TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1900.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 12, 1900.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be closed on and after Tuesday, the 13th instant, until further orders.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, February 12, 1900.

NOTICE is hereby also given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levée at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, 7th March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levée shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVÉES TO BE HELD AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levées are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levée, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levée, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

HOPETOUN,
Lord Chamberlain.

If such evidence should prove prima facie satisfactory the candidate will be admitted to examination, subject, in the case of his being successful in the competition, to such further inquiry, and the production of such further evidence as may be necessary.

III. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. English Composition.
4. Mathematics: Arithmetic, Algebra, up to and including the Binomial Theorem; the theory and use of Logarithms; Euclid, Books I to IV and VI; Plane Trigonometry, up to and including the Solution of Triangles; Mensuration.
5. Land Surveying and Levelling.

IV. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such time and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

V. A fee of £1 will be required from every Candidate attending the Examination.

Civil Service Commission, February 13, 1900.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for situations as Second Class Clerk, Lower Section, for Post Service in the Department of Her Majesty's Customs, will be held in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Bristol, Hull, Liverpool, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Glasgow, Belfast, and Cork, commencing on the 27th March, 1900, under the Regulations dated the 7th July, 1899, and published in the London Gazette of the same date.

Not fewer than six Candidates will be appointed on the result of this Examination, if so many should be found qualified.

No person will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 13th March, 1900, an application, in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Inland Revenue Office, February 10, 1900.

J. S. PURCELL, Registrar of Bank Returns.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Wright.
No. 00366 of 1899.

In the Matter of the English Grains Company Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Act 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given that by an Order of the High Court of Justice made by Mr. Justice Wright on the 14th day of December 1899 in the above mentioned matter it was ordered that the Special Resolution passed and confirmed at 2 Extraordinary General Meetings of the above named Company held respectively on the 10th October 1899 and the 31st October 1899 and which resolution was in the words and figures following that is to say:—"That the capital of the Company be reduced by £6,452 10s. and that such reduction shall take effect upon the deferred shares by reducing the nominal value of the 2,581 deferred shares of £5 each already issued and fully paid to £2 10s. each" be confirmed. And it was ordered that the addition of the words "and reduced" to the title of the said Company be dispensed with at the expiration of one month from the date of the said Order. And notice is hereby also given that the said Order has been produced to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies and a copy thereof has been delivered to him together with a Minute approved by the said

Judge in the words and figures following namely:—"The capital of the English Grains Company Limited and Reduced henceforth is £68,547 10s. divided into 10,000 preferred shares of £5 each and 5,000 deferred shares of which 2,419 are shares of £5 each and 2,581 are shares of £2 10s. each instead of the former capital of £75,000 divided into 10,000 preferred shares of £5 each and 5,000 deferred shares of £5 each. At the time of the registration of this Minute 5,962 of the preferred shares Nos. 1 to 5962 both inclusive have been issued and the sum of £5 has been or is to be deemed to have been paid up on each of such shares and 4,038 the residue of the said preferred shares have not been issued and nothing is to be deemed to have been paid up thereon—2,581 of the deferred shares Nos. 1 to 780 both inclusive and 1181 to 2981 both inclusive have been issued and £2 10s. has been or is to be deemed to have been paid up on each of such shares and 2,419 the residue of the said deferred shares have not been issued and nothing is to be deemed to have been paid up thereon" and such Order and Minute have been duly registered by the said Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.—Dated this 8th day of February 1900.

KINGSFORD DORMAN and Co. 23 Essex-street Strand London Solicitors for the said Company.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial reporting and auditing. The text notes that incomplete or inaccurate records can lead to significant errors and potential legal consequences.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and tools used for data collection and analysis. It mentions the use of spreadsheets, databases, and specialized software to ensure that data is organized and accessible. The importance of data integrity and security is also highlighted, as well as the need for regular backups and updates to the systems used.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the process of data analysis and interpretation. It describes how raw data is processed, cleaned, and analyzed to extract meaningful insights. The text discusses the use of statistical methods and data visualization techniques to present the results in a clear and understandable manner. It also touches upon the importance of validating the results and ensuring that the analysis is unbiased and objective.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the application of the findings and the implications for decision-making. It notes that the insights gained from the analysis can be used to identify trends, patterns, and areas for improvement. The text emphasizes the need for clear communication of the results to the relevant stakeholders and the importance of using the findings to inform strategic decisions and actions.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes with a summary of the key points and a final statement on the importance of ongoing monitoring and evaluation. It notes that the process of data analysis is not a one-time event but a continuous cycle that requires regular review and updates. The text ends with a call to action, encouraging the reader to implement the best practices discussed in the document to ensure the highest quality of data and analysis.
