioned Acts, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Japan (Consular and Marriage Fees) Order in Council, 1900."

4. On and after the day on which this Order comes into operation in any place in Japan, "The Consular Fees (China, Japan, and Corea) Order in Council, 1892," shall be repealed as to that place, but this repeal shall not affect any right or liability existing at the time when this Order so comes into operation.

5. In this Order the expression "Consular Jurisdiction" means and includes the district, place, or places for which a Consular officer acts.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of January, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of County Coroner," it was amongst other things enacted that "when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any County that such County should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of this Act or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under this Act it shall be lawful for the said Justices in General or Quarter Session assembled to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty praying that such division or alteration be made and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such County as hereinafter provided.

"The Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said Justices into consideration and the Justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the Justices for that purpose touching such petition having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of inhabitants the nature of their employments and such other circumstances as shall appear to the Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of this Act, and such petition with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof with the reasons upon which the petition is founded shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and the Clerk of the Peace for such county shall forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition certified under his hand to every Coroner for such county.

"It shall be lawful for Her Majesty if She shall think fit with the advice of Her Privy Council after taking into consideration any such petition and also any petition which may be presented to Her by any Coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a Writ de Coronatore Eligendo for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such county to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of this Act as to Her Majesty with the advice aforesaid shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette."

And whereas by "The Local Government Act 1888" the powers and business of the said Justices in respect of the matters aforesaid in each county have been transferred to the council of such county.

And whereas by an Order in Council made the twenty-sixth November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two under the provisions of the hereinbefore first recited Act the county of Essex was divided into three districts for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said Act which said districts were named respectively the Eastern Coroner's District, the Western Coroner's District and the Romford Coroner's District and comprised respectively the several parishes named and set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council.

The Southern and Western Coroner's District, and comprised respectively the several parishes and places named and set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council.

And whereas the office of Coroner for the Romford District of the said county has become, and now is, vacant.

And whereas by virtue of the provisions of the law relating to Local Government the parish of Romford forming part of the said Romford Coroner's District has been divided into three separate parishes named respectively Noak Hill, Romford Urban and Romford Rural.

And whereas on the third day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine a petition was presented to Her Majesty by the County Council of Essex praying that the Romford Coroner's District might be amalgamated with the Southern and Western Coroner's District of the said county which said petition together with a Schedule thereto containing a list of the parishes in the said Romford Coroner's District proposed to be added to the said Southern and Western Coroner's District of the said county and the reasons upon which the petition is founded were duly certified to Her Majesty.

And whereas all the provisions of the hereinbefore first recited Act in that behalf have been complied with in relation to the said petition.

And whereas the Coroners for the said county have not presented any petition to Her Majesty.

And whereas Her Majesty has with the advice of Her Privy Council taken into consideration the said petition and is minded to make such alteration and division as prayed in the said petition.

Now therefore Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to order, direct, and declare, and it is hereby ordered, directed and declared that from the date of this Order:—

1. The county of Essex shall be divided into three districts for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said first recited Act by the incorporation with the said Southern and Western Coroner's District of the parishes comprised in the said Romford Coroner's District of the county of Essex namely the parishes of Havering, Hornchurch, Noak Hill, Romford Urban and Romford Rural.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of January, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such titling, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining titling, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Lord Bishop of Lincoln hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid represented in a writing dated the eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

"I the Right Reverend Edward Lord Bishop of Lincoln do hereby represent to Your Grace that there is in the county and diocese of Lincoln the rectory of Scotton to which belongs amongst other places the ancient chapelry of East Ferry the boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That the population of the said parish of Scotton according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one exclusive of the said chapelry of East Ferry is two hundred and twenty-five persons.

"That the population of East Ferry according to the same census amounts to one hundred and twelve persons.

"That there is one church in the parish of Scotton affording accommodation for about two hundred and fifty persons and one other church or chapel in the said chapelry of East Ferry affording accommodation for about one hundred persons.

"That the parish church of Scotton is distant from the church or chapel of East Ferry upwards of six miles.

"That the net annual value of the said rectory of Scotton and the chapelry of East Ferry after deducting all rates taxes and other permanent charges and outgoings is four hundred and five pounds or thereabouts arising from tithe rent-charge glebe land dividends and fees.

"That there is a good and sufficient house of residence belonging to the said rectory of Scotton but there is no house of residence belonging to the said chapelry of East Ferry.

"That the said rectory of Scotton is at the present time subject to an outstanding mortgage debt to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne amounting to the sum of four hundred and sixty-six pounds six shillings and fourpence on account of principal with current interest thereon at the rate of four per centum per annum.

"That Scotton and East Ferry though forming one civil parish have each its own parish meeting are separately rated and are for all practical purposes quite distinct. That baptisms churchings marriages and burials happening or arising within the said chapelry of East Ferry have been from time immemorial and are now solemnized or take place in the parish church of Scotton or the churchyard thereto belonging.

"That the said rectory of Scotton is in the patronage of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting for and on behalf of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria and is now held by the Reverend Thomas Harris as incumbent thereof.

"That there is in the same county and diocese the vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston the parish whereof contains according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one a population of one thousand two hundred and ninety-six persons.

"That the said vicarage and parish of Oulston otherwise Owston have one church containing accommodation for six hundred persons.

"That there is a good and sufficient house of residence belonging to the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston.

"That the net annual value of the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston after deducting all rates taxes and other permanent charges and outgoings amounts to two hundred and sixty-three pounds or thereabouts arising from tithe rent charge glebe land and payments by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"That the parish church of Oulston otherwise

Owston is distant from the aforesaid chapelry of East Ferry half a mile.

"That the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston is in the patronage of the First Lord Commissioner of Her Majesty's Treasury acting for and on behalf of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria and is now held by the Reverend Harry Emmitt Clark as incumbent thereof.

"That owing to the great distance between the parish church of Scotton and the chapel at East Ferry it is a matter of very considerable difficulty for the rector resident at Scotton to exercise that spiritual oversight of the people at East Ferry which is to be desired.

"That for a long time past by a voluntary arrangement between the incumbents of Scotton and Oulston otherwise Owston the incumbent of the latter place has made himself responsible for the services at East Ferry and for the spiritual oversight of the people there.

"That a rector of Scotton taking duty at East Ferry could only do so to the detriment of both services that he would be unable to superintend the Sunday School and taking the services at both places would involve a journey of at least twelve miles every Sunday.

"That owing to the distance the Rector of Scotton cannot adequately visit the sick and dying at East Ferry.

"That as regards baptisms churchings and marriages it will be a very great convenience to the residents in the said chapelry of East Ferry if these could be performed celebrated and take place in the parish church at Oulston otherwise Owston instead of at Scotton as heretofore but it is considered to be desirable that the burial of the bodies of persons dying inhabitants of the said chapelry shall be buried in the churchyard of the said parish of Scotton as heretofore.

"That although there is no bridge across the River Trent which separates East Ferry from Oulston otherwise Owston yet there is a ready mode of access from one place to the other by means of a Queen's ferry which is by law continuously served every day from six o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night.

"That it will be a much greater convenience for the people of East Ferry to cross the Trent by means of the aforesaid ferry whenever they wish to attend Divine service at the parish church of Oulston otherwise Owston half a mile distant than to walk to their present parish church at Scotton six miles distant.

"That it is very desirable in the interests of religion that such chapelry should be placed under the care of the Vicar of Oulston otherwise Owston whereby the visitation of the sick the management of schools and all other parish work may be carried out much more efficiently and with greater usefulness and satisfaction than at present and therefore it appears to me that the said chapelry of East Ferry may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six and the second and third years of Her said Majesty chapter forty-nine be advantageously separated from the said rectory and parish of Scotton and united to the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That in the event of the said proposed separation and union taking effect it is proposed that the said chapelry of East Ferry and any portion of the endowments of the said rectory of Scotton which may be transferred and annexed shall with the consent of the aforesaid Governors be wholly freed released and discharged from all liability to the aforesaid mortgage debt and all interest thereon which consent is signified by an instrument in writing hereunto annexed and sealed by the said Governors.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in section twenty-six of the said first mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction dues rates and payments and in respect to rights to pews if any may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do submit the same to Your Grace together with the consents in writing of the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Earl of Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for and on behalf of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria the Patron and of the Reverend Thomas Harris the Rector of the said rectory of Scotton and also of the Right Honourable Arthur James Balfour, M.P., First Lord Commissioner of Her Majesty's Treasury for and on behalf of Her said Majesty the Patron and of the Reverend Harry Emmitt Clark the Vicar of the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston. To the intent that Your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consents to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"That the said chapelry of East Ferry be separated from the said rectory of Scotton and united to the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston for all ecclesiastical purposes and be under the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston now is and the chapel of East Ferry shall be a chapel of ease to the parish church of Oulston otherwise Owston.

"That the vicar of Oulston otherwise Owston shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the said chapelry of East Ferry.

"That baptisms churchings and marriages arising happening or accruing within the said chapelry of East Ferry shall be performed celebrated and take place in the parish church of Oulston otherwise Owston instead of the parish church of Scotton and that the fees for all other ecclesiastical offices including such burials of persons dying inhabitants of East Ferry as shall be buried at Oulston otherwise Owston and all ecclesiastical dues offerings and other emoluments arising from or in respect of the said chapelry of East Ferry and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice shall except as hereinafter provided belong and be paid to the vicar of Oulston otherwise Owston aforesaid.

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelry of East Ferry shall continue to be entitled to bury their dead in the said burial ground belonging to the said parish of Scotton as heretofore.

"That the fees for the burial in the said churchyard of Scotton of the bodies of persons dying inhabitants of the said chapelry shall be payable to the Incumbent of the said parish of Scotton as heretofore and shall be of the same amount as at present.

"That the tithe rent-charge specified and set forth in the schedule hereunder written being part of the tithe rent-charge arising within the said chapelry of East Ferry and now belonging to and forming part of the endowment of the said rectory of Scotton be transferred from the said rectory of Scotton and annexed and belong to and form part of the endowment of the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston.

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelry of East Ferry shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the parish church of Scotton or any other church or chapel now or hereafter to be erected in the said parish of Scotton but shall be liable subject to the provisions of 'The Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Act 1868' to repair the said parish church of Oulston otherwise Owston as well as the said chapel of East Ferry and the said rector of Scotton shall henceforth cease to be liable to repair or contribute to the repair of the chancel of the said chapel of East Ferry.

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelry of East Ferry shall be entitled to resort to and attend the parish church of Oulston otherwise Owston aforesaid as their parish church and also the said chapel of East Ferry and to be accommodated with pews and sittings therein concurrently with all other parishioners of the said parish of Oulston otherwise Owston as the ordinary may direct sanction or approve but shall not be entitled to any accommodation in the said parish church of Scotton.

"That nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect the rights of patronage to either of the said benefices of the rectory of Scotton or the vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston but that the same shall remain continue and be as they now are.

"That nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect the revenues and endowments of the said rectory of Scotton except that there shall be annexed to the said benefice of Oulston otherwise Owston a certain part of the tithe rent-charge arising within the said chapelry of East Ferry as set forth in the schedule hereon and the fees arising within the said chapelry which are hereinbefore assigned thereto.

" CONSENTS.

"I the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Earl of Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for and on behalf of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria the patron entitled to present to the said rectory of Scotton in case the same were now vacant I the Reverend Thomas Harris Clerk the Rector of the said rectory of Scotton I the Right Honourable Arthur James Balfour, M.P., First Lord Commissioner of Her Majesty's Treasury for and on behalf of Her said Majesty the patron entitled to present to the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston in case the same were now vacant and I the Reverend Harry Emmitt Clark Clerk the Vicar of the said vicarage of Oulston otherwise Owston do hereby severally and respectively signify our consent to the scheme above proposed and to every matter and thing therein contained.

And whereas by consent of the mortgagees signified under the seal of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne the chapelry of East Ferry has been wholly freed released and discharged from all liability in respect of the mortgage debt of four hundred and sixty-six pounds six shillings and four pence in the representation of the said Bishop referred to as being a charge upon the rectory of Scotton which said consent is in the words following:—

"We the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy as such mortgagees as in the above representation mentioned do by this writing under our common seal signify our consent that the whole of the said outstanding mortgage debt now remaining unpaid shall be a charge upon the said rectory of Scotton exclusively provided always that the portion of the tithe rent charge now belonging to the said rectory and proposed by the above scheme to be transferred and annexed to the

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of January, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of "The Pluralities Act 1838" as amended by "The Pluralities Act 1850," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as herein-after directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the sixteenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned Frederick Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of All England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend Edward Henry Lord Bishop of Exeter as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Saint Pancras and the rectory of Saint Paul with All Hallows both in the city of Exeter and county of Devon having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons may with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and is not of inconvenient extent and that the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter in Exeter being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said rectories of Saint Pancras and Saint Paul with All Hallows respectively consent to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

the 29th day of January, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirtieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, in the words following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and benefice (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of the Holy Trinity Richmond, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Richmond is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Right Reverend William Boyd Bishop of Ripon, and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said William Boyd Bishop of Ripon is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Richmond now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Ripon.

"And whereas the said William Boyd now Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon and in token of such his desire and also in token that he is willing to accept such transfer and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinafore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said William Boyd Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"Whereas the house and premises with the appurtenances thereto belonging situate in the city of Bangor are now vested as and for an episcopal residence in the said Bishop of Bangor.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Watkin Herbert now Bishop of Bangor and it has been made to appear to us that the said house has no architectural or antiquarian interest that it is badly constructed and inconveniently arranged and that it could not at any reasonable outlay be made suitable for an episcopal residence.

"And whereas the site of the said residence lies in the basin of a small brook now converted into a sewer and is subject to the discharge of large quantities of water from the higher ground adjacent causing the said house and premises to be damp and insanitary.

"And whereas under the circumstances hereinbefore set forth it appears to us to be expedient and likely to conduce to the permanent benefit of the See of Bangor that the sale of the said house and premises with the appurtenances thereto belonging should be effected in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Watkin Herbert Bishop of Bangor (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose as follows that is to say:—

"And we further recommend and propose that so soon as the above-mentioned new episcopal residence shall have been provided the said Watkin Herbert, Bishop of Bangor or his successors shall at his or their personal charge and expense insure and keep insured from loss or damage by fire the same residence with the outbuildings and appurtenances thereof such insurance being effected in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster for such a sum not being less than the sum which may be certified by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners' Surveyors as the probable cost of entirely rebuilding the same in case of fire as may be determined by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and that such Bishop shall within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become payable deliver to us the receipt for the same and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said residence any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied and we recommend and propose that the same together with any interest and accumulation thereof shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said residence or any part thereof which may have so suffered loss and damage in such manner as shall be determined on by us with the concurrence of the Bishop of Bangor for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bangor.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eleventh day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Coxwold Saint Michael with Yearsley in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Coxwold Saint Michael with Yearsley is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple Archbishop of York and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Coxwold Saint Michael with Yearsley, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Archbishop of York for the time being.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Coxwold Saint Michael with Yearsley which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for a grant out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the ecclesiastical parish of Coxwold Saint Michael with Yearsley.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Dalrymple Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Coxwold Saint Michael with Yearsley now vested in him the said William Dalrymple Archbishop of York and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from him and them to himself the said William Dalrymple Archbishop of York as such Archbishop, and to his successors Archbishops of York and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by him the said William Dalrymple Archbishop of York as such Archbishop and by his successors Archbishops of York for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Circular No. 35. Division of Customs and Insular Affairs.

War Department, Washington,
January 4, 1900.

The following Order of the President, relative to quarantine regulations for ports in the Philippine Islands, is hereby published for the information and guidance of all concerned :—

Executive Mansion, Washington,
January 3, 1900.

To prevent the introduction of epidemic disease, it is ordered that the provisions of the Act of Congress approved February 15, 1893, entitled "An Act granting additional quarantine powers and imposing additional duties upon the Marine Hospital Service," and all rules and regulations heretofore or hereafter prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury under that Act are to be given full force and effect in the Philippine Islands, in so far as they are applicable, and the following additional rules and regulations are hereby promulgated :—

The examination in ports of the Philippine Islands of incoming and outgoing vessels, and the necessary surveillance over their sanitary condition as well as of cargo, passengers, crew, and of all personal effects, is vested in, and will be conducted by, the Marine Hospital Service, and medical officers of that service will be detailed by the Secretary of the Treasury as quarantine officers at the ports of Manila and Iloilo immediately, and at other ports in the Philippine Islands as soon as practicable or necessary.

Quarantine officers shall have authority over incoming vessels, their wharfage and anchorage, in so far as is necessary for the proper enforcement of the quarantine regulations, including vessels of the Army Transport Service and non-combatant vessels of the navy.

Collectors of Customs at ports of entry will not permit entry without quarantine certificates.

Any vessel leaving any port in the Philippine Islands for any port in the United States, or its dependencies, shall obtain a bill of health from the quarantine officer, when such officer is on duty; said bill of health to correspond to the consular bill of health now required by Treasury regulations; and the bill of health shall not be given to an outgoing vessel unless all quarantine regulations have been complied with. At ports where no medical officer is detailed the bills of health will be signed by the collector of customs or other officer to whom such duty has been legally delegated. Special regulations relating to the bills of health to be obtained by vessels of the United States Navy will be promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The medical officer detailed under this Order as quarantine officer at the Port of Manila shall be the chief quarantine officer for the Philippine Islands. It shall be his duty to make appointments and removals from the service in the Philippines (subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury), and shall authorize necessary expenditures, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

The regulations for the government of the Marine Hospital Service shall, so far as practicable, have force and effect in the management of the quarantine service in the Philippine Islands.

The expenses of the quarantine service will be charged against the revenues of the Islands, and a sum not to exceed three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) in each fiscal year is hereby set aside from the revenues collected in said Islands for this purpose. The expenses shall be paid therefrom upon the certificate of a detailed quarantine officer, and upon the approval of the chief quarantine officer for the Philippine Islands.

The chief quarantine officer shall render a report on the last day of each month to the Supervising Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital Service, who will issue to him necessary instructions.

The Epidemic Fund will be reimbursed from the revenues of the Island, for the cost of disinfecting appliances and materials ordered to be forwarded to the Islands prior to the date of this Order.
